scribers is called to an article on the editorial page under the head of "The Dead Line."

The county horticultural society will hold its annual meeting at McMinnville in the court house, Tuesday, January 28.

F. A. Hayes, who has been working in his brother's store at Vancouver for the past month or more has been at home during the week.

John Pemberton, president of the Horticultural Fire Relief Association of Salem was in town the first of the week soliciting business for the company.

Mrs. Jennie Remington and daughter, Miss Hallie, have removed to town again and are occupying their new cottage recently built a short distance west of the railway depot.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Perkins, the proprietors of the new hotel, have been busy all through the week laying carpets and setting up furniture for the hotel. Everything is new and first class.

On Saturday night the last of the league games of basket ball for the season will be played at the college gymnasium between the college team and the big Multnomah contingent. It will be an interesting game and the boys deserved liberal patronage.

J. Aubrey Kramien writes from Bloomington, Illinois, announcing the birth of a son, Lowell Edwards Kramien, January 14.
In honor of the event the Y. M.
C. A. board raised the salary of Mr. Kramien as assistant secretary and also handed him a check for $25 for the new son.

C. J. McIntosh, school superintendent of Grant county, as well as a prominent newspaper man of John Day in that county, who attended the meeting of the Press Association in Portland last Friday and Saturday, came up to Newberg Saturday evening and remained over until Tuesday, visiting with his sister, Mrs. G.
P. Skelton.

Mrs. A. L. Stevens gave a pleasant surprise party on Wednesday of last week, the invited guests being Mrs. Holts, Mrs. Watt, Mrs. Porter, Mrs.
Westerfield, Mrs. Bottom and her daughters, Mrs. Rista Hall and Mrs. Rilla Whiteford, as well as Mrs. Webber who gave an explanation of her Bible history charts. A very pleasant time was reported.

A motor road wagon suitable for farm purposes, on top of which was a good sized boat, arrived here Tuesday on a flat car and while standing on the switch it was the object of a good deal of interest and speculation on the part of those who passed that way. Among the suggestions offered, one was the possibility of its being an engine of warfare direct from Japan or an infernal machine, but on inquiry the fact developed that the outfit was shipped here from California by Mr. Whitacre, who recently bought a tract of land out near the Brutscher school house. The motor wagon was invented by Mr. Whitacre who had it built and it shows that it has seen some service. It is fitted with a fifteen horse power gasoline motor and on good hard roads it looks like it ought to go some without horses to push-ee or pull-ee.

Miss Ethel Flett, of Wapato, spent Sunday in town with Miss Emerette Harger.

O. K. Edwards has sold his home to Mrs. C. L. Hamilton and is preparing to remove to Portland with his family.

Will Comer, of Seattle, has been in town during the week visiting with his father, Silas Comer, and his brother, Milt.

Maynard Redmond was up from Portland over Sunday, bringing with him his friends, Messrs. Beamer, Gould, Ripley, Maxim and Durell.

The quarterly meeting of the M. E. church will be held Saturday evening and Sunday. On Sunday the pulpit will be occupied by Dr. Rowland.

The Southern Pacific has made some substantial and long needed improvements at the depot, by way of installing toilets that are furnished with modern fixtures and connected with a septic tank.

A. L. Stevens has in his possession a copy of The New York Herald of date of April 15, 1865, which gives a detailed account of the assassination of Lincoln.
It is yellow with age but is still in pretty good condition.

A number of business men met on Tuesday night to consider an advertising proposition for New-berg, when such an interest was shown that a call has been made for a boosters meeting to be held next Tuesday night in the council room.

Revival services that were begun last week at the Presbyterian church, under the leadership of Rev. Geo. W. Arms, of Portland, increased in interest until the church was too small to hold the people, and by invitation of Rev. Isom P. Wooton, removal was made to the Friends church where union services have been conducted by the same leader during the week, with a good degree of interest.

The Gregory sisters have purchased a new stock of millinery goods which is expected to arrive about the middle of February. Miss Doris Gregory is now working in Lowengart's wholesale house in Portland in order to get new ideas in the business and besides an experienced trimmer will be employed. A portion of the building occupied by Mr. Whitten the lapidary will be occupied until such a time as their father can complete his new building at the corner of First and Blaine streets.

W. E. White, who owns the building on First street recently vacated by the Parker Mercantile company, is preparing to have the building overhauled and put in good shape for occupancy. The old wareroom in the rear will be torn down and a new fireproof addition built in its place. J. B. Mount has taken a two year lease on the west room, with the privilege of five and a sky light will be put in to make the east room desirable for others who are bidding for it.
This is considered one of the most desirable corners in town and these storerooms will always be in demand.

The basketball games played on last Saturday night on the college gymnasium floor resulted both in a victory and a defeat for the college boys. The first game played was a contest between the second teams of the college and the Y. M. C. A. of Portland, which resulted in a score of 16 to 37 in favor of the college. This was one of the snappiest games played on the home floor this season, the score at the end of the first half 13 to 15 in favor of the visitors, but the college boys got down to business in the second half, making a score of 22 while their opponents only made a score of 3.
In the second game of the evening the visiting team was too much for the home team, being made up as it was with old seasoned players who have been at it so long that they are getting bald headed. The score was 20 to 40.

A Visit to the Dundee Schools.

One of the most pleasing features of the work of the W. R. C. is that of presenting flags to the schools and thereby helping to instill into the hearts and minds of the young a true respect and loyalty to their country and their flag. According to the rules of our order we have seen that each room of our public school in Newberg has been provided with a flag. And as both post and corps are represented at Dundee, a vote was taken to present a flag to each department of their school. Tuesday the 14th of this month was the day decided upon for this work. Accordingly six of the ladies and two corades left Newberg on the morning train for our sister town.
We had only time to get nicely settled for our ride until we were there; and met with the familiar faces of our friends, Comrades Hunter, Byers and Mrs. Byers, who escorted us directly to the school. And now comes one of the most pleasing experiences we could have as well as a surprise to our whole party. We were cordially welcomed by Prof.
Stanbrough and Mrs. Martin, teacher of the primary department. After being seated in Mrs.
Martin's room the higher grade was called in at the beat of the drum, and all in the best of order were seated. A call for "America" was responded to by the school with John Parrott playing the violin, accompanied by one of the students on the organ.
The flags were then presented by our patriotic instructor, accompanied by our president who called for the flag salute from those of the W. R. C. present.
Prof. Stanbrough then in a very fitting speech thanked the W. R.
C. in behalf of the school, also giving to the defenders of the flag and their country due honor.
If only space would permit we would like all the readers of this article to hear the true lesson of patriotism he gave his school.
Mrs. Martin followed with thanks in behalf of the primary department and as so many of you are personally acquainted with her you know the loyalty of her address. Now as one of the most pleasing surprises of the day County Superintendent Belt was introduced—he having been delayed in visiting Dundee school, just happened to be present on this occasion, and as he assured the school he was very glad of the delay, this being his first visit at a school where the flag was presented. I have only space to say Superintendent Belt gave an address to the school that was instructive, patriotic and pleasing. Speeches were called for from the visitors.
Those that responded were Mr.
Allen, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. Horton, Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Douglas, of Newberg; Mr. John Parrott, clerk of school; Mrs. Byers and Mr. Edwards, of Dundee.
In response to a call from the superintendent three cheers were given for Old Glory to which all responded, the school repeating the cheers. For the closing the Star Spangled Banner was sung by the school. The patriotic instructor and president waving the flags presented to the school.
We left the Dundee school feeling that it was a day long to be remembered. As a closing to all the good things—and though last by no means least, Comrade Hunter drove up with his coach and six (or two I should say) and took us to his home way up on the hill, where Mrs. Hunter had prepared a most bountiful dinner and I can testify there was no one there with a poor appetite, although some said they did not eat much.
