Happily Wedded.

On Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. one of Newberg's most popular young couples were united in marriage, Miss Bertha Namitz to Mr. Everett Heacock, Rev. Hamilton of the M. E. church officiating. The ceremony was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Namitz. After the marriage vows were taken a sumptuous dinner was spread in which every one present took active part. From the well prepared table one could readily perceive that Mr. Heacock had made no mistake in getting a good cook.

Those present besides the bride and groom were Rev. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Namitz, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Heacock, Miss Erma Heacock, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Heacock, Neal Heacock, Earl and Harry Namitz, Mrs. Mary Morris, Miss Lulu Carey and Ernest Stone.

Mrs. Browning took a photograph of the bridal group.

Although the bride has resided in our city during the short period of two years she has many friends among the old as well as the young people of Newberg.

The groom is better known to most of us, being a resident of the city for the past twenty years and since completing his education in "Old P. C." has been in active business relation with the public being connected with the sash and door factory until its destruction by fire July 6 of this year. Since that time he has been employed as one of the Spaulding Logging Co's. head men in the office.

Besides the new cottage Mr. Heacock lately completed in West Newberg, he has purchased a pretty little residence on Third and Meridian streets which they expect to make their home.

The bride and groom took a livery team to Rex to board the north bound there thus avoiding the shower at the train. To their surprise a happy crowd of eleven young people from Newberg were on the train to greet them with rice and jokes at Rex. The young folks continued their fun to Sherwood. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Heacock will spend a week with the groom's brother, the leading jeweler of LaGrande Or. After the short visit they will return to Newberg where they will take up the problems of married life.

The people of Newberg extend their best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Heacock for a happy and prosperous future.

All of the Red Hill people are engaged in preparing for the coming prune harvest.

The Royal Anne cherries are still on some of the trees and they are delicious so late in the season.

The neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Raker all rode over to spend last Saturday evening with them. The day happened to be Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Greer's first anniversary so the crowd took occasion to remind them of it by marching around them making a big noise with all noisy things that could be found. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. After an enjoyable evening the guests reluctantly bade farewell and drove off in the moonlight. The guests were: Mrs. E. Bailey, Messrs. and Mesdames Williams, R. Robinson, Elwin Greer, R. Bailey, William Hill, Elwin A. McCornack, Misses Ethelyn Adams and Elsie Alb, Dr. Waldo J. Adams, Arthur Geary and William Wilson.
