Something to "Lean On"

and visible means of practical support is a good, substantial bank account. Once you have a good balance at your banker's, you do not care how things go, because you feel independent. And the only way to get a bank account is to save, and save, and acquire riches by patient thrift. We can help you do this by taking care of your savings and paying you a good interest thereon. Do not delay, but start saving at once.

Chehalum Center.

Mrs. Cyrene Palmer is visiting friends in Dundee at present.

Word comes from West Chehalum that Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rodgers have an infant daughter, born February 28.

The sad tidings was received Thursday, February 27, from up the valley, of the death of Obert Nelson, youngest son of John Nelson. He was well known and a respected young man, and spent the most of his late years in and near Chehalum Center.

Grandpa and Grandma Hanson have moved to Newberg and our pastor A. Holmes and wife will occupy their country home.

The Misses Mabel and Nellie Paulsen were visiting their grand parents in Portland last week, and while there Rev. Mulheuron and wife celebrated their fifty-sixth wedding anniversary February 29.

The W. C. T. U. will hold the next meeting at the home of Miss Nancy Atkinson next Wednesday.

Rev. John Shires and wife and A. J. Palmer write home that they are enjoying themselves hunting up old friends and relatives. They are also experiencing an old fashioned snow storm.

A False Report Corrected.

We, the undersigned members of the Brethren church, wish to say as to the reports being circulated that the Brethren church is for sale that the reports are all falsehoods. The Brethren church is not for sale, never has been and is never likely to be.

Dundee.

Mrs. E. S. Greer has gone to Tacoma for a two week's visit with home folks.

Mrs. Lottie Decker of Newberg is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. R. Robinson.

John Jennings of Albany, visited with G. W. Byers Sr., this week. Mr. Jennings and Mr. Byers were playmates back in their boyhood days, having played in the same mudholes. They have seen each other but twice since those days.

Mrs. Humphrey and baby, who are county charges at present, have been very sick this week. A committee was appointed to look after them.

Miss Jennie Gilmore of Portland, visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. D. McEwan this week.

Mrs. G. W. Byers Jr., is just recovering from a severe case of poison oak.

W. T. Myers has not returned from Illinois yet and Dame Rumor says there are some very nice school teachers back there. Take that reason and leap year combined, and—well it is a very good excuse.

Dundee is having some of the best evangelistic meetings in its history under the leadership of Rev. Branson.

Roe Robinson was called to North Yambill Sunday to help care for his father F. J. Robinson, who had been kicked by a horse and had his leg broken.

The Feminine Observer.

The fervency of your worship should not depend upon the clothes of the congregation.

The average man is so mean that every time he sees a woman having a good time he is reminded how the men have to slave.

There isn't enough of the poetical about the average man for him to get much music out of the hum of insects; he is more apt to fear he will be bitten.

Babies have nothing in common with the silent watches of the night.

It is easier to make both ends meet than it is to weld them together.
