ated by Mr. Keating, where they are already located.Deputy Dairy and Food Commissioner Paul V. Maris visited the Alderman dairy at Dayton the first of the week and on Tuesday he spent the day at the Atkinson dairy ranch north of town. The latter he considers one of the best dairy and stock farms in the state.W. R. Oliver, recently from Portland, has bought the A. B.
Lyon property located on Meridian street adjoining the Sims greenhouse grounds on the north, consisting of house and ten lots, and has taken possession of same.
He will go into business of some kind in Newberg.J. S. B. McNay arrived home from Kansas a few days ago where he went to visit about his former haunts, looking rather lantern jawed, giving his friends the impression on first sight that he had been fed on pretty thin gruel during his sojourn in the sunflower state. He says he was sick while away, however, and called a doctor for the first time in his life. He reports a very satisfactory visit but is still loyal to Oregon.A number of the young friends of Miss Lulu Carey gave a pleasant social in her honor at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. F.
Butler, on last Saturday evening on account of her expected departure for Maustin, Wisconsin, on Wednesday evening of this week where she goes to join her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P.

Mrs. Miller is an artist in her line and will cater to the tastes of the ladies of Newberg by carrying a line of the latest creations at prices that will sell the goods.Sherman Seeley has resigned his position as assistant cashier in the first National Bank to take effect the first of next month and will take up rural pursuits on the home farm at Wilsonville. This change will not be regretted alone by a bevy of admiring maidens about town for we all are loth to see him go. His place is to be filled by R. W. Swink, of Dundee, who has held the principalship of the Springbrook school for the past two years.Vera and Gwendolen Stannard entertained a number of their friends at their home on Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Elizabeth Williams of Jamestown S. D. and Miss Louise Leatherman of Albany. Light refreshments were served and a good time was had by the young ladies. Those present were La-dolen and Helen Stannard.Rev. A. J. Weaver with his wife and nine year old son arrived here last week from Glens Falls, New York, and at once assumed his duties as pastor of the Friends church. On Sunday, both at the morning and evening services he preached helpful sermons and many expressions of appreciation have been heard, both from the membership of the church and from others. This, Thursday, evening a public reception will be tendered the new pastor and his family at the church.A Real BoyThat is a big boy that's full of "ginger" and "go" ought to have the best kind of shoes. No other kind will stand his
