Something to "Lean On"

and visible means of practical support is a good, substantial bank account. Once you have a good balance at your banker's, you do not care how things go, because you feel independent. And the only way to get a bank account is to save, and save, and acquire riches by patient thrift. We can help you do this by taking care of your savings and paying you a good interest thereon. Do not delay, but start saving at once.

Some Fifteen Years Ago.

(From an Exchange.)

"I wandered to the grog shop, Tom, I stood before the bar, and drank a bowl of lemonade and smoked a rank cigar; the same old kegs and jugs were there, the ones we used to know, when we were on the round up, Tom, some fifteen years ago. The bar-keeper is a new one, Tom, the one who used to sell corrosive tanglefoot to us is smoking now in H-alifax, the new one has a plate-glass front, his hair is combed quite low, he looks just like the one we knew, some fifteen years ago. Old soaks came up and called for booze, and dudelets staggered in, and burned the lining from their throats with fine old Holland gin, and women stood outside the door, their faces seamed with woe, and wept just as they used to weep, some fifteen years ago. I asked about the old-time friends, those cheerful sporty men, and some were in the poor house, and some were in the pen, and one—the one we liked the best—the hangman laid him low; the world is much the same, dear Tom, as fifteen years ago. I asked about that stately chap whom pride marked for its own he used to say that he could drink, or let the drink alone, he perished of the James H. Jams out in the storm and snow, ah few survive who used the bowl some fifteen years ago.

New crowds line up against the bar and call for crimson ink; new hands are trembling as they pour the stuff they shouldn't drink; but still the same old watch-word rings, 'This round's on me, you know,' the same old cry of doom we heard, some fifteen years ago. I wandered to the churchyard, Tom, and there I saw the graves, of those who used to drown themselves in red ferment waves; and there were women sleeping there, where grass and daisies grow, who went and died of broken hearts, some fifteen years ago. And there were graves where children sleep for many a year, forgetful of the woe that marked their short, sad journey here; and "neath a fine tall monument in peace there lieth low, the man who used to sell booze, some fifteen years ago."

Cut Flowers.

Carnations and lilies—On almost every occasion cut flowers are appropriate. They carry felicitations to a bride, congratulations to a graduate or friend, sympathy and love to the bereaved. We are prepared to make up funeral designs, having a supply of frames, such as pillows, anchors, wreaths, etc.
Prices reasonable. Greenhouse ¾ mile north-east of Newberg, Mutual phone 30-15. Flowers delivered if desired.

An Insidious Danger.

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy at the first sign of trouble as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes.

Sovran 44275.

Gordon & Irelan owners of the Commercial Barn were in Portland last week attending the horse show and while there Mr.
Gordon purchased the noted prize winning trotting stallion Sovran No. 44275, winner of the first prize for the best two-year-old and sweepstakes for the best standard bred of any age at the Portland horse show of 1907.
This horse will be found at the Commercial Barn in Newberg this season which will give the breeders of this locality a chance for the best at a reasonable price.

Sovran is a colt promising for speed, of great beauty, bred in the blue and a sure trotter. He has the form of the ideal horse, with great intelligence and docility. In appearance he is much like his half brother Forest King 2:18½, one of the great colts of 1907. Sovran won first premium for the best two year old stallion and sweepstakes for stallions any age at the Portland horse show. His dam, Cousin, is also the dam of Diacono 38949, winner of first premium at the 1905 Montana State Fair for best two year old stallion exhibited and for best three year old at the same great fair in 1906. Sovran is city broken and is a good race prospect as well as the right sort for a stock horse. Will stand 16 hands when matured.

General Jones.

I have purchased the grand young stallion General Jones, No.
41747. He is by Captain Mc-Kinney, by McKinney 2:11½; 1st dam Daisy Q. Hill, by Alt-mont. He is royally bred and has a right to be as fast as his sister Bellemont 2:09½. He won first premium at the recent Vancouver, B. C., Horse Show. His brother Chehalem won first in his class at the Lewis and Clark fair. He is large, handsome, and will make a horse of 16 hands, and 1150 pounds. He can be seen at my stable at Newberg.
C. C. PERGUSON.

Notice to Contractors.

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received up to, and opened on May 10, 1908, at one o'clock p. m. for the erection of a schoolhouse in school district 39, near Scholls, Washington county, Oregon. Plans and specifications may be seen at the residence of L. M. Hesse, chairman of the board. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids. L. M. Hesse,
