Something to "Lean On"

and visible means of practical support is a good, substantial bank account. Once you have a good balance at your banker's, you do not care how things go, because you feel independent. And the only way to get a bank account is to save, and save, and acquire riches by patient thrift. We can help you do this by taking care of your savings and paying you a good interest thereon. Do not delay, but start saving at once.

Mothers' Day.

Next Sabbath the morning hour at the Presbyterian church will be observed as "Mothers' Day." The object is to brighten the lives of our mothers and to make them more honored, loved and protected by their children.

Everyone is asked to at least observe the day by wearing a white carnation or other white flower in honor of his mother and as a badge of loyalty and love. Also to help the observance of the day by giving a white flower to at least one other person.

Each person is urged to show his mother some special kindness this day in word of affection and appreciation, by a gift or a visit to her or by a love letter if absent from her. If she be not living, bless the life of some other mother in memory of her. No true mother is too rich or too poor not to appreciate such filial remembrance.

The Feminine Observer.

It is possible for even a fellow with a yellow streak to feel blue.
A fool and his money are soon parted, but there are lots more.
It's all right to aim high if you don't overshoot the mark entirely.

He who laughs last always laughs alone.

You laugh at some people;
others laugh at you.

Some men are unable to distinguish between good advice and a mild insult.

No one ever discovered a saint by looking in a mirror.

The stiffness due to rheumatism is never mistaken for dignity.

Even the tallest man doesn't always come up to our expectations.

Some people are satisfied so long as they know there are others just as bad.

Judging from the makeup of some women they must suffer from painter's colic.

There is no way of knowing to what extremes women would go in the matter of dress if they could afford it.

Some people can never see the silver lining to the cloud of adversity—if it is hovering over others.
