Local Events.

Dr. Ray Pemberton was down from Salem the first of the week. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ehret, on Saturday, May 16, a daughter.

Mrs. M. G. McKern and children are down from Umatilla county visiting with relatives.

Miss Grace Wilson, who has been teaching in Tillamook county during the year arrived home Wednesday.

Samuel T. Jones, of Washington, was in town Wednesday in attendance at his father's funeral.

Henry Mills and wife went to Caldwell, Idaho, for a visit with their son, Seth A. Mills the first of the week.

Rev. John Stribling, formerly of Iowa, but whose home is now at Long Beach, California, was in town the first of the week.

The big Woodman of the World picnic which is to be held in Newberg on Thursday of next week is expected to attract a very large crowd if the weather is favorable.

J. W. Baker, who formed a partnership with W. H. Watts for the purpose of engaging in the commission business as noted last week, has sold out, J. C. Keller taking his place.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Carrier, of Kane, Pennsylvania, who were in town last week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Miles went on a trip with them to the timber belt above Falls City.

Bert Terry, who was recently treated for appendicitis in a Portland hospital, was over from Silvertown the first of the week. He has given up barbering and is farming with his brother, they having bought a farm near Silvertown.

The big High School athletic field meet which was to have come off here on last Saturday was postponed on account of the rain and the date fixed for it is Saturday of this week. If the weather is favorable a large crowd is expected to be in attendance.

W. W. Wiley, who has held the position of Superintendent of Schools for Tillamook county for the past four years, has been elected as Principal of the Newberg school for next year. He is a graduate of the Monmouth State Normal School and besides his experience as County Superintendent he is an experienced teacher.

Mrs. Elizabeth Miles and Mrs. Sarah Taylor left here on Monday morning for Indiana, the former expecting to go to Richmond to make an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Morrison, wife of Prof. Edwin Morrison, and the latter to Indianapolis where she will make her home for a time with her daughter, Mrs. Ella Wilson.

It is to be regretted that conditions were brought about that caused Principal R. W. Kirk of the public school to resign his position, the same to take effect at the close of the school year. For eight consecutive years he has held the position and his work has been so successful that the Newberg public school has been pointed to by prominent educators as one of the very best in the state. Among those who have patronized the school his work is held in such high esteem that six hundred or more people signed a petition asking him to remain in the work. Such testimonies are worth more to a man than money and his appreciation was expressed in a card published last week. Newberg suffers a loss in the change while some other school will secure the services of a valuable educator.

Mrs. Esther Miles has been down from Salem during the week visiting with relatives.

Dr. Ball and family were up from Portland Sunday visiting with his sister, Miss Katharine Ball.

Warren McConnell, who sold his barber shop recently, is removing to Ashland where his mother lives.

George Lamb, county clerk of Tillamook county, made a short visit in town last Saturday with his father-in-law, Wm. Stratton.

The Middleton school in which Miss Jessie Gardner has been teaching, will close this week with the usual "last day" exercises.

County School Superintendent W. W. Wiley, of Tillamook county who was in town last Saturday made a pleasant call at the Graphic office.

Lewis Saunders, who is working in the law office of Lee & Ferris, Portland, is in town calling on his former college mates and other friends.

Prof. J. S. Carrick and his music class will give an instrumental and vocal recital, Friday evening, May 29, when a good program will be rendered.

Will Vestal went to Portland this, Thursday, morning to submit to a surgical operation for rupture of long standing which has given him much pain of late.

T. J. Werth has suffered the loss of fourteen head of sheep by the depredation of dogs and he has declared war on worthless curs that may be found trespassing on his farm.

Rowland F. Scott, of Spokane, Washington, telegraph operator for the O. R. & N., visited last week with his aunt, Mrs. Jennie Remington, and cousin, Miss Hallie.

Reserved seats for Prof. Carrick's musical recital, Friday night, May 29, will be on sale at thirty-five cents next Monday morning at the drugstores. A splendid program has been prepared and a musical treat will be offered which none can afford to miss.

Lewis Samms, a former resident of Newberg, arrived here a few days ago from Wallowa county and has been trying to get his bearings but he says he finds it impossible to locate things about town that he was familiar with when he lived here. His son Robert, who was a student in the college, has a wife and one child and they are making their home at Western Springs, Illinois.

Mrs. Wm. Langton, of North Meridian street, entertained her neighbor ladies and their children Friday afternoon in honor of Grandma Taylor before starting on her Eastern trip. After a social time together at five o'clock she invited all to the dining room where a most delicious and bountiful dinner was spread on the long table. After another hour around the table together all went to their different homes feeling that their hostess had left a bright spot in each life never to be forgotten.

The local Y. M. C. A. board recently took up the matter of holding public meetings for the purpose of discussing the different referendum measures that are to be voted on at the coming state election, and the first of the series was held on Tuesday evening when the appropriation for the University of Oregon was considered. Prof. L. R. Alderman, of Eugene, County Supt. H. H. Belt, Principal R. W. Kirk and others spoke in favor of sustaining the bill authorizing the appropriation, while J. C. Hodson and Attorney Clarence Butt took the negative side of the question. Demosthenes and Cicero were outdone and both sides made the hall ring with pent up oratory. At the next meeting, the date of which is not yet announced the single tax theory is to be discussed and prominent speakers are expected to be present to lead in the discussion.

The union memorial services will be held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in Duncan's hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stanley were up from Portland last Saturday and Sunday visiting with Prof. Edwin Hadley's.

Frank Deach, a teacher of long experience, who is now teaching at Rex, has secured a responsible position in the McMinnville schools for next year.

Miss Vesta Bell, daughter of Mrs. Emma Bell, and Orville Hollingsworth, were married in Portland Wednesday at the hour of noon. In the evening the newly wedded pair came to Newberg where a wedding dinner was served at the home of the groom, the immediate relations and a number of young people being in attendance. As stated in the Graphic recently Mr. Hollingsworth is building a new home at Sellwood which will be ready for occupancy by the first of June. Congratulations.

Death of a Pioneer.

William J. Jones, born May 13, 1833, died May 18, 1908, aged seventy-five years. Deceased had been in fairly good health for a man of his age, up to some ten days ago when he went to make a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Ornduff on Chehalem mountain, where he was stricken with pneumonia and died. The remains were brought to the home of one of the sons, M. J. Jones, where on Wednesday morning old neighbors and friends called to pay their respects to the departed pioneer. Funeral services were held at the Baptist church in the afternoon, conducted by Rev. Geo. C. Ritchey, pastor of the Christian church.

Born near Burlington, Iowa, William J. Jones, at the age of fourteen years, in company with his parents, joined the ranks of the otrain emigrants of 1847, and in the fall of that year arrived in Oregon and located in Chehalem valley on a donation claim situated two miles northwest of Newberg. Chehalem valley has been the home of the deceased all these years where he married and reared a large family of children, nearly all of whom are married and are living in this vicinity.

For more than a quarter of a century the writer has known the old pioneer and he always found him to be of a genial disposition, ready at all times with a pleasant smile and a hearty shake of the hand to extend greeting. His passing we shall regret.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our thanks to our friends and neighbors who have shown us much sympathy and kindness in our late bereavement.
MR. and MRS. K. KEOLLEIRMIER.
