NEWBERG, OREGON.

Local Events.

Miss Mabel Cooper, of Portland, was a visitor at the Spaulding home Saturday and Sunday. Abe Cooke left Saturday for his old home in Minnesota where he expects to remain several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Reynolds of Portland were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Fuller Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. David Martin accompanied W. A. King to Portland last Friday and made the purchase through him of a fine new surrey.

W. W. Hollingsworth attended the annual meeting of the state association of undertakers at McMinnville the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith went up to Willamina last Thursday evening and visited a few days with their married daughter, Mrs. Will Rees and family.

Ore Price, of Portland, spent the glorious fourth in Newberg on the shady veranda of the home of his sister, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, remaining over Sunday.

The family of A. W. Rees, of Portland, celebrated in town at the home of H. R. Morris where a picnic dinner was enjoyed on the lawn by a company of relatives and friends.

Roger St. Helens and son Paul, of Portland, visited Sunday at the Jesse Cook home with the former's son Carl, who is employed as bookkeeper in the office of the Spaulding Logging Company.

Curtis W. Parker arrived home Friday evening from his extended tour of the East. He returned by the Southern route, spending a few days very enjoyably with friends in Southern California.

Without any heralding of the event, Thomas M. Warner and Mrs. Samantha Seese went down to Portland last week and on Thursday were married by Rev. J. Bowersox at the Evangelical parsonage.

Elwood Minchin arrived home the last of the week from a successful tour of some months as advance agent of the Menely Concert Company. He worked as far east as Colorado and Eastern Kansas.

The Fourth was very quietly celebrated by Newberg people generally. A few went to La-Fayette and some down to Sherwood, but picnic parties in the canyons about town and on the river seemed most in favor.

This afternoon at three o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Schmid, at Dundee, Miss Anna Schmid was married to Reinhold Lierman of Rex, Rev. G. J. Rieker performing the ceremony.

Walter R. Miles, lately returned from Earlham College, preached ably before a good audience at the Friends church Sunday evening. A previous announcement of the fact would have given many others the privilege of hearing him.

Rev. Lindley A. Wells, wife and young son, who arrived in Portland last week from Berkeley, California, the former to enter upon his work as pastor of the Friends Church in Portland, are in Newberg attending Oregon Yearly Meeting.

Haines Burgess, who with some of the other college boys is canvassing in Linn county for the Century Book of Facts, was at home over Sunday. He is not wildly enthusiastic over the joys of the book agent's life, but says they are making good money.

A patriotic sermon was effectively delivered before a large audience at the Methodist church Sunday evening by Mrs. Walter H. Whitten. Members of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. were present in a body as honored guests and with others were highly pleased with the earnest address. Mrs. Whitten developed her address along three lines, suggested by the sentences: "I have fought a good fight—I have finished the course—I have kept the faith."

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Ames got off on their extended Eastern trip Tuesday, mention of which was made last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stanley came up from Portland the last of the week remaining over Sunday with Prof. E. R. Hadley and family.

There are at the Graphic office for distribution premium lists of the coming state fair. Those interested should call and procure a copy.

Miss Ella Macy, who has been at her old home at Rushville, Indiana, for a year and a half, got back to Newberg Tuesday evening, well pleased to be in Oregon again.

N. D. Elliott, the Salem printer, came down on the boat with his family to spend a week in attendance at the sessions of Oregon Yearly Meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Clark celebrated at Salem, where they visited a few days with the former's daughter, Mrs. S. W. Cunningham and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Slater, Mrs. Reed and family and Miss Ruth Bittner, of Portland, are spending the week in Newberg, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Crede.

Dr. George Larkin came up from Portland Tuesday to prepare to resume the practice of dentistry here in his old offices. His family will follow him in a few days.

The fire alarm was given down at the sawmill at half past six o'clock Tuesday morning, fire catching in the sawdust in the boiler room. The emergency hose was soon manned, however, and the flames extinguished before damage was done.

Saturday, July 4, was the thirtieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Julius C. Hodson and just to show them there was nothing unlucky in the day a number of friends went in on them in the evening unannounced and helped them celebrate. Those implicated in the conspiracy were Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Morris, Pres. Irving Kelsey and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Butt and son Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Colcord, Dr. Nelson Morrison and family and Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Harrold and daughter Myra.

Newberg baseball fans who stayed by the stuff Saturday were treated to a double header on the kids' league diamond in the southeast part of town. But one game was scheduled but the appetite of the hungry fans was so whetted by the morning engagement that they insisted on a matinee, putting up a ball and bat as an inducement to the youthful performers. Both games went to the east end ball tossers, in the morning by a score of 9 to 7, while in the afternoon the west end lost by the score of 13 to 6. The winners ate ice cream off their loyal supporters, and ten cent dishes too, they are quick to explain. The wise ones among the has-beens insist that there was some big league timber in the making on exhibition Saturday.

No, it wasn't the booming of cannon which waked the slumbering inhabitants hereabouts at an unearthly hour on the morning of the Fourth. A few young Americas out west of town among whom were Lester Moore, the Haskins, Craven and Ruble boys, et al, joined by Paul Moore from town, were simply so overcharged with patriotism that nothing but the setting off of sundry sticks of dynamite seemed to give adequate expression to their over-wrought pent up feelings. The fond parents should observe a special Thanksgiving day that the names of their ambitious youngsters did not adorn the headlines of the next Morning Oregonian as among the martyrs on the altar of their country's freedom. As it was, no worse after effects than some pretty sick boys resulted, but they say it was worth it as they had been planning such a celebration ever since the Fourth a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Maris, of Portland, are spending the day in town.

F. H. Caldwell attended the annual meeting of the State Pharmaceutical Association at Long Beach this week.

County Commissioner R. J. Booth and S. E. Cummins are spending a few days in this end of the county studying the problem of good roads.

Seth A. Mills and wife are expected down from Caldwell, Idaho, this week on their way to the seashore, Mrs. Mills being in rather poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett White went to Salem Tuesday to attend the cherry fair. Mrs. White also went as a delegate to an annual missionary meeting of the Methodists as a representative of the local church.

Mrs. C. A. Keeney accompanied her brother Jay Heston to Portland by boat Tuesday, the latter, who is suffering with tubercular trouble, going to consult with physicians in regard to his condition.

Prof. Chas. E. Lewis, of Paoonia, Colorado, for several years engaged in educational work here in Pacific College, has been elected to a position in the department of science in Whittier College, California.

A special meeting of the Yamhill County Development League will be held in McMinnville on Monday, July 13, at 10:30 a. m. A full attendance of delegates, members and all interested in the development of Yamhill County is desired.

W. E. Fortune and wife left the middle of the week for Carson Springs up the Columbia river, where the former will take treatment. He has been in poor health for some time, having been unable to work since February.

Everett Heacock went up to LaGrande to spend the Fourth with his brother Orland. He made the trip in answer to a call to come and play in the band there at LaGrande's celebration. He arrived home Monday evening and was greeted with the far from cheerful view of the ruins of the sash and door factory.

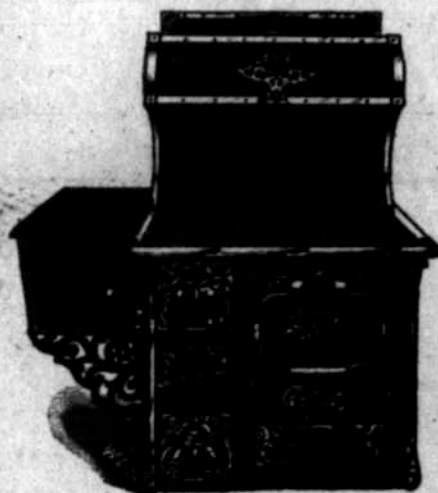

H. Edwin McGrew, former president of Pacific College who is down from his Idaho home, reports progress in his effort to regain health while taming nature on a sage brush ranch out from Caldwell. Some time ago he disposed of his claim at a good profit and bought another that already has water on it, with good buildings and other substantial improvements. His first alfalfa crop yielded forty tons and his fruit crop promises a fair yield.

Mr. Arthur Hutchinson and his nephew Howard Kenway, both of New Zealand, have been visiting here this week with the family of J. H. Douglas Jr., Mrs. Douglas being a niece of Mr. Hutchinson. The gentlemen are on their way "home" to Merry England, which the latter has not seen for thirty years, but are making a pretty thorough tour en route, having come thus far by way of Australia, the Philippines and Japan. After touring the coast they will proceed eastward by way of the Alberta country where they will visit relatives.

Messrs. Varney and Wagner, who are heavily interested in the commercial telephone lines of the upper Willamette Valley, accompanied by O. O. Hodson, president of the new McMinnville Company which has taken over the Mutual Company's business and gone in with the other commercial lines, were in Newberg Monday. They are preparing to build a line through here from McMinnville to Portland to connect up in the city with the new Automatic Company. A car load of poles will be laid down here next week, and the promoters of the new line say that in three weeks they will be through to Portland. They made overtures here looking toward a new local organization which would absorb the Mutual Company, but did not meet with encouragement. However, they will be given switching privileges here, and the Mutual subscribers will have direct communication with Portland over the new line.
