GREETING TO THE G. A. R.

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week the twenty-sixth annual Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will be held in Newberg when the old battle scarred veterans will gather from far and near to mingle together, talk over the scenes of days long gone by and to transact business, and on behalf of the citizens of Newberg, the Graphic bids them welcome.

Lewis Platts, one of their number, died suddenly in Newberg on Tuesday of this week, which serves as another reminder of the fact that their numbers are being depleted at a rapid rate, and that the attendance at these annual gatherings will, in a few years, diminish in numbers very materially. In view of this fact and in memory of the services rendered to our country, nothing we have will be too good for them during their stay in Newberg.

Our business houses will be decorated in honor of their coming, our homes will be opened for their comfort and everything possible will be done to make their stay comfortable and pleasant.

A hearty greeting to every old soldier and a hearty greeting to the wives of the soldiers who shall register in Newberg during encampment.

Big Dundee School Picnic.

The Dundee public school picnic last Monday was a great success, and a day of pleasure long to be remembered by old and young.

It was held on the school grounds which are the nicest in the county.

The grand old oak and fir trees furnishing ample shade and the large and well kept lawn in front were appreciated when the games were called. Stretching to the west and south over the rolling hills for miles is the largest prune orchard in the world and the Thos. Prince English walnut orchard and also the Allan apple orchards. From the grounds, several snow caps of the Cascades and the Willamette River, with the steamers plying thereon, are plainly in view. Just now the numerous hop yards are a beautiful sight. These with the waving grainfields, orchards laden with fruit, the dairy herds, the clover fields, the busy bee, the cozy farm houses, the great fruit driers and packing-houses, the passing trains, the Coast Range mountains covered with her vast millions of evergreen timber all speak of a thrifty, happy people.

The day was perfect, as were also the plans as arranged by the committee composed of Messrs. Greer and Edwards and Mesdames Woisky, Groth and Parrett.

The music furnished by Mr. John Parrett, violinist, and Mrs. Chas. Parrett, organist, was enjoyed by all. The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Martin. Charley Parrett was just the right man in the right place to bring on the games when Mr. Greer called off the program. First and second prizes, consisting of pocket knives, cups and saucers, harps, suspenders, ribbons, combs and various other articles, had been provided for all winners, and before lunch time the games had all been called, except the ball game between the older men and the boys, which followed the annual school meeting the score being 11 to 10 in favor of the boys who were awarded a new baseball.

When dinner was announced the children were seated at the long table while the grownups circled around three deep. The table didn't groan under the immense weight of good things, but it did seem that each one had tried to excel in the quantity and quality of eatables. The judges for the day, Messrs. Flem. Livengood, Brown and Mrs. John Edwards, did not report first and second at the game of eating, but it was plain that all were satisfied for they had done their best.

Two o'clock found the lower school room full of voters (men and women) with Mr. B. Groth presiding officer. Mr. Groth was re-elected director for a term of three years. Mr. John Parrett was re-elected clerk. A two-mill tax was voted. Mr. Greer delivered a fine address.

The followings is a list of the races and the names of the winners of prizes.

Egg Race—By upper class girls, winners Mamie Pier, Jessie Edwards.

Egg Race—By lower class girls, winner Ruby Ryan.

First Eating Race—winners Elton Ryan and Ralph Edwards.

Second Eating Race—winners, Lester Ryan, Paul Groth and Lela Egli.

First Sack Race—Roy Brown, Ralph Lehmann.

Second Sack Race—Ralph Imus, Earl Alford.

Breaking the crock race—Mrs. Martin.

Boy's Foot Race Under Twelve—Medrick Greer, Earl Alford.

Boy's Foot Race, Over Twelve—George Ramsy, Dale Haskins.

Girl's Race Over 12—Alice Cross, Medora Greer.

Girls' Race Under 12—Medora Greer, Elenor Warner.

Mesdames J. B. and W. J. Gordon acted as judges on the donkey game by the little ones, which was played at the same time as the baseball game. Otis Edwards and Ray Brown were the successful players.

Director S. L. Parrett announced the invitation to all to come again next year.

For Instance

You couldn't tell by looking at it whether a watch is cheap or not at $12. Very glittering promises may have been made to you about that watch in a mail order ad. You were told it was this and that and the other thing.

But really no one but an experienced jeweler could tell whether it is good value or not at the price.

He could probably tell in a minute or so, but you must use it and wait developments to find out.

If you will come here you can purchase as good a watch at whatever price you wish to pay as was ever turned out of a factory.
