Local Events.

Thomas Prince who was down from Dundee Wednesday says his walnut trees are making a fine growth this season and he thinks he will have double the crop of last season.

Prof. B. K. Cook, principal of the Woodburn public schools, has bought a ten-acre tract of his uncle, Rev. J. D. Cook, located on the West Chehalem road a mile northwest of town, which he proposes to set to walnut trees.

Bailey Wickersham and family, from Western Springs, a suburb of Chicago, arrived in town on Wednesday morning and will probably remain for some time. He has held the important position of secretary of the Chicago public library for a long term of years and is now out taking a needed rest from the confinement which has impaired his health to some extent. He is an intimate friend of President Kelsey. For the present they are stopping at the Imperial.

Missouri Girl.

A plain story of a plain people plainly told is the real heart of literature and a play founded upon such a subject must, of necessity, contain the heart interest that is the desideratum of the playwright.

Fred Raymond has embodied in his beautiful home story of the MISSOURI GIRL that essential element, and an evening spent at the theatre witnessing this play is as beneficial as it is entertaining. It is a true story of the simple people who inhabit that region of Missouri where the Ozark mountains rear their wooded heads. It is most naturally told and each act of the play is generously equipped with all the special scenery that can be utilized. This play will be seen at Duncans Opera House Saturday eve, Sept. 19.

When hauling loads to market, don't leave the stone in the road with which you block the wheel. Throw it aside.

Littlefield-Eldridge Wedding.

Under the spreading branches of the locust and maple trees that surround the home of Mrs. Maggie L. Littlefield a wedding of rare beauty was solemnized on Thursday, September 3rd, when Miss Lelia Anna Littlefield and Mr. Clarence Albert Eldridge were joined together in holy wedlock.

The lawn was surrounded with evergreen and tastefully decorated with autumn leaves, ferns and white asters, and presented a most beautiful scene.

As the sun reached the zenith Miss Hazel Littlefield sweetly sang "O Promise Me", which was followed by the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin", beautifully rendered by Miss Lota Fleury, announcing the arrival of the bridal party.

The bride was charming in an exquisite gown, cut princess, of white Jusi over silk with rich lace trimmings—a gift from her uncle Dr. Harry Littlefield, brought from the Philippine Islands—Her veil was held in place with orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of Bride buds. Miss Anna V. Rogers, maid of honor, was becomingly attired in pink silk Crepe-de-chene, and carried a bouquet of shell pink sweet peas. Miss Eva Fletcher and Miss Nadine Bryan, as bridesmaids, were charming in blue silk and carried bouquets of sweet peas. The groom was attended by Mr. Cloan Perkins of North Yamhill, a classmate in the North Pacific Dental College.

The impressive ring ceremony was performed by Rev. F. C. Stannard.

Miss Irene Gearin caught the bride's bouquet. Many handsome and useful presents were received. A sumptuous dinner was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge, amid congratulations and showers of rice, left on the evening train for their new home, 1051 East Harrison street, Portland, and will be at home to their friends after October 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge are well and favorably known in Newberg and have a host of warm friends who unite in heartiest best wishes for their happiness and prosperity. The bride is the eldest daughter of the late Dr. Horace Littlefield and has grown from childhood in this city. She is a young woman of attractive-manners and refined culture. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Eldridge of Marion County, a former student in Pacific College, and will finish his course in the Portland Dental College this year. He is a young man of good habits and high endowments and has before him a promising career.

Those present from a distance were Mrs. E. A. Breyman, Miss Gretchen Breyman, Mrs. A. M. Brown, Miss Sibyl Brown, Miss Rosa Littlefield, Portland; Judge E. V. Littlefield and wife, Moro; R. C. Bradshaw, The Dalles; Cloan N. Perkins, North Yamhill; Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Fletcher, Miss Eva Fletcher, John Epping, LaFayette; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Eldridge, Champoeg; Mr. John Gearin, Miss Irene Gearin, St. Paul; Mrs. Lucetta Meeks, Tualatin. The guests from Newberg included Hon. J. C. Nelson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Calkins, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. John Larkin, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Abernethy, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Brouillette, Rev. and Mrs. F. C. Stannard, Mrs. Chas. Crabtree, Dr. Romig, Cloan Perkins, Stanley Harrold, Wm. McDonald, J. H. Mills, Sherman Seeley, Howard Harrold, Carl Bartlett, and the Misses Anna Rogers, Nadine Bryan, Katherine and Ruth Romig, Ellen Brewer, Lota Fleury, Pearl Cobb, Vera and Gwendolen Stannard, Ella Nelson and Carrie Brouillette.
