Local Events.

John Brown was down from Airlie on business a day or two last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hervey M. Hoskins were down from McMinnville the first of the week visiting with relatives.

Wesley Boyes' little four year old son fell from a cherry tree on Tuesday and sustained a fracture of the bones of a fore arm.

Elsia Wright is down from Mc-Minnville this week, superintending the concrete work for the foundation for the new brick block.

The senior class in college, composed of eight young men and two young ladies have been appearing on the streets during the week dressed in caps and gowns.

Walter Lashier came down from Friend, Wasco county, the first of the week to close up his accounts as postmaster at Rex, Mrs. Conradi having received her commission as postmistress.

Chris Hanson, who removed here with his wife and three children from Kennewick, Washington, some ten days ago, has bought the home on east Fifth street, belonging to the Misses Williams.

G. W. James left here Monday for his new post of duty in the Southern Pacific station at Dallas. G. W. Cutts has taken the place in the office here for the present and we are hoping that he may get the place permanently.

Alfred Wheeler and wife, who went to Morgan City, California, in the early spring, have returned to Newberg, on account of the California climate not agreeing with Mrs. Wheeler.
They arrived on Wednesday morning's train.

Mr. and Mrs. Will G. Allen and son Wayne came down from Bu-gene Tuesday. Will left the same evening for Elberton, Washington, and Boise, Idaho, to look after some business interests, leaving Mrs. Allen and little son here to visit with relatives.

Newberg was well represented at the county pioneer meeting held at La Fayette Wednesday.
Among those who were entitled to badges there were J. C. Nelson, John Hash and wife, Mrs.
Sarah A. Deskins, L. W. Harger and wife, Wm. Jones, L. F. Hall, and then there were a number of native sons and daughters of more tender years who boarded the train to go for a good time.

The Misses Anna and Grace Dudley, who have been teaching at Coquille, Coos county, arrived home Tuesday evening, in company with their mother and brother who spent the winter there with them. They came by the water route on the steamer Alliance to Portland, encountering strong head winds all the way up the coast. Their many friends are glad to see them at home again.

C. Thumberg, of Portland, recently purchased the part of the David Ramsey donation claim on the Dayton road near town, on which stands the old family residence, of George Ramsey.
The old building stands on a very sightly location and is one of the landmarks that is familiar to all the old timers who have been accustomed to traveling the road leading from points up the valley on the west side to Portland. Mr. Thumberg is stocking up with cows and will work into the dairy business as fast as he can put the place into condition for raising feed. He says he looked the valley, as well as the different towns on the west side over, and he reached the conclusion that when all advantages were considered, this location appeared to him more than any other.

Maynard Redmond was up from Portland on decoration day.

L. B. Charles visited with his brother, L. W., at Dayton Tuesday night.

Joseph Wilson and wife are visiting with relatives and friends in Salem and Jefferson this week.

Rev. H. A. Walter, the new pastor of the Free Methodist church moved here from Dallas
last week.

W. H. Hubbard has the thanks of this office for four boxes of strawberries of the Magoon variety that were fine ones.

Mrs. Ida A. Kidder, of Salem, was in town Wednesday, representing the Oregon Library Commission. She spoke at the public school in the afternoon.

G. P. Skelton has commenced the erection of a barn on the quarter block directly west of the M. E. church. A little later he expects to build a residence which he will occupy.

Hiram Smith, who was down from Corvallis last week visiting with his parents, returned to his work on Monday. His sister, Miss Eva Smith, went with him and is visiting with relatives at Philomath.

J. H. Mills spent Sunday at the hot springs on the upper Columbia, Mrs. Mills returning home with him on Tuesday evening.
His mother is improving under the treatment and she will remain there for some time.

The annual school meeting will be held on Monday, June 17, at two o'clock in the afternoon, when the election of one director and a clerk will take place. Better tie a string on a finger to enable you to remember the date.

D. W. Cummins has sold his residence in the west part of town to J. C. Lucas, and in the course of a few weeks he will leave here with his family for Lake county, with the intention of locating on the claim he filed on when over there in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Emerson, Mrs. Lottie Decker and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Whitlaw and family, Dr. and Mrs.
Bowers, Miss Katherine Dimond, Mrs. Wm. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs.
Deihl and family, Mr. and Mrs.
A. J. Bishop and Mr. and Mrs.
C. A. Taylor attended the Adventist camp meeting held in Portland last week.

Messrs. John Larkin, C. B.
Wilson and G. W. Mitchell left here for the Coast mountain timber belt west of North Yamhill last Monday morning, as the forerunners of a number of New-berg people who contemplate joining the big army of people who are preparing to cross swords with the Southern Pacific on the timber land deal.

Fred Lashier, a former New-berg merchant who has been in business in northern California since leaving here, and who was in attendance at the Adventist camp meeting in Portland last week, took a run up here the first of the week to call on D. W.
Emerson and some of his other former neighbors. He is in the merchandising business and reports a profitable trade.

The members of the Y. P. S. C.
E. of Friends church met on the church lawn Tuesday evening, armed with lawn mowers and rakes and proceeded to give the lawn a dressing down by cutting the grass and piling it around the recently planted shade trees for mulching. After the job was completed the young ladies made a spread of refreshments which was given considerate attention by the laborers.

The Pacific college scholarship offered to the Dundee school was won by Melvin Elliott, the fourteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Elliott, after a close contest between the High School students. When twelve years of age he passed the eighth grade examination, ranking first in his class. Aside from his scholarship he is a boy of excellent character and he will no doubt be heard from later.

J. C. Sawyer, of Oregon City, was in town Wednesday.

The quarterly meeting of the Free Methodist church will be held in Newberg, beginning on Friday and continuing over to Monday.

Mrs. Mary E. Allen was in McMinnville the first of the week visiting with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. O. V. Allen, who is down from Boise, Idaho, visiting with her parents.

W. W. Espey, a pioneer, of Portland, who is engaged in the real estate business in the city, was in town one evening last week visiting with his nephew, Dr. Homer D. Bowers.

Dr. J. B. Moore and wife, of Lents, Mrs. Mattie McDaniel, of Portland, and Rev. Frank Moore, of Kelso, Washington, were here last Friday in attendance at their father's funeral.

The Misses Nora Parker and Bernice Woodward entertained the senior class of the college at the home of the former on Friday evening of last week, when refreshments were served.

Douglas, the photo man, has been removing to his new gallery on College street this week, where he has one of the best arranged picture shops in the valley. You will want to see him in his new quarters.

Miss Caroline E. Withycombe, of Hillsboro, a former student in Pacific college, is a member of the class finishing the nurses course at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland. The graduating exercises will be held next Tuesday.

The West Willamette Baptist Association has been holding its annual gathering in Newberg this week. The Association is made up of the pastors and delegates appointed by the nine Baptist churches located on the west side of the Willamette, from Newberg south as far as Corvallis. The sessions have been well attended and many splendid addresses have been delivered.

June 12, the W. C. T. U. flower mission day, will be observed by a short program and distribution of bouquets with scripture texts tied with white ribbon.
Make and distribute as many as possible on the way to the meeting which will be held at the home of Maria Bowerman, one door west of the Baptist parsonage at 2:30. Bring a list of the sick, the lonely and newcomers.
All are cordially invited. Mary E. C. Scott, Yamhill County Press Superintendent.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clemenson returned from Clarkston, Washington, a few days ago where they spent ten days visiting with their son Will and their daughter, Mrs. C. R. Coons. To the latter a son was born while they were there. Mr. Clemenson says the connections made on the O.
R. & N. road are something fierce and the depot accommodations in the upper country worse still.
They came home with a better opinion of their home town than they ever had before, after having an opportunity to make comparisons with other places, notwithstanding the fact that they have always been loyal to New-berg.

Mrs. G. W. Cutts entertained the Wednesday club most delightfully at her pleasant country home, on Wednesday of last week. A business meeting was held on the porch, with Mrs.
Elliott, president, in the chair.
The gentlemen arrived after the last vote for officers was cast, and at six o'clock a delicious supper was served from tables spread on the lawn. The favors were clover leaves artistically done in water colors. The program followed, every member, by previous arrangement, to choose her own part, consulting no one concerning the matter.
This resulted in a spicy mixture of stories, recitations and select readings. The club resumes work again in October with Mrs. R.
W. Harrold president, Mrs. Abbie Edwards vice president and Mrs. G. W. Cutts secretary.

Stimulation Without Irritation.

In case of stomach and liver trouble the proper treatment is to stimulate these organs without irritating them. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating these organs like pills or ordinary cathartics. It does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. For sale by F.
H. Caldwell & Co.

Have You a Cough?

A dose of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will relieve it. Have you a cold? Try it for whooping cough, for asthma, for consumption, for bronchitis. Mrs. Joe McGrath, 327 E. First street, Hutchinson, Kansas, writes: "I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my family for five years, and find it the most palatable medicine I ever used." Sold by C. F. Moore.
