Local Events.

Mrs. J. B. Parker, who went to Nebraska to visit her sick mother, arrived home last week, bringing a pair of red birds.

Mrs. Joseph Hoberg visited in town several days last week with her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Nelson.

J. P. Schade and family, of Portland, visited over Sunday with A. E. Bowman's at their home north of town.

Hiram Hoots, who sold his farm west of town recently, has bought the Walter Terrell cottage located on Sixth street for a home.

Miss Mettie Moris, who holds a position in Portland as a trained nurse, is at home visiting with her mother, Mrs. Mary Morris.

A very important meeting of the stockholders of Pacific College will be held at the college building on Saturday evening of this week. A full attendance is desired.

James Henderson and Samuel C. Smith from Ohio, who are out making a trip through Washington, Oregon and California, have been in town during the week visiting with Arthur T. Hall.

Fred Werth has bought the Luke McKern place, consisting of something more than two hundred acres, the price being $45 per acre. This is considered a very low figure although the farm is badly run down.

S. E. Cummins, who is making a hot race for the nomination for county commissioner on the republican ticket, was in town Wednesday. The indications are that Sam's Newberg friends will not forget him on election day.

Jo Porter invested in a big St. Bernard dog recently. A mammoth, good natured specimen, making friends with everybody about town, but had you noticed how the price of meat had jumped up since he came to town?

Mrs. J. C. Matteson and son, Roy Carr, arrived from Long Beach, California, the first of the week. Mrs. Matteson will remain in town with her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Sperry, while Mr. Carr has returned to Long Beach where he is prospering in the real estate business.

Guy Heater, who has been off on a vacation for several weeks, is back at his old stand in the Parker Mercantile Co. store again. While away he visited at Corvallis, Albany, Baker City and took a run over into Wallowa County. Twenty miles out from Baker City he visited with his brother, Oscar, who is married and living on a claim of his own.

The members of the Friends church at Rex extend an invitation to the public to attend the dedication services for the new church recently completed which will be held next Sunday, when a big basket dinner day will be made of it. Rev. Isom P. Wooton will preach the dedication sermon at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Go and spend the day and take your dinner basket.

Uncle Jim Rowell is rapidly developing into a public speaker since coming to town. One night recently in a speech made at a meeting of the Commercial Club he made the confession that a few years ago, while living in retirement on his farm up the valley, he thought that Newberg would never amount to much, but he warmed up to the subject and before he sat down he pictured the town with its advantages in glowing terms, such as is seldom heard in public utterance, and every knocker in town should have heard him—and they will hear him sooner or later.

Jay Mitchell, who came home for the spring vacation, returned to O. A. C. Tuesday.

Clyde Baker, son of J. H. Baker, who lives on Parrett mountain, died at Sherwood Tuesday.

Billy Williams and wife came down from Victor, Wasco County, last week to attend the funeral of Frank Haskin.

A. P. Reynolds, an elderly gentleman from Minnesota, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Newhouse at Springbrook.

Rev. J. H. McDevitt, pastor of St. Marys Cathedral, will hold services at Duncan's hall at ten o'clock Sunday morning, April 5.

Word comes from Eugene that Lon S. Hill and Guy Metcalf are convalescing, the former from a broken leg and the latter from a case of smallpox.

Wm. Giles has sold his home below town to Edward Yarnes, of Amity, and is arranging to take his departure for Lake county in time to show up on his claim by the first of May.

E. O. Maddux, who recently sold his blacksmithing business on Main street, will sell his personal property Saturday afternoon at auction and expects to remove to Centralia, Washington.

O. A. Macy, who has had charge of the postoffice at Rainier, Oregon, since his graduation from Portland Business College, has resigned his position as assistant postmaster, and began work for Macy Bros. at McMinnville recently.

J. W. Adams, who came here recently from Stevens County, Washington, has bought the Ezra Nash place located two miles west of town. Mr. Nash and his brother went to Lake County a few weeks ago to locate on government land.

S. M. Galkins has sold his residence at the intersection of Fifth street and the Dayton road to J. P. Ridenour from Vancouver. Mr. Ridenour also bought ten acres of the south part of the A. T. Blair farm north of town; the price being $200 per acre.

L. M. Smith and J. W. Barcroft came home from California last week but Mr. Smith returned again this week and Mr. Barcroft says he intends to close out his interests here and return soon. The mining fever has got 'em bad.

Frank Haskin died on Wednesday of last week after an illness of several months. The funeral was conducted on Friday afternoon from the M. E. church by Rev. C. L. Hamilton and was attended by the members of the band of which deceased was a member.

Mrs. Alice M. Noel, a sister of L. B. Charles, who is a trained nurse and who has been located at Butte, Montana, arrived in town last Saturday. Her son, Bruce Noel, who is in school at Vancouver, also came and made a short visit. Mrs. Noel will probably remain for some time.

George W. Briedwell was down from Amity the first of the week but he vigorously resented the mere suggestion of the probability of his being down shaking hands as a candidate. He served his day several years ago and since repented, but his record as County Clerk was a good one, however.

F. A. Elliott bought a thirteen acre tract lying west of the Dundee school grounds the first of the week, the larger part of which he proposes to set to English walnuts yet this spring. Early Wednesday morning he started out in that direction in company with farmer Britt to take up the white man's burden.

Elizabeth Hodson, the mother of John and Ed Hodson and Mrs. Alfred Wheeler died on Thursday night of last week at the advanced age of seventy-eight years. The deceased had been helpless from paralysis for some time and death was a welcome visitor. The funeral was conducted on Saturday by Rev. Isom P. Wooton.

F. A. Morris has bought a ten acre tract off the southeast corner of the E. S. Craven farm north of town.

Mrs. M. F. Hurley was up from Portland last week visiting with her mother, Mrs. R. Pettyjohn.

D. P. Strait and Fred L. Ames went to McMinnville Wednesday to attend a county convention of the Modern Woodmen.

The Wednesday Club at its last meeting was favored with a talk by Mrs. Elizabeth Hutchinson on Ireland and the Irish people.

E. S. Minchin visited with the home folks near Dundee Tuesday night and on Wednesday left for Denver to continue his work as advance agent for the Meneley people.

The High School boys have ordered natty base ball suits and expect to be on the diamond with a winning team as soon as they can have a little more time for practice.

Dr. R. W. Harrold, F. H. Caldwell and Jesse Edwards were appointed to go to McMinnville today, Thursday, to attend a meeting of the representatives of the county Development League.

The local Y. M. C. A. boys of the light weight set will send a basket ball team to McMinnville Friday night in charge of Arthur Wilson, to play a game with the county seat Y. M. C. A. team.

Jesse Hoberg, from Wisconsin, visited in town with his cousin, Mrs. W. W. Nelson, last week. On Thursday he was accompanied to McMinnville by Miss Ella Nelson on a visit to his uncle, Rev. J. Hoberg.

Wm. Rich, who recently removed to Washougal, Washington, was in town Wednesday settling up some business affairs. He has bought a lot and is building and expects to embark in the hardware business.

Dr. Snapp has sold out to Dr. John S. Rankin, who arrived here with his family from Huntington the first of the week where he has been practicing for several years. He comes well recommended as a man and a physician.

Wm. Stratton and son Roy, Sam Anthis and Gord Worden started on an overland trip to Lake county Tuesday morning to take a look at the country with a view of locating on government land. They drove to Portland where they took a boat for The Dalles. They went prepared for frosty weather and they will not doubt see plenty of it on the trip.
On Saturday last in remembrance of her birthday, Mrs. W. W. Nelson entertained the old La Fayette class who were neighbors a number of years ago. Madams M. J. Hoberg, R. P. Bird, J. E. Hubbard and R. P. Ungerman, of McMinnville; Mrs. M. F. Hurley, of Portland; Madams F. H. Caldwell, M. L. Littlefield and C. C. Ferguson, of Newberg.
