Local Events.

Miss Ethel Waterhouse of Gearhart is visiting in town with Mr. and Mrs. R. Richards.

C. A. Bristow has purchased the home place of J. W. Barcott northwest of town, to which he has moved his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tripp, of Portland, visited in town the last of the week with the latter's cousin, Mrs. W. W. Nelson.

Dr. E. A. Romig and daughters were compelled to delay departure on their eastern trip on account of the illness of Miss Ruth.

R. Pettyjohn has moved to Long Beach, Washington for the summer in the hopes of bettering his health which has been far from good for some time.

L. M. Parker has leased the Hotel Imperial to Porter N. Skinner who will make a capable and genial landlord. Change of management took place Tuesday.

The property owners on Main street contend for crushed rock for the projected improvement of their street and at a special meeting last night the Council contracted with Sam McVey for furnishing and laying the material at $1.50 per yard.

The fourteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Roberts, who died of tuberculosis at Dayton, Washington last week, whither the family had moved some months ago from here, was brought to Newberg for burial by Mr. Roberts. Short services were held at the cemetery Friday evening.

Tom Higgins, who has a local reputation of being something of a wizard with electricity, went down to Portland when the Charleston was in the harbor and took the examination given to candidates for berths in Uncle Sam's navy for electrical engineers. He stood the tests in good shape and hoped to enter the service at once but orders were issued against taking on any more "hands" at present much to Tom's disappointment.

The Newberg public school Board has the teaching force for the coming year chosen about complete. Of the present force those who remain are, F. H. Buchanan as assistant principal, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McIntosh for the High School department, Alpha Donaca, Mary Simonson, Agnes Richmond, Josephine Bradley, Elizabeth Kirk, Nellie Paulsen and Emma Hitsman, with a question mark after the names of two or three of the above who have not yet definitely accepted. Of the others who have been re-elected, Principal Kirk, as announced in these columns, goes to Independence, while Miss Freda Gist will teach next year in her home school at North Yamhill and Miss Nora Sorensen at Corvallis. New teachers chosen are Flossie Bass and Helena Ferguson, of Newberg, and Grace Duncan, of Dayton. This leaves one or two vacancies to be filled. The assignment of grades has not yet been entirely made.

It may be remembered that over a year ago the Graphic made note of the fact that Uncle Jim Rowell had finally succeeded in bringing the "old lady" to town from their home in the wilds of Upper Chehalis, for the first time in seventeen years. The first step on the road to unheeding recklessness had been taken. The second step was noted soon after in announcing that the old people had sold out and moved to town. But their latest achievement renders the former very pale indeed in comparison. Yesterday Uncle Jim and wife recklessly boarded the train for Portland. The audacity of the feat may be better understood when it is known that it was the first time Mrs. Rowell in her experiences of seventy odd years had ever ridden on a train. In the face of their evident determination to cut loose from all restraint we tremble to think of their mad career in the giddy metropolis.

Milton Hampton has just returned from Kansas where he spent the winter.

Dr. H. A. Littlefield and Hugh Nelson are fishing out on the Trask river. F. H. Caldwell expects to follow them tomorrow.

Dr. H. C. Dixon and family, of Grants Pass, made the trip north in their auto a few days ago and are visiting C. C. Elliott's above Dundee.

Thomas Walter Mills, author and lecturer, will give a free public lecture in Crater's hall tomorrow night upon the interesting subject "Public Ownership of Monopolized Industries."

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Sawyer, of Monument, Kansas, who are here visiting with the parents of Mrs. Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. B. McNay, will return home the latter part of this month. Mr. McNay thinks of returning with them for a visit with his former neighbors and to do a little boosting for Oregon. The first year he was here he wrote 185 letters telling about the country and he thinks he could beat that at short range.

N. L. Wiley was so intent on cultivating his fruit trees and in looking after his pens of fine Minorcas and Plymouth Rocks at his home at Rex on last Saturday that he had little time to give to the thought of dates of past events, and consequently his daughters foresaw the necessity for calling in some of the friends of the family to apprise him of the fact that it was the twenty-fifth anniversary of his marriage to Miss Ida Jessup. There were several arrivals and still he failed to catch on until he saw Rev. Jesse Edwards, who performed the ceremony, drive up, when he capitulated and led the way to the dining room where the table was found to be spread with yellow legged chicken and other good things to eat. Beside Mr. and Mrs. Wiley and their two daughters and two sons there were present Mrs. Mary Jane Jessup, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Blair, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Woodward, Mrs. L. M. Parker and Miss Emma Deskins, and of the guests present all with the exception of Mr. Moore and Mrs. Parker were present at the wedding, which took place at what is now the G. W. Cutts home near Newberg on the northwest. In the evening a number of the neighbors called, well supplied with refreshments and paid their respects. A number of nice pieces of silverware were presented.
