Local Events.

Mrs. O. K. Edwards and sons were up from Portland last Sunday on a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Parker visited with attorney Ore L. Price and family in Portland last Sunday.

Mrs. A. W. Rees and daughter were up from Portland the first of the week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Morris.

A burning chimney at the residence of Miss Jennie D. Miller, was the cause of a little exertion on the part of the fire fighters on last Friday morning, but no damage was done.

Attorney C. J. Bright and wife, of Wasco, Sherman County, came last Friday and visited until Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Bright's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Larsen, at their home out on the road to Dayton.

John Shearer can show as fine a stand of alfalfa at his home just west of the railroad track as can be found in any man's country. He has been sowing small patches of alfalfa for the past three or four years and he thinks it is the coming hay crop for the valley.

The Misses Anna and Elizabeth Blair, the former an instructor and the latter a student in St. Helen's Hall, Portland, spent last Sunday and Monday in town visiting with their uncle, Rev. J. C. Blair, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

J. W. Barcroft has bought the land on the island in the Willamette above town owned for several years by the Newberg Meat Co. and is negotiating for the entire island. We understand he proposes to clear the balance of the land, with the exception of a strip around the edge which will be left to keep it from washing, and put it in cultivation. There is no better vegetable land in the country as it is enriched several times during the winter season from the sediment occasioned by the overflow from the river.

J. S. Rees and Noah Heater will go to Newport in a few days to engage in carpentering down by the seashore during the building season. They have the contract for building cottages for Charles K. Spaulding and Miss Margaret Inglis on their lots at Nye Beach and the building material is being shipped over from Salem. Mr. Spaulding will build a very neat and attractive cottage for his family where they will spend the summer season and Miss Inglis will build large enough to have rooms for rent to others as well as to provide for her own comfort.

"Pat" Lawson, who holds down a responsible position in the bookbinding department with the Irwin-Hodson Co. in Portland, spent last Sunday in town visiting with his sister, Mrs. Sam Parrish. As a one-gallus urchin in his school days at the public school in Newberg "Pat" was something of an acrobat, ranking as a ready reckoner in turning hand springs and flip flaps for the amusement of the lads and lassies, and a picture of the school taken at that time and not yet "out of print" shows him standing on his head out in front of the balance of the school while they posed among the stumps and logs for a picture. The urchins knew "Pat's" ability for doing the right thing at the right time and when the picture man was ready to shoot they touched the button and he did the rest, and he still holds his place in the picture. After leaving school he went to Astoria where he learned the bookbinders trade which he has closely followed ever since.

L. B. Charles is laid up since returning from Lake county with fever.

G. M. Bales and wife went to Newport a few days ago expecting to be away until the first of next week.

Mrs. Noah Heater went with her husband to Newport Wednesday, this being her first visit to the seashore. They will probably be away from home a couple of months.

Mrs. Belle Waterman Findlay will speak at a union service to be held at Friends church on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock on the subject "The Human Body a Temple."

Paul Lewis, the youngest son of Levi Lewis is very sick with pneumonia. He first had the mumps and was left in a weakened condition making an easy subject for pneumonia.

At a meeting of the Commercial Club held on Friday evening of last week F. H. Caldwell was elected president; Dr. Harrold, vice president; W. C. Woodward, secretary, and Archie Seeley, treasurer.

H. I. Baird will make two trips to Champoeg Saturday, carrying passengers to the picnic for fifty cents for the round trip. He will leave here at 7 o'clock and again at 9:30 and returning will leave the grounds at 4 and 6:30 in the evening.

Miss Mabel Edwards went to Dayton Wednesday where she furnished several numbers of vocal music at an entertainment given by the Dayton Ladies Club, with the ladies of three of the McMinnville Ladies Clubs in attendance.

George C. Christenson, who was in town Tuesday laying in a supply of screen doors for shooting the flies away from the kitchen, said that while grain is not growing very rapidly, owing to the cool weather, the color is good and the prospect for a good crop is all that could be desired. Farmers and fruit and berry growers are cultivating smiles just now in anticipation of a bountiful harvest as nature seems to be doing her best to make good for the tillers of the soil.

C. P. Carey and wife left here on Tuesday morning for their former home at Mauston, Wisconsin, where they anticipate spending the summer among their old time friends and relatives, although they said they would be free to shorten their visit by several weeks and return home if they desired. In their honor and on account of their anticipated departure some thirty-five members of the G. A. R. and the W. R. C. gave them a pleasant surprise call on Friday evening of last week at their home in town and made merry until bed time, all the same as boys and girls of ye olden time. The neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Carey in Newberg are hoping they may spend a very pleasant summer among their friends in Wisconsin and will look forward with pleasure for their safe return later on.

Just how many Charley Craters there are in Yamhill county the Graphic is unable to state but it is evident that they are "on the marry." Last week a notice came of a license issued to Charley Crater, age 21, to wed, and our own Charley was accosted in regard to the proceedings although we knew he was "goin' on" something more than 21, and he smiled one of those sweet, home grown smiles of his, but vowed that he was free from all matrimonial entanglements. Charley has always ranked as a good boy and we let it go at that although he looked guilty. And now we publish a notice of issuance of marriage license to Charley Crater again this week and our Charley is charged with having bought a fifty pound lump of ice for making goodies for the table, and it is stated that his bachelor cottage in the lower part of town was provided with a cook on Tuesday evening.

H. R. Morris has a new barn well under way.

Frank Duncan removed to Oregon City this week where he has a job.

Prof. Harvey D. Crumly left for a short trip to Everett, Washington, Thursday morning.

F. H. Rogers will work in the grocery department at the Parker Mercantile Co's. store while Curtis Parker is away on his trip to Boston.

Mrs. J. L. Davis, who came down from Hood River recently says her husband who owns a young orchard in the Hood River district has a prospect for a good crop. Mrs. Davis expects to return in a few days.

The sweet singers, Miss Bessie McBride, Mr. L. Shade and Miss Schade were up from Portland to spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bowman. Their songs were highly appreciated by all who heard them.

Milt Gumm with his farm team and wagon furnished the necessary motor power to "hoss" a disabled auto with its two forlorn looking occupants into town, last Sunday evening, and a very good subject the solemn procession made for a kodak fiend.

Tuesday evening a fire alarm was turned in from some point on River street which sent the fire companies and pretty nearly everybody else in town in a will-o-the-whisp chase down that way without being able to locate the spot. The boys were just a little bit disgusted.

Sarg Britt left here on Monday morning to resume work with his employers at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, after having spent considerable time here visiting with his parents. Sarg has a lot of very warm friends and former college mates about Newberg who are always ready to give him the glad hand when he returns.

The Yamhill county prohibition convention was held in Newberg Tuesday when the following nominations were made: For joint representative, N. C. Christenson; representatives, E. S. Craven and Thomas E. Miles; sheriff, H. M. Williams; coroner, J. C. Gregory; all of the above named being from Newberg; clerk, H. C. Peterson, Dayton; recorder, C. E. Newhouse, Springbrook; treasurer, A. F. Hauser, McMinnville; commissioner, E. W. Rea, Amity; assessor, N. L. Wiley, Rex.

The Presbyterian church in Newberg has been supplied with pastors from time to time since the church was established, but the first installation will take place on Wednesday evening of next week at 7:30 when Rev. J. C. Blair will be formally installed by the Presbytery as pastor with Rev. A. M. Williams presiding. Rev. I. G. Knotts will preach the sermon, President H. M. Crooks, of Albany College, will deliver the charge to the pastor and Rev. W. H. Foulkes D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Portland will deliver the charge to the congregation.

As noted last week work has been begun on changes to be made on the brick building formerly occupied by the Bank of Newberg. The excavation for the addition to be built in the rear is pretty well completed and Tom Herd has a force of men at work on the building. The whole lower floor will be occupied by Wright, White & Co. with their feed, seed and implement business when completed. J. F. Taylor, who is well known as one of our reliable business men, has bought an interest in the business and the new firm will remove to the new location with a view of increasing the stock in keeping with the demands of a growing and prosperous business. As will be noted by their announcement on first page they are offering some bargains in order to close out the old stock and begin with a new stock in the new location.
