

ONE OF THE most important questions presenting itself to every man is to wear the right kind of clothes. The clothes a man wears indicates his degree of refinement and influences his thoughts and conduct. With the knowledge that he is wearing correct clothes, all feeling of self-consciousness is eliminated: there is no greater handicap to success than being burdened by thoughts of one's self. Of equal importance to wearing the right kind of clothes comes the question of getting them at the right place. We can solve the problem for you by referring you to our new line of—goods, workmanship, fit, style and prices.

Obituary.

Hugh F. Heacock, son of Enos and Sarah Heacock was born near Quakertown, Bucks county, Pennsylvania, January 29, 1831, and died October 20, 1907, aged 76 years, 8 months, 21 days.
At the age of fourteen he with his parents, brother and sister, moved overland to Henry county, Indiana, where he was married to Mary A. Fairbank, January 15, 1857, she having died March 31, 1891. Three children were born to this union two sons Edgar, who lives on the old home farm in Indiana, and Rev.
John F., of Lewisville, Arkansas, and Mrs. Flora Paxson, of New-berg, with whom he has made his home for some years. Eighteen years ago he, with his wife, son John and daughter and their families, moved to Newberg, Oregon, where they lived one year, then moved near Dayton, where he lived until within seventeen days of his death when he again moved to Newberg. About twenty years ago he united with the Friends church at Louisville, Indiana, remaining a member until after moving to Dayton, where he joined the United Evangelical church and remained a consistent member of that church and attended its services as long as his strength permitted, devoted to duty as he saw it, and alive to the Christian graces and obligations. He was a loving and loyal husband, a generous and indulgent father and grandfather, a steadfast friend and a good neighbor, greatly respected by all who knew him. He will be greatly missed and sincerely mourned by his daughter and family and a wide circle of friends.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold cure

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B.
Brunson, of Dublin, Georgia. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility.
Weak puny children, too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles by F. H. Caldwell &

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Buchen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles too and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by F. H. Caldwell & Co., druggist - 25c.

A GOOD DOCTOR will recommend BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP

Every cough weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, breaks down the tissues and leaves the system in a weakened condition, causing it to be more susceptible to the consumptive germ. Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure the cough and strengthen the system.

The Children Like it.

Mrs. C. H. Runyon, Stanberry, Mo., writes: "I have used your Ballard's Horehound Syrup and find it a very useful medicine for coughs and colds, and in fact all lung troubles. It is very pleasant to take, and we have no trouble in inducing the children to take it. I recommend it highly."

Don't wait until that cough develops into a more dangerous malady. Save yourself and children many sick spells and insure a long and healthy life.
