Miss May Hall, of Portland, spent the day in Newberg Sunday.

Mrs. F. A. Morris visited at the county seat Wednesday with Mrs. D. H. Turner.

Karle Mills, of Portland, spent Sunday in town with his brother, J. H. Mills, the jeweler.

L. Wagner is down from the the Blue River Mines visiting his brother-in-law E. Crede and family.

E. A. Thomas, of Sherwood, visited in Newberg Sunday and Monday with his brother, J. P. Thomas.

Mrs. Luther Shirley and little daughters arrived home Saturday from their visit with the Nicholsons near Caldwell, Idaho

J. Gibson, of Portland, representing the Cudahy Packing Co., came up from Portland with his wife Sunday, visiting at the E. S. Craven home.

Oregon Yearly meeting of the Friends Church begins next week, the first public business session of which will be held Wednesday morning.

A tomato vine ten feet broad and running to a height of twelve feet ought rather to be called a tomato tree. Such can be seen in W. B. Sims' greenhouse.

Miss Anna Dudley, who with her sister, Miss Grace, has been teaching at Coquille City, Coos County, for a couple of years, has been elected to a position in the Newberg public school for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Williamson, of Prosser, Washington, who have been visiting for a few weeks in McMinnville with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Houck, were down Saturday calling on Newberg friends.

Wm. Giles came out from the Silver Lake country last week after his family and the rest of his household goods, which he took with him by boat as far as The Dalles, where he had left his team. He reports crops good and flourishing prospects in the interior.

Prof. W. W. Wiley, the new principal of the Newberg public schools, was honored at Eugene last week by being elected president of the State Teachers Association. He is accredited to Newberg, hence our new principal already gives us a little profitable advertising.

A letter came to the secretary of the Newberg Commercial Club the other day from Pomeroy, Washington, asking if Newberg business men were better satisfied with Newberg "dry" than Newberg "wet." That's easy. Newberg "dry" suits them so well they have never cared to experiment in the other direction.

Hans Peterson, who a few years ago owned the Ames property on North Meridian street, and who is visiting Portland relatives, accompanied by a sister and her daughter, visited here a day or so the last of the week with his friend J. C. Clemenson. He now owns a big ranch of over a thousand acres, one hundred miles east of Denver, Colorado.

Very successful indeed were the dedication services at the new Baptist church Sunday morning. A very large audience was present which listened to an excellent dedicatory sermon preached by Rev. Geo. R. Varney. At its close it was announced that to cover all expenses it would be necessary to raise $5400. To the surprise of many present this amount was soon subscribed with comparative ease, the members of the church giving a good lesson in liberality which might well be studied by members of larger churches.

Jeweler Mills is installing a testing cabinet in his store for optical work.

A. P. Johnson came down from Corvallis last week, remaining until Monday.

Miss Eunice Lewis is attending the summer school at the Monmouth State Normal school.

Mike Motschenbacher has removed with his family to his St. Paul farm for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hollingsworth, of Portland, have been spending a few days in town.

The new Newberg Brick & Tile Company made a record breaking run one day last week, turning out 20,000 brick.

Roy Woods is able to be up again after wrestling for five weeks with typhoid fever at the home of his parents.

Alberry George and family were up from Portland a few days the last of the week visiting at the former's old home.

E. D. Hamilton, who lives some twenty miles east of Portland, spent Sunday in town with his brother, Rev. C. L. Hamilton.

C. N. Mackie is back in business again, having purchased W. E. White's interest in the firm of Wright, White & Co. Mr. White expects to spend some time looking after the interests of his Sherman county farm.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Edwards left hurriedly last week for Minnesota, in response to the telegram announcing the death of their brother-in-law, David Crosby, as noted in these columns last week. They expected to be gone about one month.

A. C. Seceley, W. A. King and J. G. Bennett started down the river by launch late Saturday evening, spent the night at the Seceley home at Wilsonville, went on to Oregon City by canoe next day and thence by electric line into Portland, arriving an hour before time to take the train back to Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wadsley and a Miss Blair and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hipes and daughter, all of Early, Iowa, arrived Saturday evening at the home of C. L. Hamilton, the latter's wife being a sister of Mrs. Wadsley and Mrs. Hines. The three families leave the latter part of the week for Newport where they will enjoy a month's outing together.

On Sunday, June 28th, a very enjoyable time was had at the home of Sanford Goodrich, four miles south of Dayton, the occasion being the 77th birthday of Sarah Rhoades, mother of the Robertson brothers, Warren and Walter. A bounteous spread was put on the table of which about thirty-five partook, the following persons being present: L. Root, Emma Fitzhugh and son Percy, McMinnville; John H. Goodrich and family, Miss Gertrude Dorsey, Dayton; Warren and Walter Robertson and families, Newberg; Mr. and Mrs. Golsen, Corvallis. Everybody had an enjoyable time and departing wished Mrs. Rhoades many more happy birthdays.

The Newberg girls who were in attendance at the Northwest Y. W. C. A. Conference at Seaside arrived home the first of the week, reporting a successful conference and a splendid time. One of the most exciting of the recreation features of the week was the field and track meet in which the young ladies representing Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana vied with each other in athletic contests. According to the headlines and writeup of the event in Monday's Evening Telegram, "Miss Joyce George, a Quaker maid from Newberg," was the shining star of the day, proving to be the best all round athlete among the host of fair contestants by winning seventeen points. Unassisted, she won second place for Pacific College in the meet, the University of Washington coming first with nineteen points only. The college boys had better get her to show them how next year.

Prof. E. J. Hadley, of Portland, came up Saturday evening to see his brother Lon.

Jack Smith is building a seven-room house on the Jo Geer place, which he owns, some miles down the river.

Rev. F. L. Harford went down to Portland Sunday and in the evening addressed a union church mass meeting on the East side upon the subject, "Christian Citizenship."

Prof. and Mrs. F. H. Buchanan left this morning for Blachly in the western part of Lane county where they will spend the summer, he to act as timber warden in that vicinity for the Southern Pacific.

There is mourning in the family of Claud Ferguson since yesterday when their fine little bay driving mare, a pet ever since it was a colt, dropped dead in its stall without a moment's warning that there was a thing wrong with the animal.

Newberg W. C. T. U. observed June 24 as Flower Mission Day. Bouquets with scripture texts were taken all over town. The program was well rendered. Twelve names for membership were secured. Another day's work for the Divine Master.

MARY E. C. SCOTT, Press Supt.

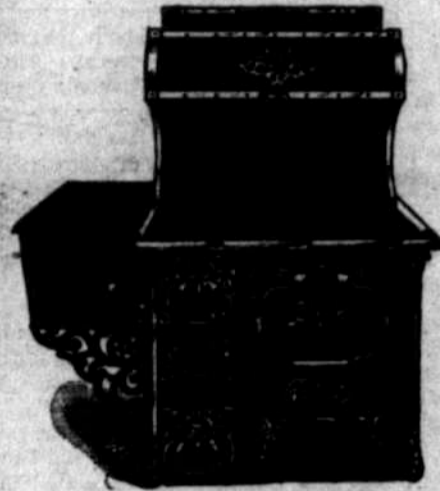

J. M. and Fred Crawford were in town Wednesday in company with their elder brother, General Medorem Crawford, who was retired from the regular army last January at the age of 64 with the rank of Brigadier General. He was born and raised on the farm at the mouth of the Yamhill river and when grown to young manhood entered West Point, and his life from the date of his graduation has been spent in the service of the government. His home now is in Washington, D. C. This is his first return to Oregon in thirty-five years and he remarked that the building of Newberg had spoiled his former deer hunting grounds. After having been pretty well over the United States he says Yamhill county is the beauty spot of the whole domain.

If the electric line could only "grow" as fast as some rumors do concerning it we would run in to the metropolis and see a ball game when the Beavers get back home within a few days. The story "spontaneously combusted" the first of the week that a certain property owner in Newberg was holding up the electric line people for right of way. By yesterday, when the man learned of the fact, the amount asked was $35,000, which was certainly going some considering the state of the weather. The "bad citizen who ought to be drummed out of town" at once got busy figuring on the cost of a pleasure trip to Europe yet this summer. But law, it's probably $75,000 by this time, in which case he might take along with him a few of his concerned friends upon whose hands time seems to hang a little heavily.

A mighty swell piece, or pieces, of "furniture" arrived in town Tuesday and has been installed in the F. H. Caldwell & Co. drugstore. It is a "20th Century Soda Fountain," manufactured by the L. A. Becker Co. whose general offices are in Chicago, and is as thoroughly modern in price as in every other particular, costing $1700 laid down in Newberg. It is thoroughly equipped with ice chests for ice cream, syrups and fruits, is sanitary in every respect, and its every convenience is matched by its elegance in appearance. Messrs. Caldwell & Ferguson are likewise arranging to open fine ice cream parlors in connection, furniture and equipment for which have arrived. As a "refreshment opening" in which to introduce their new fountain they announce that on Tuesday next at ten o'clock in the morning until eight in the evening they will serve the public with free soda. All are cordially invited to step in and test the output of the 20th Century Fountain.
