ONE OF THE most important questions presenting itself to every man is to wear the right kind of clothes. The clothes a man wears indicates his degree of refinement and influences his thoughts and conduct. With the knowledge that he is wearing correct clothes, all feeling of self-consciousness is eliminated: there is no greater handicap to success than being burdened by thoughts of one's self. Of equal importance to wearing the right kind of clothes comes the question of getting them at the right place. We can solve the problem for you by referring you to our new line of—goods, workmanship, fit, style and prices.

Apple Banquet.

McMinnville will give an apple banquet the last day of the Fruit Fair, at noon Saturday, November 2, in honor of the Yamhill county editors who have boosted the many fairs at which will be served all kinds of apple "fixins." Apple pie, apple cobbler, apple roll, apple salad, apples baked, fried, stewed, scolloped, jelly, sauce, and all washed down with apple cider. Prizes will be given for the best articles of diet made from Yamhill apples, the best looking editor, the best county paper, the best short apple poem and the best boosting slogan for the Yamhill apple. All women whose homes have raised apples this year are invited to compete with some tasteful dish in which our good apples form a part. Mr. Lowndale says the banquet idea is very fine and Judge Bird has been requested to appoint a committee of arrangements. He requests Mrs. R. L. Bewley, Mrs. Wm. DeHaven, Mrs. Leroy Lewis, Mrs. C. F. Daniels, Mrs. O. Q. Hodson, Mrs. R. L. Conner, Mrs. Gus. Gaunt and Prof. Belt to act as such committee.

feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility.
