Parade at School Fair.

Every effort is being made to make the School Parade one of the very best features of the Fair. There will undoubtedly be 1200 pupils in line of march, and it will be a grand sight to see them marching down the street singing and waving their flags. To every boy and girl who marches in this parade, a ticket will be given entitling holder to a free Automobile Ride on the third day of the Fair. Teachers are earnestly requested to attend and march with their respective schools, as they will be of material assistance in the organization of the parade. I should also like to see every school officer in line of march. Do not think you are too busy, come and lend a helping hand.
 H. H. BELT.

A Feast of Weeks.

At the Church of the Brethren Newberg, Oregon, beginning September 20, 1908, and continuing night after night for weeks.
 Exposition and illustration on the Key to the Bible, deep, profound true; Creation; Time and Eternity; Opening of the Seven Seals, or Revelation Revealed; The First Resurrection; Second Coming of Christ; The Millennium Reign, The Second Resurrection; Final Judgment; Final Restitution; Year of Jubilee; Foreordination; Predestination; Election; Free Grace; Work and Office of the Holy Spirit.

A feast of good things from science, nature and revelation. All free to come.

ELDER J. S. SECRIST,
 Olympia, Wash.

Christian Tabernacle.

Beginning October 4, Evangelist L. F. Stephens and wife, late of New Zealand but now Oregon's state evangelist for the Christian Church, will conduct revival services at the Christian tabernacle, corner Howard street and Dayton avenue. Mr. Stephens always interests and instructs his audiences and Mrs. Stephens charms her hearers with her sweet solos and gospel songs. The public is cordially invited to attend.

GEO. C. RITCHEY, Pastor.

Millinery Opening.

Mrs. Laura E. Miller has returned from Portland with a big stock of millinery of the very latest creations which she invites the ladies of Newberg to examine at her grand opening on Friday and Saturday September 18-19. Remember the place—the Mrs. Horton building on First street opposite Bank of Newberg.

"Sunny"—Empress of Russia.

"The most beautiful queen on any throne" she has long been called." Kellogg Durland thus begins his marvelous life story of the Tsaritsa of Russia in the September Woman's Home Companion. "She is tall and stately; her hair is luxuriant and rich in color. Eyes that some call blue and some call gray look out through long, dark lashes, and in them lies a great sadness, an appealing wistfulness touched with regret, a silent melancholy. Yet as a child she was known as 'Sunny.'"

"The life story of 'Sunny' has never been told in English. This is curious because there probably is not a person in the world who would not like to hear the wonderful romance of how a poor little German princess became a great sovereign, the co-ruler of one of the vastest empires on earth, the mistress of a fabulously rich and bewilderingly extravagant court, and perhaps the most powerful woman in Europe. 'Sunny' was the childhood nickname of this poor little princess, and after a quiet girlhood, where there was a constant struggle to maintain appearances, she was courted by a wayward galian who was heir to a mighty crown. 'Sunny' lost her heart to the royal wooer, and he, putting aside the less noble loves of his reckless, youthful days, pledged himself to her—persistently courted her against wide opposition—turned a deaf ear to the counsels of emperors and queens who tried to discourage the match, and after years of battling with diplomatic intrigue and personal restraint he carried his purpose, married the German princess who was truly the bride of his heart, and raised her from the obscurity and poverty of her own home to the rank of empress. This is the story of Princess Alix of Hesse whom Nicholas II made Tsaritsa of Russia."

Willie—And so you quarreled?
 Charlie—Yes; she sent back all presents. And what do you suppose I did?
 Willie—Can't guess.
 Charlie—I sent her a half dozen boxes of face powder, with a note explaining that I'd taken about that much home on my coat since I'd known her.—The Gossip.

Willie—How would you like to have a pet monkey?
 Carrie—Oh, this is so sudden!

A young society woman likes to get on to a new wrinkle, while the older ones endeavor to get rid of it.

A good deal is written about the June bride, but the young man who marries in September, if he is the right sort, will never have occasion to regret it.

An Insidious Danger.

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy at the first sign of trouble as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. For sale by C. F. Moore.

Administrator's Notice of Final Settlement.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned administrator of the estate of John K. Blair, deceased, has filed his final account as administrator of said estate in the County Court of Yamhill County, Oregon, and that said Court has appointed Monday, September 21, 1908, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., as the day and hour for the hearing of objections to said final account and the settlement thereof. Now, therefore, all persons interested in said estate are hereby notified and required to appear at the County Court rooms at McMinnville, said County and State at said time to then and there show cause, if any there be, why said account should not be settled, allowed, and approved, and said administrator discharged, and said estate forever and finally settled. Dated August 19, 1908.
 ALPHEUS T. BLAIR,
 Administrator of the estate of John K. Blair, deceased.
