L. H. Shirley is adding another story to his residence on North Meridian street and making other substantial improvements.

Rev. Blair and a number of others went to McMinnville the first of the week to attend a Christian Endeavor convention.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Parker went to Eugene Tuesday on account of word coming that Lon Hill had a leg broken in a runaway scrape the day before.

J. F. Taylor went to Portland Wednesday to meet his mother, Mrs. Sarah Taylor, who came from Seattle where she has been visiting with her son Oliver.

Our old friend and neighbor up the street, D. R. Jackson, a democrat of the old school, is in a class by himself. He says he don't believe in Statement No. 1.

Mr. Newell, who is manufacturing seed cleaners for Mr. Stone is building a new shop on Second street, he having found his quarters to be too small for the growing business.

The college debating team will go to Albany Friday night to debate the strike question with the Albany College team. The team is made up of Arthur Wilson, Riley Kaufman and Roy Fitch.

A short program of vocal and instrumental solos and duets will be rendered by several of Prof. Carrick's pupils in the college chapel on Friday evening at eight o'clock. Admission free. Parents and friends cordially invited.

Mrs. J. A. Hicks, who was recently left a widow and who is blind and almost helpless, has a set of books, the Encyclopedia Britannica, which she would like to sell. The books have not been unboxed and they can be had at a bargain. Inquirers are referred to George Allen.

The old man Dille escaped from the insane hospital at Salem last week and Constable J. J. Woods was notified to be on the lookout for him. For several days he prowled about Newberg but on Sunday night he was captured and returned to Salem the following day. Since his return several families in the lower part of town are sleeping better as he is said to have made threats of violence against some of his former neighbors.

The following news item, which was sent in from Dundee last week, was overlooked. Frances Willard memorial day was observed at Dundee by the W. C. T. U. last Thursday. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. G. Alford. A short program was given. Many touching incidents of kindness and love in Miss Willard's life were given, showing her beautiful, unselfish character. Refreshments were served by the Union, while helpful discussion of our work was enjoyed by all.

Smith, of La Fayette, the man with long whiskers and who has something of a reputation as a horse fancier, seems to have developed into a booze fighter and since Sunday night he has languished in jail awaiting trial on a charge of using a gun too freely in his home. On his arrival home from a trip to Portland he terrorized the family by threatening to shoot his wife and when the marshal was called he had to be pretty roughly handled by the officer before he succumbed. Mrs. Smith says this is not the first time he has threatened her life and she seems to think it is about time for him to take the outside of the house. Smith no doubt belongs to that class of noble characters who can "drink or let it along" as they deem proper. We often hear of them and it is surprising how many there are in this class.

Mrs. W. E. Crozer is visiting with relatives at Rosedale.

W. E. Mills is plastering the Friends church at Rex this week.

A. L. Watson was up from Oregon City on business the first of the week.

W. A. King visited with his parents in Portland last Saturday and Sunday.

Attorney Frank Fenton, of McMinnville, made a business trip to Newberg on Monday.

Marvin Blair and Maynard Redmond were up from Portland last Sunday to see "the folks."

The Free Methodists will hold their quarterly meeting, beginning February 28 and lasting over Sunday. All are welcome. Elder W. N. Coffey will officiate.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Emmer Newby, on Saturday, February 22, a son. In consideration of the date a cherry tree should be planted in his honor although he has been named Samuel instead of George.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Moore and son Paul went to Newport last Saturday expecting to be gone ten days or more. While there they will do some work in the way of improving their property at Nye beach.

The Parker Mercantile Company has erected hitching racks and sheds in the rear of the store for the protection of teams in inclement weather, an accommodation that will be appreciated by the public.

J. B. Mount removed his hardware stock from his old location, where he had been for the past seventeen years, to the W. E. White building last Monday. Mr. Mount is the pioneer merchant of Newberg.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Owen Agee, on Friday of last week, a daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Agee live at Estacada but the mother and daughter are at the home of her parents near Newberg, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Giles.

Mrs. R. W. Kirk and little daughter returned from Portland Monday evening where they went to attend the celebration of the eighty-fifth birthday anniversary of Mrs. Kirk's grandmother, Mrs. Dickinson.

A. J. Clark writes from Ohio to his daughter, Mrs. L. M. Smith, that he is expecting to burn the bridges behind and remove to Oregon in a short time. Mr. and Mrs. Clark were out last season and they are longing to return.

The revival services being held at Crater's hall by the Christian church will continue over next Sunday. Good music is a special feature of the meetings and the attendance has been very good. All are cordially invited to attend and take part.

Claude Cummings is preparing to build a new residence for himself on Wynooski street, adjoining the Miles property on the north, where the Rittenhouse cottage formerly stood. The latter has been removed to a new location on Sixth street, repainted and made to look quite neat and respectable.

A walk about town will convince one that there is something doing, since there will be found a dozen or more houses in the course of construction, which is not bad, considering that spring work has not opened up yet. Contractors say the outlook is promising for considerable building in Newberg the coming season.

Miss Carrie Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Turner, was married on last Saturday at their home in McMinnville to Frank Wortman, son of John Wortman the banker. They will make their home in McMinnville. The bride has a large circle of friends, both young and old, in Newberg who will join in wishing for her a large share of the best things in life. She is a graduate of Pacific College and was known while in school as a bright, intelligent student.

Dr. Nelson Morrison's family has been at Salem and Rosedale during the week visiting with relatives.

Allen Jay has sold his property on Third street to Clarence Elliott and is expecting to remove to Rosedale.

At its next regular meeting the Post will debate the question as to whether "wealth should be limited by law." T. Brouillette, adjutant.

A District School will be given by the Library Association for the benefit of the library Friday evening, March 6. Come and enjoy an evening of fun.

Allen Pemberton has a neat cottage almost enclosed which he will occupy when completed. It is located on Fifth street on a lot adjoining W. E. Crozer's new home and is a twin of the latter's cottage.

Noah Heater's family is pretty well scattered at present. Mrs. Heater and Miss Amy are visiting with Roy at Corvallis, while Guy is taking a rest while visiting with Oscar in the eastern part of the state.

The W. F. M. S. of the Free Methodist church will hold a public service, Sunday, March 1st, at three o'clock. Miss Edith Graves, the returned missionary from China, will speak of the work and its needs in that part of the world.

Shiloh Post will hold an open meeting on Wednesday, March 4th, from ten a. m. to one p. m. Refreshments will be served, at twelve o'clock and all soldiers and sailors of the war of the rebellion are invited to this social meeting.

Mrs. Heath, wife of Cap. Bert Heath who was formerly connected with the Telephone-Register, died at her home in McMinnville the first of the week. Since the Cuban war, Cap. Heath has spent the greater part of his time in the Philippines and he is now on his way to the islands.

The Geo. W. Gooft Machinery house, of Portland, is making an exhibit this week of the Gilson gasoline engines, the new McGraw fruit tree sprayer and the Chattam fanning mills at Vincent Feed & Implement Co's. store. Farmers are invited to inspect this exhibit.

Posters are out announcing a republican county convention to be held at McMinnville on Wednesday, March 4, for the purpose of discussing Statement No. 1. On Saturday, February 29, at 2 o'clock p. m. a caucus of North and South Newberg precincts will be held in Duncan's hall for the purpose of electing delegates to attend the convention. The attendance of all republicans is desired.

On Monday evening the fire alarm was sounded, which almost created a panic in the crowd at Duncan's hall where the medicine man was holding forth. The fire companies responded only to find that there was nothing more serious than a burning flue at L. W. Harger's residence. This same flue has acted up in the same way two or three times before and the boys are beginning to conclude that it ought to be compelled to keep its mouth shut on dark nights.

Since the return of John Brown and L. M. Smith from California there has been a good deal of gold mining talk going on about Newberg and the matter took shape the first of the week when articles of incorporation were filed for "The Anderson Gold Mining Company," with R. M. Gilbert of Modesto, California, D. M. Smith of Portland, and L. M. Smith of Newberg, named as incorporators. Others who are interested are J. W. Barcroft, John Brown, A. P. Oliver, B. S. Cook of Portland. A California mine has been bought, the price being $25,000 and the new company is incorporated for a round million. The mine has been in litigation for thirty years and consequently it has been worked but little and being in a good mining district the boys think they have struck a bonanza.
