There will be a meeting of the library association at the library next Tuesday evening at 8 p. m. for the purpose of electing a president and any other business that may come up.

Cecil J. Hoskins was down from McMinnville last Monday helping his parents to remove their furniture to their handsome cottage which was recently completed on the farm just north of town. The location is a slightly one and the new home shows up well from the railroad.

Tom Herd and H. O. Hanson went to Portland Tuesday and bought fourteen new machines for the sash and door factory which they hope to have on the grounds ready to set up within thirty days. The preliminary work on the new factory building is progressing nicely.

Mrs. Walter Hadley, of Ft. Bayard, New Mexico, who has been visiting her parents in McMinnville during the past month, was in Newberg the first of the week visiting relatives. The government forestry service is planning to establish a station at Portland and Mr. Hadley has asked the department to transfer him to that station.

There is no question but that Newberg is doing her best to satisfy the most exacting demands of the Southern Pacific bondholders. During the month of August just closed the receipts of the railroad office in Newberg amounted to $1500 more than the receipts of the office footed up for the month of August last year. The "business depression" don't appear to depress in this neck of the woods.

A force of carpenters, painters and paperhangers have been at work at the college for several days putting the building in order for the opening of the school year on the 28th of the present month. The verandas now have new steps and new floors and the halls and the assembly room have been repapered and the wood repainted in colors that add much to the appearance, making the rooms look much more cheery.

A halt page in last Sunday's Oregonian was devoted to the J. D. Gordon & Son fine stock farm at Dundee, pictures of seven of his Clydesdale horses being shown. These horses will be exhibited at the state fair at Salem and also at the big stock show at Portland immediately following, after which they will be sold in the combination sale to be held September 24-25. It is stated that after the shows are over Mr. Gordon Sr. will go to Europe to purchase a string of Clydesdales and English Shire horses, and that he will also visit Scotland for the purpose of selecting a fine lot of Shetland ponies, and will start the largest Shetland stud in the state.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Morris, August 31, a girl baby.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Chris Held on Friday of last week, a son.

Miss Dot Saylor was up from Sherwood last Sunday visiting with Miss Carrie Brouillette.

Rev. L. F. Belknap and wife, of Hillsboro, visited in town Monday with J. H. Wilson's.

Attorney Clarence Butt and family visited with Mrs. Nancy Crawford above Dayton Sunday.

President Kelsey will preach for the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in Crater's Hall.

Mrs. W. H. Davis, of Oregon City was in town Tuesday arranging for her daughter to enter college.

Timothy Brownhill was down from McMinnville Wednesday working in the interest of the county school fair.

Mr. and Mrs. John Swetman, who were recently married, will be located in their own home on River street in a few days.

M. F. Steward returned from the Klamath Falls country the first of the week where he went some time ago to look at the country.

As we go to press the guests are gathering to attend the wedding of Miss Lelia Littlefield and Clarence A. Eldridge, which is to be solemnized at the home of the bride at high noon.

Cement walks have been laid all around the J. K. Blair block and the German Methodists have a stone foundation in for their new church on the corner diagonally across from the Friends church.

The Misses Mary and Verda Butt, who have been visiting in town for several weeks with their brother Clarence Butt, will start for their home in Pennsylvania on Friday going by way of San Francisco.

Sam Atkinson is installing an electric light plant at their dairy and fine stock ranch north of town, the motive power to be supplied by a gravity water system fed by springs on the farm. Besides lighting the house and dairy barn the Chehalem Center Friends church, located near by, is also to be furnished with lights.

T. B. Henderson who died at his home at Amity recently was one of the pioneers of Yamhill county who crossed the plains when a young man, driving an ox team. Several years ago he filled the position of county assessor in a creditable manner and he ranked as one of the substantial citizens of the county, always being held in high esteem by all who knew him.

Owners of prune evaporators are beginning to bestir themselves in anticipation of the crop that must be taken care of in the next few weeks. In the valley the crop is quite spotted, being better in some orchards than in others. The yield is reported to be better on the hills. The ruling prices for Italian prunes is from $16 to $20 per ton, green. A higher figure has been quoted in some instances.

M. L. Thorne, who sold his twenty acre home northwest of town to a North Dakota man named Thomas Patterson, left here a few days ago for the Big Horn country in Wyoming. He chartered a car which he loaded with his personal effects, including a young Clydesdale stallion and two young Clydesdale mares which he purchased of J. D. Gordon & Son, of Dundee, the prices paid being $500 each.

Cy Vaughan and wife have been down from Hood River during the past two weeks visiting with relatives about Newberg and in other parts of the county. Cy was on the ground here long before the name of Newberg was mentioned and he is not a very old man either. This is his first visit here in five years and he finds many changes made during this interval. He is engaged in strawberry culture at Hood River and is prospering in the business.

Kirk-Miles Wedding.

The little Chehalem Center Friends church was a bower of beauty Tuesday afternoon, where the wedding of Walter R. Miles and Elizabeth Kirk occurred. At four o'clock the bridal party entered to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march played by Miss Agnes Richmond.

Newton Kirk and wife, Thomas Miles and wife, parents respectively of the bride and groom, led the way, retiring to their pews on either side of the aisle, while Pres. W. Irving Kelsey, the officiating minister, passed on to the altar followed by the groom with Calvin Blair as best man, Nellie Paulsen bridesmaid and lastly the bride.

One impressive feature of the service was the use of the Friends ceremony.

The bride was beautiful in white chiffon cloth over taffeta and carried white astors secured by a bow of tulle, while the bridesmaid was becomingly gowned in white mull over pink carrying pink asters.

William Miles, brother of the groom and Marvin Blair acted as ushers.

At the close of the service the relatives and immediate friends retired to the Kirk home where the wedding dinner was served.

Mrs. Miles is a young lady of Christian character and will leave a place hard to fill in her home and the church. She has been engaged in teaching in the Newberg Public Schools since graduating from Pacific College in 1904.

Mr. Miles, of the class of 1906, Pacific College, is well known, not only in Oregon but all over the country as a young man of ability and worth. While in Pacific College he won the State Oratorical contest, the Prohibition Inter-State contest and finally the National held in Indianapolis, Indiana. He was graduated from Earlham College, Richmond, Indiana, last spring, having won for that school first place in the Indiana state oratorical contest in February.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles left Wednesday afternoon for Oskaloosa, Iowa, where he has a position as instructor in Penn College. In their going Newberg loses a useful couple and the best wishes of a host of friends follow them to their new home.

Those present from a distance were Prof. R. W. Kirk and family, Independence; Miss Pearl Durst, Portland; Miss Freda Gist, North Yamhill; Miss Verda Crozer, Rosedale; Calvin Blair, McMinnville; Marvin Blair, Portland. The guests from Newberg included Mrs. Mary White, Mr. and Mrs. Kentner, Pres. Kelsey and wife, Milo Elliott and wife, F. A. Elliott and wife, Rev. Jas. Price and wife, J. H. Douglas and wife, E. H. Woodward and wife, J. Carl Nelson and wife, Mrs. Jesse Edwards, Mrs. E. A. Newby, Perry Macy, Curtis Parker and the Misses Lenora Parker, Myrtle Gause, Olive Stratton, Ruth Romig, Ione Hill, Agnes Richmond, Miriam Kelsey and Sibyl and Bernice Woodward. A number of the Chehalem Center neighbors and friends were also in attendance.

County Commissioners Booth and Cummins were in town a couple of days the first of the week looking after work on the public roads.

President Kelsey says he is getting many inquiries from prospective students and the prospect is good for an increased attendance at the college the coming year. Parties having rooms to rent to students should confer with him.

Plans have been matured for building a Catholic church in Newberg, the location selected being on Main street just north of the Free Methodist church. The building is to be constructed of hollow concrete blocks and will be 30x50 feet. It is expected that work will be begun on the building at an early day.
