Elliot, Prof. Wallace A. Newlin

church.

J. F. Taylor has had word from his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McKillop, stating that they would leave the Philippines at an early day for home.
They will come by way of Southern California however, and will not reach Oregon for several weeks. They have been engaged in teaching in the islands for the past two or three years.

The college debating team was defeated in the tryout with Albany on Friday night of last week, the vote of the judges being two for Albany and one for Pacific. The judges were Professor Anderson of Portland, President Ferrin of Pacific University and Judge Bean of the Supreme Court, the two former voting for Albany and the latter for Pacific. There is one consolation. The boys had the highest authority in the state on their side.

L. G. Orr, an experienced laundryman from Portland has purchased the steam laundry from Andrew Pickett and expects to have it in running order in a week or ten days. He shipped up about $3500 worth of machinery from Portland which he is putting in in place of some of the old out of date machinery that had been on hand for several years and when the plant is thoroughly overhauled and everything in working order Newberg will have a steam laundry that will be a credit to the town. The new proprietor deserves a liberal patronage from the public.

Chance Grames was very severely hurt in an accident Wednesday forenoon while hauling wood with one of C. C. Fergu-son's teams. He was seated on the front part of the load of wood when the front wheels dropped into a chuck hole at the railroad crossing on West First street, throwing him forward at the hind feet of the horses and a part of the load pitching forward also, causing the horses to kick and run.
Within a few feet the wagon struck a post which stopped the team. Mr. Grames had two ribs broken and he suffered intensely but it is thought he will get along all right. LATER—The injured man died at nine o'clock in the evening and the remains will be buried in the Dundee cemetery on Friday.

given by those who have been there and know how. Admission will be 15, 25 and 35 cents.
Come and have a good laugh and help along a good cause.

The G. A. R. post designated Wednesday as rally day when the Relief Corps put up a big feed, the old boys pounded the drums and Cap. Branson delivered an address. The object of the effort made was for the purpose of enlisting the interest of a larger number of the old veterans and to induce them to join in and strengthen the local post.

The Frances E. Willard service, by Newberg W. C. T. U., February 26, at the home of Mrs.
Martin was very instructive.
Many points along temperance lines were brought up and beautifully rendered music interspersed the topics. The rooms were tastefully decorated and the "White Ribbon tea" was very dainty. One new member gained, literature distributed and the meeting adjourned.

MARY S. C. SCOTT, Press Supt.

Dr. E. A. Romig, who is an enthusiastic Hughes man is preparing to show his colors. He has a ninety-seven foot flag pole "on the ways" at his home on Fourth street, peeled and straight as an arrow which, when painted he proposes to raise with the help of his neighbors, when he will have speech-making and an enthusiastic hurrah. So far as heard from this will be the first gun fired in Oregon in the presidential campaign.

The Williams' Original Dixie Jubilee Singers made good at Duncan's hall last Thursday evening before a very appreciative and enthusiastic audience. In fact they scored a great hit, for a certain prominent man who has a habit of attending public entertainments without ever making any manifestations of approval of the performance, not even by a smile, no difference how others may be convulsed with laughter around him, actually showed his approval of two numbers on the program by lightly clapping his hands.

Orsen Howard Finds Friends.

Through the kind offices of John D. Shearer, the old man Howard who has been living the life of a hermit in a little shack on the banks of the Willamette below town for the past three or four years, has found some relatives who will care for him in his old age.

Mr. Howard came here from Kansas or Oklahoma some six or eight years ago and first bought a small tract out west of town which he lived on, but later he sold this and bought three acres back of the McCrea place on the river where he has since lived in dirt and squalor until a few days ago.

John Shearer became interested in the old man a few weeks ago and found in talking with him that he had a brother in Clinton, Iowa, who Mr. Shearer wrote to informing him of the condition of his brother. In due time he received an answer from the Iowa man saying he had a brother, a great hunter and trapper, who had been gone thirty years or more and he had lost all trace of him. He also wrote that he had a niece at Turner in this state who he would write to regarding the matter and shortly after this Mr. Shearer received a letter from Mrs. J. W.
McKinney, of Turner, making inquiry about Orsen Howard and as a result of the correspondence she and her husband came to Newberg last week to investigate. It turned out that Mrs.
McKinney's mother now living in Salem at the age of seventy-eight, is a sister of Mr. Howard and that the latter, now eighty-nine years old had been given up as lost. He drifted away years ago and being unable to write he failed to let his people know where he was.

The old man was overjoyed on meeting his niece, Mrs. McKinney and her husband and readily consented to go to make his home with them. He was brought up to town and given a bath, a clean shave and a new outfit of clothing, which transformation rendered him unrecognizable to those about town who had been accustomed to seeing him occasionally in his old tog-gery. He left for his new home with his relatives, a very happy old man and here the novel ends.

Wedding Bells.

A very pretty wedding took place on last Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J.
Gill on Chehalem mountain when their daughter, Miss Ethel, was married to Calvin Hutchens, of Newberg.

Promptly at 8:30 in the evening the couple marched in to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Lois Jones and took their place beneath a beautiful wedding bell when the ceremony was performed by Rev. C.
L. Hamilton pastor of the M. E church.

The bride was attired in lovely cream silk and wore white carnations, while the groom wore the conventional black. The rooms were decorated with ferns and Oregon grape.

Those present from Portland were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gill, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gill, Leora and Edith Fleming, Wm. Gill, John Jones, B. W. Bumm; from Mc-Minnville, Helen Weed; from Newberg, Thomas and Monroe Hutchens, Mr. and Mrs. D.
Hutchens, Albert Wind, Mr.
Hamilton Jr., and also the Misses Mary Gill, Alma, Lois and Katie Jones, Eva Priestley, Myron and Hugh Bryant, Frank Schmeltzer, Jay Ornluff, Mervin Whitmore, Robert Howie, Frank Matthews, Masters Alfred Hutchens, Edward and Rowland Gill.

Many beautiful presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. C. R.
Hutchens will make their home on the farm on Chehalem mountain for the present and the happy couple have the best wishes of their many friends.

Trying to avoid work is often the hardest kind.
