A Marshall, Minnesota, paper received at the Graphic office tells of the good work of Mrs. Helen D. Harford in the W. C. T. U. lecture field in Minnesota.

The Misses Mary and Anna Butt arrived a few days ago from Benton, Pennsylvania, and will spend the summer in Newberg visiting with their brother, Clarence Butt, and family.

Oliver Ralston, of Condon, was in town last week visiting with his sister, Mrs. Lyn Ferguson. Mr. Ralston, who is now a prosperous Gilliam County farmer, was a student in the academy here when Prof. Edwin Morrison was principal.

Philander Gard sold his farm east of town a short time ago to a stranger, receiving a small payment in advance, but he has not shown up since to close the trade. Mr. Gard says he is losing no sleep over it as he is not anxious to sell at all anyway.

Mrs. L. H. Shirley and children and Miss Bertha Nicholson left here the first of the week for Caldwell, Idaho. Miss Nicholson has given up her position in Moore's drugstore and has returned home. Mrs. Shirley will spend a month or more at Caldwell visiting with her sister, Mrs. Nicholson.

J. S. Rees and Noah Heater, who are carpentering at Newport, came home to vote. They have the Miss Inglis cottage about completed. The outlook for building they say is good and a busy season is looked forward to at Nye Beach. Mrs. Heater, who has been at Newport during the past month, also returned home.

W. B. Sims says the backward spring weather has so interfered with outdoor work at the greenhouse that he has decided to put more money into hot-houses where he can control the weather. Newberg will be glad to see him branch out in the business as his labors in this field of endeavor have been highly creditable to the town.

The silver medal contest held at Dundee by the W. C. T. U last week was one of unusual interest. The class of boys acquitted themselves very creditably, the medal going to Emil Sanders. While the judges were out the audience was entertained by a fine-temperance reading by Mrs. Shanahan and a humorous selection by Mr. Swink. The program was brought to a fitting close by Miss Beulah Spaulding, who delivered her temperance oration, which was much appreciated by the audience.

A. Ammerman, a former resident of Newberg, was down from Salem on Decoration day.

Miss Lula Trueblood, of Portland, visited over Saturday and Sunday in town with friends.

Dr. Harry Littlefield has invested in an auto, a physician's run-about of eighteen horsepower with a speed of fifty miles per hour. It is a daisy.

Paul Maris, deputy to food and dairy commissioner Bailey, spent Sunday in town with relatives, going on into Portland to cast his first vote Monday.

A half holiday for the city mail carriers allowed J. G. Hadley and R. J. Cooper to come up to Newberg from Portland with their families Saturday for a short visit.

The Christian Endeavorers of the Friends Church held a mowing bee on the church lawn Monday evening after which the young ladies served the mowers a substantial picnic supper.

H. D. Crumly went to Everett, Washington, last week where he secured the contract for surveying three townships of land out east of that place. He figures that it will require two seasons to do the work, the contract calling for its completion by December 1, 1909.

Rev. A. B. Snider, who arrived home last Christmas from a trip abroad, will deliver a lecture this evening in the Baptist church, the subject of which is "Inspiration Points from a Tour of the World." Admission 25c, children 10c. Rev. Snider is a brother of Mrs. Vernon Hinshaw of this place.

The Newberg Baptists are happy over the expected arrival soon of their pastor, Rev. F. C. Stanard, and family, who will probably take up the work here again next week. With a fine new church and with their old pastor with them again, there seems little to be desired in the way of a bright prospect for the local church.

On Tuesday evening of next week a county development league meeting will be held at Springbrook at which representatives from over the county are expected to be present and speak. United effort in putting Old Yamhill to the front is the watchword now, and a good delegation of Newberg citizens should be on hand to encourage the movement.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Stone, Mrs. Ida A. Horton was married at high noon Monday to Mr. Ora E. Olmsted, Rev. Joy, of Portland, performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Olmsted left for Newport to spend a few days and announce that they will be at home to their friends after July 1, at Arleta. Mr. Olmsted is engaged at the Jefferson Street depot in Portland in the employ of the Southern Pacific. By his conquest Newberg loses an estimable lady and a good citizen.

The Misses Edna and Amelia Crede are spending the week in Portland visiting and attending the rose carnival.

R. W. Kirk has declined an offer of the principalship of the Independence schools at a salary of $125 per month.

Miss Jessie Britt arrived home Wednesday evening from Morrow county where she has been teaching music.

Mrs. R. W. Kirk and little daughter, Katherine, have been spending several days with relatives in Portland.

A meeting of the Yamhill County Development League will be held at Springbrook Tuesday, June 9, at 7:30 in the evening.

Childrens Day exercises of the Christian Church will be given in Crater's hall Sunday evening, June 7, at 8 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

Beginning at 10:30 o'clock, Children's day exercises will be held at the Friends church Sunday morning and will take the place of the usual preaching service.

The Gregory Sisters have a very neat and well arranged room for business, since removing their stock of millinery to their new quarters in their father's new building.

On Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock at the home of the bride two miles west of Newberg, Mrs. Mary E. Remillard was married to Geo. A. Hawley, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. E. Blair.

The music recital Friday evening was fully appreciated by the fair sized audience which heard it. Some of the numbers were particularly good, the musicians doing much credit to the instruction they have received under Prof. Carrick.

Several boxes of roses have been sent to Portland from Newberg to help out in the way of decorations for the rose carnival this week, but the cool, cloudy weather has kept them back so that the quantity has been limited.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Friends church held last night a unanimous call was extended to Rev. A. J. Weaver, of Glens Falls, New York, for pastor. His acceptance is expected. Rev. Weaver is a nephew of the present pastor, Rev. Isom Wootton.

Wright, White & Co. are now located in their new quarters in the brick on the corner of First and Meridian streets. They now have room that is ample to display their big stock to good advantage and they will be pleased to have their old customers, as well as new ones, call and see them and inspect their line of new goods.

G. W. James, the Southern Pacific station agent in footing up the business done at the station during the month of May finds that the increase in receipts for freight coming to Newberg amounts to $1044 over the month of May for last year, with an increase of $404 in passenger fares. During the month more than seven hundred tickets were sold for Portland.

Mrs. John E. Smith had a very narrow escape at the depot on Monday evening. She got on the train to see her daughter, Mrs. Rees, off, and in getting off after the train had started she fell and barely escaped getting a limb cut off by the trucks of the rear coach. Mr. Smith, who was trying to assist her, was pitched on his head and was considerably bruised up.
