Mrs. Kantner and little son, the wife and son of Prof. Clifford Kantner, in company with her mother, Mrs. Whitacre, were down from Independence the first of the week visiting with Mrs. W. R. Carter at Chehalem Center. Mrs. Kantner and Mrs. Carter are sisters.

The newly incorporated company, the Architectural, Manufacturing & Construction Co. is now duly organized for business with officers elected as follows. Thomas Herd, president; H. O. Hanson, vice president; S. E. Watkins, secretary; J. Carl Nelson, treasurer; N. C. Christenson, auditor.

The following note has been received from Dundee: The friends of J. H. Swetman, of Dundee, will be interested to know of his marriage to Miss Emma Harrison of Gresham. The ceremony was performed at Sunnyside Aug. 14, by Rev. Ford, pastor of the M. E. church. The happy couple enjoyed a short outing at Seaside listening to "what the wild waves say." They expect to occupy their home in Newberg early in September.

A surprise party was given Miss Mabel Blaylock last Monday evening at her home. The evening was spent in playing games after which refreshments were served. Silhouettes were drawn by Wesley Wire. Nelson Brouillette gained his fame as an artist by drawing Maud the mule. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Brouillette, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Heacock, the Misses Pearl Cobb, Edna Forsyth, Doris Gregory, Grace Finley, Effie Pinney, Mamie Cole, Mabel Blaylock, Grace Wilson, and Messrs. Wesley Wire, Lindsey Dudley, Chester Dimond and Thos. Blaylock.

There are no harrowing details coming with the bear story from the home of Dr. A. Mills on his claim in the southern part of Lincoln county, but Harold, the fourteen-year-old son, is the hero of the plain story of the killing of a bear. Bruin had been committing depredations in the still hours of the night, much to the discomfort of the mothers of little pigs and the owners of the same, and the mountains in the vicinity had been scoured for days by the indignant ranchers without being able to secure an interview with the beast, when Harold went forth armed with a twenty-two rifle in search of game. When about a mile from home he came suddenly face to face with Bruin, and with two shots made a killing, one shot striking effect in the back of the neck. Few men would care to tackle a bear with a gun of this size but in this instance it proved effectual.

Sheriff Henderson was in town Tuesday wearing his old time smile.

Will Paxson is building an addition to his residence on Meridian street.

Miss Freda Gist has been over from North Yamhill during the week visiting with friends.

Miss Mina Mills was in Portland a few days ago visiting with Miss Garnet Perkins who is taking treatment in a sanitarium.

W. G. Allen was down from Eugene Wednesday making arrangements to operate their evaporator during the prune season.

Miss Louise Leatherman, of Albany, a niece, and Mrs. A. W. Stannard, of Brownsville, the mother of Rev. F. C. Stannard are here visiting the Stannard family.

J. L. VanBlaricom and son have gone into the mountains of Columbia county on a hunting and fishing trip for ten days. F. H. Rogers is assisting in the store in their absence.

A force of men were put to work the first of the week cleaning up the grounds where the sash and door factory was burned and putting the site in order for the new building.

J. H. Olds, one of the pioneers of the county was down from LaFayette Sunday visiting with his daughter, Mrs. C. C. Ferguson. His son, D. V. Olds, who is living at Seattle at present, was here with him.

Sherman Sealey started to Newport Monday carrying a grip and a smile which indicated that if there was anything restful and interesting down by the sound-ing sea he was intending to get the full benefit of it.

Eugene W. Chafin, the prohibition nominee for president, will open the campaign in Oregon in a speech he will deliver at Dundee's hall on Friday, September 4, at ten o'clock in the morning. He is reported to be an orator with a great record as a talker and he will no doubt have a large audience.

Dan J. Gilbert has traded his interest in the Newberg Meat Co., including the ice plant, to B. S. Powell of Tillamook for a dairy ranch situated four miles north of Tillamook and some lots at Seaside. He is over there this week looking after his interests. Mr. Powell will remove to Newberg at once.

B. L. Barry, of Dayton, who returned last week from a trip into Iowa, passed through town the first of the week. He says he was plied with questions on every hand about Oregon, the people being intensely interested in learning about this country, and he looks for an increased travel by homeseekers to Oregon in the next few months.

J. F. Pettingill has bought the Bixby building on First street where he expects to open out with a well selected stock of crockery and glassware in the course of two or three weeks. Mr. Higgins, who occupied the building with a miscellaneous stock of goods, has sold the stock to Mr. Bixby who is storing it. After selling his farm at Rex, Mr. Pettingill took a trip east in the spring, rather expecting to invest there, and he found some good openings for investment, but he still had Newberg in mind and he concluded to return and go into business here.

Jake Taylor arrived home from a trip into Washington, Wednesday morning.

Al Faulkner went to Puyallup, Washington, this week expecting to be gone a couple of weeks.

The Misses Mabel and Jessie Gardner went to Newport Tuesday where they expect to remain a week or ten days at the Miss Inglis cottage.

Dr. Nelson Morrison has rented rooms in the Union block where he will begin the practice of dentistry as soon as the rooms can be put in order.

C. B. Wilson and family were in Portland Tuesday attending the wedding of a Miss Snow, a cousin of Mrs. Wilson's. Then there was a ball game in the afternoon and a circus at night which made a full day of it.

In the will of C. E. Hoskins the estate is conveyed to the widow for her use during her life, after which $1000 is to be divided equally between his nephews and nieces, Hervey M. and Cecil Hoskins, Mrs. F. K. Jones and Mrs. W. O. Robertson, while the balance is to go to the State Horticultural Society. The estate is valued at about $18,000.

New Pastor Coming.

Rev. A. J. Weaver, the new pastor of the Friends Church, is expected to arrive here the first of next week from Glens Falls, New York, where he has been located the past five years. Rev. Isom P. Wooton, who has occupied the place as pastor during the past year, will close his work in that capacity next Sunday. Coming here a year ago to take a needed rest from long years of service in pastoral work, he took up the work here temporarily until the place could be filled permanently and has succeeded so well that the church would gladly have retained him if his strength would permit.

A Glens Falls paper in commenting on the labors of Rev. A. J. Weaver in that city says:

"It is with much regret that the church permits Mr. Weaver to go to Oregon, as during the years he has been pastor of the local church he has labored hard and zealously for its progress. The church has prospered under his pastorate. Not alone will he be missed by his own church people, but by all of the religious denominations in this city as well."

Stocking Shower.

On last Saturday evening Miss Anna Rogers delightfully entertained with a "stocking shower" in honor of Miss Lelia Littlefield whose marriage to Mr. Clarence Eldridge is to take place early in September. The large lawn was lighted with Chinese lanterns and hammocks were hung beneath the shade trees. A stocking game was played in which Miss Lenora Parker received the prize, a photograph of Mr. Eldridge. The Misses Hazel Littlefield and Lota Fleury rendered sweet music while refreshments were being served. The Misses Myrtle and Rita McDonald, Violet Slater and Hazel Elliott assisted Miss Rogers in receiving the guests who were the Misses Katherine and Ruth Romig, Hallie Stuckey, Bernice Woodward, Ione Hill, Lyda Wilson, Jennie D. Miller, Olive Stratton, Lenora Parker, Ellen Brewer, Lelia and Hazel Littlefield, Lota Fleury, Ella Nelson, Ida Woods, Elsie Mackie, and Mesdames Walter Parker, Maggie Caldwell, Lynn Ferguson, Emma Larkin, F. O. Andreas, Minerva Brown, Florence McDonald, Fannie Brouillette, Maggie Littlefield.
