Local Events.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Ellyson were down from La Fayette Tuesday.

Mrs. Catherine Lashier and daughter are here from Washington visiting with Mrs. Roy Gardner.

Uriah Cook, who lives over in Washington, has been here during the week visiting with his brother, Martin Cook.

John Nelson was down from Blodgett, Benton county, the first of the week visiting his aged father, Soren Nelson, who is now quite feeble.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Chown were up from Portland Sunday, visiting with Mrs. Chown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Carey, northeast of town.

Orland Heacock, of La Grande, who was in Portland on business, came up on the train Tuesday evening and made a short visit with his parents.

Charles E. Fuller came up from Portland Saturday evening to spend Sunday with Mrs. Fuller and son who are visiting with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Romig.

Miss Marie Hanson came up from Portland Saturday evening and remained until Sunday evening, visiting with the Misses Nora Parker and Bernice Woodward.

Mr. Higgins has returned from McMinnville and is again working for Jesse Edwards in the dairy, Mr. Brougher having sold his interest in the dairy to Mr. Edwards.

Mrs. C. J. Bright and children returned to their home at Moro last week after having spent several days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Larson, near town, visiting.

E. B. Finley and wife are expected to arrive here on Saturday from York, Nebraska, where Mr. Finley has been teaching during the past year. He will probably take an interest in the Racket store with his mother-in-law, Mrs. M. J. Nash.

With the passing of a few more days the bell on the college building will ring the last call for the school year, and the out-of-town students will scatter out for the summer's work. Give them a hearty hand shake and ask them to return, bringing others with them. A little extra effort in this way ought to increase the attendance next year very materially.

The graduating exercises of the High School will be held in Duncan's hall on Friday evening, when Claude Newlin will speak on "Modern Slavery," Ella Nelson on "Oregon Pioneers" and Lola Kaufman will give the class history. Following the presentation of the diplomas President E. D. Ressler, of the Monmouth Normal school will deliver the class address. The class is made up of Mabel L. Duncan, Lola Glass, Lola Kaufman, Ella V. Nelson, Claude Newlin, Vivienne Miller.

The furnishing of gravel for building purposes at Newberg seems to be as uncertain as the weather this season, and for this reason building operations have been held up for several days. On the completion of Mr. Lea's barge everything went well for a few days, when the Eldridge launch failed and the barge was tied up. Strenuous efforts have been made to find power to handle the barge, but at Portland Mr. Lea found it impossible to hire or steal a launch. With all the perplexities of the situation he has kept a cool head, and since he has the dogged determination to succeed he will find a way out of the difficulty some way, but it must be wearing on the nerves.

D. D. Coulson was up from Portland Sunday.

J. T. Raoton has sold his residence to J. C. Lucas.

There will be no service at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath.

The annual school meeting will be held next Monday at two o'clock.

A. C. Martin and wife visited with relatives in Portland last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Vinson were down from Salem Sunday visiting with relatives.

Jo Carr has removed to Willamina, temporarily, where he has work at house building.

John Cook was up from Portland last Sunday visiting with his parents, Martin Cook and wife.

Rural carriers, I. E. Holt and A. C. Martin were in Portland last week attending the carriers convention.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Wright fell from his wheel the first of the week and fractured the bone of an arm.

L. B. Charles was in Portland the first of the week assisting his brother Wood in shipping his household goods to Dayton.

Mrs. Levi Gilbert and children were down from Rosedale the first of the week visiting with Dan Gilberts and M. P. Elliotts.

The Springbrook cannery has been running for several days on the late picking of strawberries and such early varieties of cherries as the Governor Wood.

The first exercise of Commencement week, the address to the literary societies of the college by Prof. Alderman, will be delivered in the college chapel in place of in the Friends church as previously announced. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Money is being raised by subscription to at least partially reimburse the band boys for playing the three days of the G. A. R. Encampment. They will meet the incoming trains and make merry for the old vets and their wives and will also furnish music at the evening sessions.

The first showers of the week brought a smile to the faces of the farmers, which has spread to a broad grin as the rains have continued to fall, but as usual, all were not ready for the precipitation of moisture. For instance those who had hay down and cherry growers who know that the rains cause the fruit to crack.

Commencement exercises at the college promise to be unusually good this year. John Marvin Dean, pastor of Tabernacle Baptist church, Seattle, who will deliver the baccalaureate sermon Sunday morning is said to be a very eloquent speaker and the Commencement address by Rev. Paul Rader will be as good as the best. The whole program is good and a general invitation is extended to the public to attend the various sessions.

It is not often that a company is invited to take an extended journey "without money and without price," but such was the case on Saturday evening when Miss Mabelle Gardner entertained her friends on a trip starting from "Wilsonville." All the modern conveniences of travel were given. Guide books were furnished for the Observation car. The "last call for dinner" was given by the colored porter and the company went to the dining car where refreshments were served. The following persons were present on the journey: The Misses Nellie Paulsen, Ruth Wiley, Lena Spangle, Sarah Knight, Jessie Gardner, Leora Thorne, Maybelle Edwards, Ruth Romig, Marie Hansen, Lenora Parker, Bernice Woodward and Mrs. Clement Niswonger. Messrs. Perry Macy, Huber Haworth, Clarence Brown, Cecil Hoskins, Paul Maris, Walter Spaulding, Clement Niswonger, Curtis Parker, Ralph Rees, W. A. King, D. D. Coulson and J. G. Bennett.

Rev. Herbert T. Cash has sold his Chehalem mountain ranch to Jo Bixby.

E. S. Craven cut and cured his clover crop and got it baled before the rains came.

Lewis Hadley and wife were down from Dayton Sunday visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Palen Clark has been up from Selwood during the week visiting with friends in town.

Miss Victoria Haas, of Enterprise, Wallowa county, was in town the first of the week visiting with Miss Amy Heater.

Mrs. Rista Hall was down from Cape Horn, Washington, Tuesday night visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stevens.

Mrs. Clara Meats will go to Oakland, California, this week where she expects to spend the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Alverta Andreas.

The officials of the Presbyterian church have called Rev. Blair, of Oakland, as pastor. He has rented the Osborn property on the Dayton road.

Miss Ione Hill returned from Eugene Tuesday evening where she spent three weeks visiting with her brother Lon S. Hill. Her little niece Esther Hill came with her for a visit.

Herbert Satchwell and family who have been living at Bend, Crook county, for the past two years arrived in town Wednesday evening and are visiting with his mother, Mrs. M. E. Satchwell.

It is with a great deal of satisfaction that the alumni of Pacific College announce that they have secured Dr. Stuart, of New York, to deliver an address here on Tuesday evening of commencement week—next Tuesday evening, in other words, at the Friends church. Dr. Stuart is dean of the faculty of the well known Rochester Theological Seminary. He spoke here last week before the Baptist association and proved one of the most forcible and inspiring speakers who has ever visited Newberg. His appearance on the program of the Alumni Association will prove a feature in this year's exercises. This, like all the public exercises of the week, is free. The church should be crowded. Good music will be furnished.

G. A. R. Committees.

The following are the names of the chairmen of the various committees who have charge of the preparation that are being made for the encampment to be held in Newberg on June 25th, 26th and 27th.

1. Committee on general management: Wm. Clemmens.
 2. Committee on program: T. Brouillette.
 3. Committee on camp equipment: George W. Allen.
 4. Committee on Decoration: B. S. Hunter.
 5. Committee on Finance: George Sykes.

Recent Piano Sales.

Quite a number of our people have taken advantage of the Eilers ad sale on pianos. Mrs. Nels Christensen, banker, purchased a beautiful Foster & Co. in new mahogany art colonial case; Mrs. S. Parrish, merchant, purchased one of the sweet toned Eilers Bros. mahogany case, as did also Mr. S. McVey in walnut case; Mrs. C. J. Leavitt secured a colonial case, Baily in oak; Mr. Elmer Everest a beautiful golden oak case, Jacob Doll; Mr. W. Snodgrass an old standard Marshall & Wendall in a beautiful inlaid walnut case; Mrs. J. Bixby purchased a beautiful Schumann in mahogany case. Mr. D. Estel purchased a new Hungarian ash case Baus, in handsome design. We are proud to note that our people are taking an interest in music and giving the children a chance in one of the greatest accomplishments on earth to be a good musician.

WHAT THE KETTLE SINGS.

Parker Merc. Co. Are Special Agents for Chase & Sanborn's Coffees & Teas.

Kettle, oh, kettle, get onto your job,
Sing us a song from your perch on the hob.
A kettle (see poets) should blithesome-ly
sing—
No matter just what; give us any old thing.
"What shall I sing about—what shall it be?"
Kettle, oh, kettle, just sing about tea.
"I've heated the water for many a brand,
I've sampled the tea-leaves from many a
land;
I've sniffed at their savor and tasted the
brew,
And I like CHASE & SANBORN'S the
best, honest true!"
Kettle, oh, kettle, now why do you blow
For this kind so stoutly—and how do you know?
"I've seen 'em uncurl when the water's
been hot,
Releasing their fragrance and spice in the pot,
Each leaf like a jealousy clutched little head
That held a rich gift from the far Orient-
land.
I've seen 'em diffuse all their richness
there stored
As my spout its libation upon them has poured
I've sniffed the bouquet through my long,
ogre nose,
And know it's as sweet as the Orient-land
rose.
And I say once again, and you listen to me,
Be sure CHASE & SANBORN import all
"your tea."

Merit Always Wins

That is why our business has increased every month to the present time.
Especially is our shoe trade improving every day for the reason that we do not misrepresent, and make good our word for every pair of shoes sold.
We endeavor to make satisfied customers SIX days in the week but don't hang around our place of business for the dollars from the man who does not know or care when Sunday comes. Six days for business and one for rest is our motto.
