sipelas Tuesday night.Jesse Hobson was up from Portland Wednesday on a real estate deal for a party.Dr. Ball and family were up from Portland last Sunday visiting with his sister, Miss Ball, the milliner.M. P. Elliott removed last week to the Jo Bowman place north of town which he recently purchased.R. M. Woolworth, agent for the Dayton insurance company, was in town the first of the week writing insurance.A. B. Lyon has removed from town to his small farm but two miles northwest of Newberg on the West Chehalis road.The dedication services for the Friends church at Rex will be held next Sunday. A mistake was made in the date as given last week.Jay Heston, who has not been in good health for some time, has given up his job at the mill and will probably make a change of climate for a time.Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edwards went to Portland last Sunday to meet their daughter Maybell on her arrival from her extended trip to Kansas and Indiana.J. M. Shaw and family were up from St. Johns the first of the week visiting with relatives.
Mr. Shaw has been out of business since last October but is expecting to go into the grocery business soon.J. F. Ridenour, who bought the S. M. Calkins property in town and a part of the A. T.
Blair farm came over from Vancouver the first of the week with his wife and three children and are getting located.Miss Lillian Heacock, who had been sick with tuberculosis for more than a year died on Tuesday. Funeral services were conducted by Mrs. Edwards and the pastor of Friends church, on Wednesday afternoon at the Hollingsworth undertaking parlors.F. H. Adams and W. J. Morris, who came to Newberg a few days ago from Everett, Washington, have opened a real estate office in the Commercial hotel building near the depot. Mr.
Morris has rented and is occupying the A. B. Lyon property north of the Sims green house.In the local prohibition oratorical contest held at the college on last Friday night first place was won by Miss Beulah Spaulding, her subject being,
"How Long Shall King Alcohol Reign." The others who took part in the contest were Miss Mary Cook and Leonard George.Ezra Nash, who made a trip to Lake County some time ago with a team in company with his brother, both taking their families, returned a few days ago.
He filed on a claim but was not well pleased with the country and consequently sold his wagon and team to his brother and returned. He says it looks good to him about Newberg.The W. C. T. U. institute begins this, Thursday evening at 7:30 with addresses by the state president, Mrs. Henrietta Brown, of Albany, and Mrs. Helen D.
Harford, national superintendent of Christian Citizenship. On Friday there will be all day sessions and in the evening there will be held a silver medal contest. The various sessions will be held at the M. E. church.E. W. Hall was up from Portland last Sunday.A. R. Cumpston was up from Sellwood on business the first of the week.A. B. Parker has leased the small place near Dundee, which F. A. Elliott recently purchased of Mrs. Imus, for a term of five years.Dr. Snapp has taken a contract with the railroad people who are building the new line from Huntington to Lewiston, where he will be the physician and surgeon for a thousand or more men who are working on the line.S. W. Potter made a small addition to his building recently which gives him a splendid optical room with much better opportunities for taking care of his customers. With his increasing business he will be compelled to buy more elbow room at no distant day.A force of men have been at work for several days on the switch leading from the main line to the sawmill, putting down heavier rails and improving the roadbed. When the work is completed the switch will be in much better condition for heavy work.A silver medal contest was held at Dundee on Tuesday of last week by the W. C. T. U. The class of young girls rendered their selections well, and other enjoyable features were given on the program. The medal was won by Ruth Taylor, the youngest member of the class.Wm. Barker has sold his home near Springbrook, consisting of twenty-two acres, to Zim Mills, the price being $3200. He has bills out announcing an auction sale of his personal property, consisting of household and kitchen furniture, a cow and some hogs, for Saturday, April 18, beginning at one o'clock.
Mr. Barker and his sisters are intending to go to Oakland, California.Willis Cox, a laborer at the sawmill, received a pretty severe wound in one foot one day last week while driving a horse on the yard. It had become a habit of the horse to stop when passing a certain point and Mr. Cox determined to break him of it by using a "pursuer," and consequently he reached down to pick up a stick when the horse set one foot down on Mr. Cox's foot making a pretty bad bruise.S. L. Parrett, who was in town Tuesday evening, said that in his canvass as a candidate for the nomination for the office of County Clerk he was receiving much encouragement from all points in the county. Mr. Parrett is well qualified to fill the office to which he aspires and this is the first time he has ever asked any favors at the hands of the people. It goes without saying that he will poll the full vote of the republicans at the primary election in this part of the county and it is generally conceded that he will be nominated by a rousing majority, and his election will surely follow.On last Saturday a native cedar tree brought from the forest was set on the grounds at the Friends church in memory of Wm. Hobson, the pioneer minister of the church in this section, who was well known to all the older settlers now living about Newberg. Rev. Isom P. Wootton, pastor of the church, who was intimately acquainted with Wm. Hobson in Iowa, made appropriate remarks, giving some account of his work in going into Hardin county, Iowa, when that country was new and undeveloped and establishing a prosperous colony, and later of his visit and subsequent removal to Oregon with his family. Jesse Edwards also made brief remarks in which he gave testimony to the sterling character and honesty of purpose of the pioneer. The native Oregon cedar was a favorite tree with Wm. Hobson and his descendants made a selection of a tree of this variety on this account.Miss Gertrude Galbreath, of Salem, visited in town last week with Mrs. C. K. Spaulding.Friday and Saturday have been set for a general clean up in town. Prepare to get busy.L. H. Shirley has accepted a position at Chico, California and will leave next week, with his family to follow later. This will be Chico's gain and Newberg loses a family of very fine people.Sam Parrish arrived home from a trip over the O. R. & N. road the first of the week taking in points in the eastern part of this state and going as far as Mountain Home, Idaho.From the Michigan Daily published at Ann Arbor we note that in the athletic news column giving the list of students awarded numerals, the names of two New-berg lads, Walter Spaulding and Chester Hodson are to be found.Died, Tuesday morning April 8th, Winifred Thornton, beloved infant daughter of J. Graham and Mary N. McIntosh after a week's illness, aged three weeks and six days. The bereaved parents and friends have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad affliction."Hope looks beyond the bonds of time When what we now deplore, Shall rise in full immortal shrine, And bloom to fade no more."C. C. Ferguson cleaned his barn of horses last week by making a sale of eight head of splendid heavy team horses to Wm. Frazier, of Portland. The team of blacks tipped the beam at better than 1500 pounds each. Mr.
Ferguson has since bought a good team of young gray horses and he will find others as he can't rest well of nights without having two or three of the best teams in the county in his barn.At the council meeting Monday night in addition to allowing a number of bills matters of interest were disposed of as follows: Friday and Saturday of this week fixed as dates for cleaning up the town; marshal instructed to enforce the ordinance against dumping filth in the streets and alleys; to have alley in block 11, Central addition opened up and party to move building off; water committee ordered to build fence around reservoir; H. D. Crumly elected city surveyor.D. Estle, W. C. Wright and F.
A. Whitaker, who are doing business on the river under the name of "The Newberg Gravel Co.," are preparing to handle gravel during the present season on an extensive scale and at prices that will be lower than were charged last season. They recently purchased a small steamboat in Portland and will be prepared to do their own towing, which heretofore has been a big item of expense. They have a contract for furnishing 3000 yards to the city of McMinnville by August 1.Annual Meeting of the Newberg Christian Church.With April 9th, having passed one year as an organized church in Newberg, the Christian church
