The Green Conductor.

Jerome Joyce, of Baltimore, was remonstrating against a certain bill at the recent convention of hotel men in Washington.
"This bill," he said, "is awkward. It goes to work in the wrong way. It is like the green conductor.

"There was a green conductor on a trolley line, and one morning, just after his trip had begun, a spotter boarded the car.

"The spotter, as these men do, counted the passengers and then he looked at the dial. There were nine passengers, but only eight fares had been collected.

He went out on the platform at once. There was nothing crooked; the conductor was green that was all.

"See here, Mr. Green Hand," he said, "you're a nickel shy.
There's nine people in there and you've only rung up eight fares."
"The conductor stuck his head in the door and made a count.

"You're right, darn 'em," he said.

"And then he entered the car and shouted angrily, at the same time pulling the cord for the motorman to stop:

"Say! one o' you fellers 'll have to get off!"

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed.
The critical period, that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters; the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by F.
H. Caldwell & Co., druggist. 50c.

the first application giving me first relief and the second entire relief.
I can give it unqualified recommendation. 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by

"Regular as the Sun"

Is an expression as old as the race. No doubt the rising and set-

When pains or irritation exist on
