Local Events.

George H. Rogers was up from Portland Tuesday.

O. K. Edwards has gone on a short business trip to Los Angeles, California.

G. W. Mitchell is home from the Sound country where he has been for several months holding down his timber claim.

Frank Wood has a pretty severe case of Lake county fever and it is likely to carry him away. Just how we would get on here in Chehalem valley without Frank remains to be seen.

J. W. Coffin, who is sawing for the Booth-Kelly people at Springfield, came home last Sunday for a short visit. He said the rain of last week was quite light at Springfield compared with the amount we had here.

A. J. Wells, who is in the employ of the Southern Pacific as a writer for Sunset Magazine and other advertising matter, spent Monday in town gathering material for the big advertising scheme that is being fattered by the Yamhill County Development League.

Dr. H. J. Minthorn, of Newport, stopped off here one day last week while on his way to Portland to testify as a witness in a trial involving some of the Siletz Indians who recently engaged in a knife carving fracas among themselves, while filled up on booze.

Bert Terry, who is barbering at Lebanon and who has been in poor health for some time, came up from Portland Monday evening for a short visit. A Portland doctor told him he had chronic appendicitis and he decided to enter a Portland hospital and take surgical treatment for the trouble.

A. M. Aspinwall, who lived at Newberg the first year after coming to Oregon, but who located later at Brooks, Marion County, is the largest producer of Loganberries in the country. He says his crop this season will require one hundred and twenty-five people for a period of six weeks for picking and shipping. One good thing calls for another. Who will put in the sugar factory?

Guy E. Metcalf, of Eugene, made a hasty run up from Portland last Saturday evening to see his mother, who is having considerable trouble from cataract in the eyes, and spent a little time in town Sunday morning before train time. For some six weeks he was laid up with a good case of smallpox and this was his first trip out. None of the rest of the family had taken it up to that time and it was thought they would escape.

The date of Saturday, May 2, has been announced for the annual celebration at Champoege, held in honor of the meeting held on that spot May 2, 1843, when steps were first taken for forming a provisional government for the Oregon country as it was then known, and which comprised the whole northwest north of California, including what is now Oregon, Washington, Idaho and a part of Montana. The principal address will be delivered by Hon. Ralph E. Moody, of Portland, after which a business session will be held to take steps to preserve the monument erected eight years ago. It is stated the river is cutting into the bank to such an extent as to endanger the monument. More ground is wanted and an effort will be made to secure an appropriation from the legislature to purchase more ground and to enclose the entire tract. Parrott's band has been engaged for the day and special rates have been arranged with the steamboats for transportation both ways on the river.

Mrs. C. H. Christensons spent a few days in Portland last week visiting with relatives.

W. J. Stater was down from McMinnville last Sunday with a half dozen new men in the country who were looking for a location.

Chas. K. Spaulding, who was down from Salem the first of the week, said if the markets for lumber continued to improve he thought they would be able to keep the mill at Newberg running through the season.

A copy of the Forum-Advocate, published at Wells, Minnesota, has been received at this office which gives an account of the death of Isaiah W. Whiteis, the father of J. L. Whiteis, of New-berg, who died after a few days illness from pneumonia.

L. B. Charles and his sister, Mrs. Noel, arrived home from Lake county Wednesday morning. They found the country to be all they had expected and filed on claims. They saw Wm. Stratton and his crowd on the way out. All of them took claims except Gord Worden.

Mrs. E. A. Trueblood came up from Portland last week and spent several days visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Nathan White and other friends. Her son Harry, who has a position in the office of the Pacific Monthly, also came up on Monday evening of this week and made a short visit.

T. J. Harris, who was sheriff of Yamhill county for two terms several years ago, with E. B.
Collard now of Newberg as his deputy, died at Valdez, Alaska, last Sunday. Since leaving this county he had been living at Forest Grove until recent years when he has been spending some time in Alaska.

Wm. Andrews, a gentleman from Vancouver, was here on Wednesday looking for a location in order to get the advantages offered by Pacific College for his children. These are the kind of people that any town can afford to bid for. It is always the better class of people who are looking out for giving their children the best possible advantages in the way of an education.

Last Friday which was arbor day at the college, though too rainy for outdoor work was well spent by the students and members of the faculty on inside work about the buildings. A general clean-up was made, the association room was papered anew and much good work was done.
At the noon hour a big spread was made by the ladies in the diningroom at the boarding hall, and it was amazing to see the amount of pie and cake and other good things put away by the boys.

At the meeting of the Wednesday club held last week the following resolution was adopted: Having the interest of our state's educational standard close at heart, we, the ladies of the Wednesday club do resolve that we are heartily in favor of the maintenance of our State University and that we use our influence with the voters of our community, to obtain for it the much needed appropriation which every institution of its kind must have in order to stand.

The last entertainment of the year for the public school will be given in Duncan's hall, Thursday evening, April 30th. The entertainment will be given by talent furnished by Eiler's Piano House; and the proceeds will go to finish paying for the school piano on which there is a debt of about fifty dollars. The entertainers will be John Claire Monteith, who needs no introduction here; Seth J. Story, violinist; Miss Corinne Morgan, contralto singer, and some of the best phono-graphic productions. The entertainment will be first class throughout. Admission 10, 20 and 30 cents. Come and spend an enjoyable evening and help pay for our new piano.

C. F. Johnson came up from Portland and spent last Sunday with his family.

President Kelsey and Prof. F.
K. Jones will go to Forest Grove Friday to attend a conference of the colleges of the valley.

The Imperial hotel under the new management is rapidly growing in favor with the public. More than fifty guests took dinner there last Sunday.

The Farmers State Bank with a capital stock of $25,000 was recently opened at Sheridan with A. M. Fanning as president and B. S. Morton as cashier. This is the second banking institution for Sheridan.

The Misses Mildred and Minnie Moffitt, who have positions in the J. K. Gill bookstore in Portland, came up to eat Easter eggs with the homefolks.

Sarg Britt returned from Everett, Washington, a few days ago where he has been stationed for some time superintending the work of installing a turbine plant for a big pulp mill for the Milwaukie manufacturing company which he represents.

Geo. A. Lyman, of Amboy, Illinois, the father of Prof. Lyman, who teaches in Portland Academy and who spends his summers on his fruit farm on the mountainside above Springbrook, was one of the winners of the prizes offered by the Portland Commercial Club for letters descriptive of Oregon and published in Eastern papers. He received $150. He has been in Oregon at different times and has spent some time about New-berg.

Miss Metta Morris, daughter of Mrs. Mary Morris, was married to Charles V. Reed, of Portland, at Ontario, on Saturday, April 18. Both the bride and groom had previous to their marriage taken homesteads near Burns, Harney county, and this will be their home. For the past ten years Miss Morris has been an attendant at the Portland Sanatorium where she was held in high esteem by the management, and she received many valuable presents from her many friends about the institution as well as from others.

David Shearer, a brother of John Shearer of our town, is out from Jewell County, Kansas, for a visit and John hopes to locate him here. He has been a resident of Kansas for many years and has lined up with the many sided experiences incident to Kansas life. One incident he relates dates back to the early seventies when a lean year forced him to return to Iowa where he fed stock for a man through the winter for wages, and the following spring he left for the return trip to Kansas. He started out with a load of corn, his wife and two dollars and a half in money and he says he got through all right. In later years things have come his way and he stands up for Kansas.

Curtis Parker is expecting to leave next week in company with a number of other Pacific Coast delegates for Boston to attend the National Grocers Convention. The Oregon delegation will join the Washington delegation at Spokane and travel together to Chicago where it is expected there will enough gather to make up a train load for the remainder of the journey. The itinerary takes in Niagara, Philadelphia, New York, Washington, D. C., and other points of interest and the dealers in breakfast foods and other bran mash for the stomach, Tar Soap and Old Dutch Cleanser, etc., are expecting to have the time of their lives—and see how the horses switch their tails in Bosting.
On the return trip Curt expects to sojourn in Indiana long enough to get next to a long line of ancestry, even to the third and fourth generation, including grandparents, uncles, aunts and cousins galore. He will probably be away from mother a couple of months.
