

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC.

Pacific College Secures New Instructors—Mrs. Eva Hummer Hull—Mr. Alexander Hull.

The music lovers of Newberg will be glad to know that two new instructors have been secured for the department of music for Pacific College for the coming year and that they are already on the ground.

Mrs. Eva Hummer Hull and her son, Alexander Hull, of Columbus, Ohio, desiring to make a change in climate, came to the coast a short time ago and have been stopping in Tacoma. Hearing of the vacancy in the music department of the college they came to investigate and were so well pleased with the outlook that they have taken the work and are already planning to make their department one of the most popular in the institution.

Mrs. Hull, who will teach instrumental music, piano and violin, has studied with some of the best masters in Cincinnati and other eastern cities. At one time she was at the head of the string department of Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, where she taught piano. Later she removed to Columbus where she was for years prominent as organist in succession of all the churches and as a concert artist and private teacher. For the past seven years she has been director of the music department of Muskingum College, New Concord, Ohio. In addition to her duties as teacher she was director of the chorus, the orchestra and the string quartet.

Alexander Hull teaches voice, cello, harmony, counterpoint, composition and orchestration. He is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and has also been a pupil of Turpin of Columbus and later of J. Henry Kowalski, a Pole who has been teaching with phenomenal success in Philadelphia and New York.

A Zanesville, Ohio paper in commenting on a musical recital given by Mr. Hull in that city when he opened a school of music said:

"The entire program for the evening consisted of classic selections, and Mr. Hull's interpretation of them was faultless. His sweet and cultured baritone voice was the marvel of all present, and hearty was the applause that greeted the singer after the rendering of each number. In fact throughout the entire program the selections were of such a character that Zanesville musical talent never enjoyed a richer feast of classic music than that which was presented on this occasion.

"Fortunately for Mr. Hull and to the delight of the audience, he was accompanied on the piano by his mother, Mrs. Eva Hummer Hull, director of the department of music in Muskingum college. Mrs. Hull is an artist on the piano, and her accompaniment in the difficult selections that were rendered was perfect."

It is evident that the young people of Newberg will have an opportunity to get the best instruction in music, both instrumental and vocal, during the coming year without being compelled to go away from home and Pacific College is fortunate in being able to offer such inducements to music lovers.

CHAMBERLAIN SCORED.

Rainier Woman Criticizes Governor's Behavior.

RAINIER, OR., Sept. 3.—(To the Editor of the Oregonian.)—I want to say a few words that I would like very much to see in print—although I hardly expect to. At any rate I will try to see if a newspaper will print a little truth.

I was down to the annual regatta at Astoria last week, and had what I thought at that time the "honor" to meet Oregon's Governor. Later when I was on the train ready to leave, I was very much concerned to see our Governor being led to the train by two prominent men. At first I thought he was sick or injured, but when I expressed my views, people laughed at my innocence and told me he was in a very bad state of intoxication. I was horrified and looked closer and found out it was the truth. He shambled!—our Governor shambled! His hat was pulled down over his face and he was in a perfect stupor! And the two prominent men that led him—one held each arm as reverently as though it were something holy.

Oh! how can they, how can they elect a man of such standing to govern us! It only shows that, as the majority elects—not a man surely—a being like that to govern them, that they are well satisfied and willing and no better themselves. Elect a man like this and even want him in the United States Senate! Picture "Our George" shambling into the Senate after a "spree." I can't stand to think of it, that he should represent us.

I feel sure that if women held the right to vote in Oregon, that they would feel too much repugnance to cast a vote for such a person. I spoke to a well known man about it. He said he liked Governor Chamberlain. When I told him what I had seen, he said: "Yes, he does those things." Those things!

To the People of Yamhill.

Now that the blank cartridge fired at the county fruit inspector has "gone out," I propose to say a word. I shall not write in my own defense for I do not need any. But lest there be some misapprehension of the actions of officials and of the reputable business interests who support me I shall point by plain words to a few lines that have been circulated recently.

I am told there have been many misrepresentations made by the "odds and ends" who have circulated petitions and it these willful perversions of fact be not contradicted a few citizens might possibly misconstrue my silence and imagine there was some truth in the stories.

It is said that one of the chief criticisms of my work was that I cut down an orchard belonging to a poor widow who was so poor and infirm she has to be supported by the county. A lie pure and simple. The orchard referred to belonged to the Lebold heirs of McMinnville. Furthermore, it might be well for the misrepresenting petitioners to explain why the owner of an orchard—widow or otherwise—should be supported by the county. It is also reported, I am told, that my work has been a great and unnecessary expense to the county. Another lie pure and simple. I have made no charge and rendered no bill to the county for inspection work nor has there been a dime paid me for the same. It is also reported, I am told, that great sums are or have been charged up to the county for work in cutting down trees. Another lie. Not one dime has been charged to the county during my term of office. But under no administration can the county lose a dime by the cutting down of diseased trees for the cost of this work becomes a lien on the property of the owner of the orchard and is a charge upon him. During my term of office not only has no charge been made to the county for such work, but there has not been one dime charged to the owner of any tree cut down.

It is said, I am told, that I am cutting down trees right and left as my fancy or prejudice may dictate, without any regard for the interests of the owners of such trees. Another lie. These owners are my neighbors. It is not my wish nor is it to my interest to injure them. My mission is to build up, not to destroy. In no case can I go into a man's orchard and tell him to cut down a tree because there is something wrong with it. I must tell him of the disease or pest present and advise a method of treatment. If he refuses to treat such diseased trees the law directs me to destroy them. But I do not wish to destroy and my course is to advise methods that will save trees. It is my ambition to see all the old apple orchards of our county so renovated that they will not only be of value and profit to their owners, but will not be sources of contagion for their neighbors. I do not want a single old apple tree destroyed, if it can be kept vigorous. I have abundant living proof that my suggestions for treatment of these trees will succeed and am ready to show it.

All this bluster has arisen because I cut down twelve trees belonging to people who neglected my orders and those of the previous inspector. All other orchards being renovated are being treated voluntarily by the owners and without hardships to them. I am not issuing new notifications at this season (with one exception) and do not propose to do so until trees are dormant when they may be treated without injury. So much for the "protection of our homes" and the "saving of our orchards" so loudly proclaimed by petitioners. Lastly I will treat the orchards of petitioners (it by chance some should be owners) just as I would those of my supporters. I know not friend nor enemy in my work, so no matter what has been said or done I shall in no case act revengefully. I hope I am not so small as that.

RESOLUTIONS.

Trusting in the loving care and protection of our Heavenly Father, His help and guidance, and earnestly endeavoring to follow where he leads

BE IT RESOLVED, That we hold fast to our past principles of total abstinence for the individual and prohibition for our state and nation.

That we rejoice and praise God for the multiplied victories of the year in prohibition and that we will stand firm for the enforcement of law in our communities.

That we spend more time and money in our department work. Believing that the head of our great temperance body is represented by the departments in the local unions and that the National and State W. C. T. U. can strengthen the whole body by giving more freely the literature to be distributed.

We would recommend a greater activity toward social gatherings, inviting those not members.

We believe there should be a greater effort by individual members to donate to the needs of the work by systematic giving and not depend too much on others to fill up the Lord's treasury.

That we make a greater effort to have medal contests as this is one method of educating public sentiment, making our slogan Contests, Contests, Contests.

That we tender our heartfelt thanks to Mrs. Hidden for her efficient help; the pastors, the churches and all the friends for entertainment and all who helped to make this one of the most spiritual, harmonious and uplifting convention in the history of Yamhill County.
