Mrs. Otis Welch and children visited with relatives at Independence last week.

Jo Cook was up from Portland Sunday visiting with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Martin Cook.

Walter Spaulding left here on Wednesday for Ann Arbor to resume his studies in the University of Michigan for the year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Foster, the parents of Mrs. J. L. VanBlaricom, who were on their way from their home at Jewell to Corvallis, stopped over here last week for a visit.

The Drs. Bowers have purchased the Marshall Streeter ten acre tract located a mile north of town which is well set to fruit and berries of different varieties. They expect to partially furnish the house and have homes both in the country and in town.

Wm. Stratton and son Roy, L. B. Charles and family and Mrs. Alice Noel started on the overland trip to Fort Rock, Lake County, on Tuesday morning to establish themselves on claims which they filed on last spring. They went by way of Lebanon.

Reuben Pettyjohn and wife who went to Long Beach, Washington to spend the summer on account of his health which was not good are expected to return soon. He regained his power of speech which left him for a time but recently he has been partially paralyzed but is reported to be improving under the treatment of a Portland physician. They are at present stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wrage in the city.

Miss Pearl Cummings, who with her mother recently went to Indiana on an extended visit, writes home that they are being fed on fried chicken eight days in the week, with all the "fixins" added, and that they are going to keep up this gait as long as the invitations hold out. They expect to invade the Buckeye domain and we shall not be surprised to hear of their holding an interview with Taft before the campaign closes.

J. L. Davis, who was down from Hood River the first of the week shaking hands with his old time friends about town, was free to express the belief that Newberg was skinning all the other towns in the race and of course we all agreed with him. George Christenson has bought a part of the Davis ranch up the valley, while the two sons Harry and Dr. A. M. take the remainder. J. L. is barred from living on the farm on account of asthma, hence the sale.

J. A. Sellwood, of Salem, who owns a ranch down the river opposite the ancient village of Champeog, and who is a democrat of the Bryan school, was here Tuesday expressing admiration at the progress shown in the liveliest town in the Willamette Valley. The scribe found him gazing at the windows up and down First street and inquiring for Bryan pictures, of which he saw none, the little discrepancy being explained by giving him the information that said pictures had not yet arrived. Whereupon he boldly asserted that Bryan would carry Oregon, citing as evidence the fact that the Parker democrats as well as many republicans about Salem were supporting him. Faith in his ability to properly diagnose the case was materially weakened when he further stated that he had been informed that Chafin would poll more votes in Newberg than either of the other candidates, but it was really refreshing to meet a man who displayed a spark of the old time zeal that has made previous campaigns interesting.

Wm. Clemmens went to McMinnville on road business Tuesday and took a little time to get a birdseye view of the fair.

Mrs. J. B. Parker, who had been up from Portland picking hops, was in town Monday calling on some of her Newberg friends.

Frank Deach, who has a position in the McMinnville public schools for the coming year removed with his family to the county seat Monday.

Prof. W. J. Reagan, the new English professor for the college, arrived here with his wife from Illinois a few days ago and have taken rooms at the dormitory.

Prof. Wallace Newlin, Riley Kaufman and Clyde Carey came home last week from their trip into Washington with Harvey D. Crumly on his government surveying expedition.

The Misses Gregory, milliners, failed to get an announcement of their fall opening in the Graphic last week which they very much regretted, but they have a very fine selection of the latest styles which they will be pleased to show the ladies at any time.

Miss Esther Andrews, who has been spending the vacation season at her home in Whittier, California, is expected to arrive here this week in readiness to again take up her work as a member of the faculty of Pacific College at the opening next week.

In a letter written to D. R. Jackson, W. H. Brown, who recently went from here to Uby, Michigan, to take charge of a farm he had traded for, says he got a pretty place but not worth the price put on it by the other fellow as it is badly run down and will require a good deal of nursing to bring it back to fertility again.

A. T. Blair, his son Marvin and Charley Cavit, of Middleton, shipped by the wagon route on Saturday of last week for Lake County, going by way of the Santiam and the Bend country. They will do a little hunting on the side, take a look at the big undeveloped section of Oregon and come back pretty well satisfied with the Willamette Valley. This is an easy guess.

Announcement is made of a musical recital to be given at the Friends church on Friday evening of this week, beginning promptly at eight o'clock, by the music department of Pacific College. No charge will be made for admission. The music instructors are just beginning their work in Newberg and in order to familiarize themselves with the music loving people of the community this public recital will be given. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend.

Word has been received here of the death of the Eskimo girl who was here in July in attendance at the Yearly Meeting of Friends Church with her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dana Thomas, of Huntington Park, California. The girl was about 18 years of age and was taken into the Thomas family during the time they were engaged in missionary work in Alaska and was being educated by them for missionary work among her people. Death came when in the act of boarding a car in Los Angeles, from heart failure.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McKillop, who have been in town for several weeks visiting with Mrs. McKillop's father, J. F. Taylor, left here on Thursday for San Francisco where they expect to take passage on a government transport for the Philippines where they will take up teaching in the schools again for a term of three years. In response to the call by the government for teachers they entered the service soon after their marriage three years ago, and this will be their second trip to the islands after having a summer's vacation. On the transport they will not be charged for passage but will pay a dollar per day for board and will be on the way a little more than thirty days.

Earl Kenworthy was up from Portland Sunday.

Dr. John S. Rankin has purchased the black driving horse, buggy and harness of Jesse Edwards.

Howard Harrold returned to Eugene the first of the week to resume his studies in the university.

H. L. Lloyd and family are here from Seattle visiting with Mrs. Lloyd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Moffitt.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barrett, of Peoria Illinois, are here visiting with Clarence Butt's. Mr. Barrett is an uncle of Mrs. Butt.

Mrs. M. H. David and children are up from Grants Pass visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heater, at Springbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Robertson went to Dayton Prairie Wednesday to attend the wedding of a son of Sanford Goodrich to Miss Dorsey.

Mr. Frank Sheely and Miss Helen Hopkins were married at the home of John T. Haworth on September 23rd, by Rev. T. Brouillette.

M. Motschenbacher and family who have been on the farm across the river during the summer and fall have returned to their home on Fifth street.

People who have been wanting their potatoes to ripen up for the fall digging can rest easy on that score, since the white frost of Wednesday night fixed the tops for the ripening process.

Mrs. J. M. Stone who was severely injured in an accident with a team near Lebanon several weeks ago was brought home Wednesday on the train. She is much improved but is still confined to a couch.

The School Fair is on at McMinnville this week and is being well attended by people from Newberg. The attendance is reported to be good and the fair is voted a success. The G. A. R. Vets went from here on Wednesday, as well as many others.

Mrs. Hannon who had charge of the college boarding hall last year has arrived here from her home at Goldendale, Washington and has assumed charge of the hall again for the coming year. She gave excellent satisfaction last year and the students will be pleased to learn that she has returned.

Pacific College will open Monday the 28th for the matriculation of students. Classes will begin Wednesday, after the informal opening at 9:30 a.m. The formal opening will take place Friday evening, October 2, at 8 p. m., to which the public is cordially invited. Programme of the latter will be announced next week.

J. F. Péttingill, who recently bought the Higgins & Bixby store building on First street, has, by the liberal use of the paint brush, made the building look as good as new and the first of the week he opened out with a complete line of crockery and glassware. The interior of the room has been overhauled and fitted up in a very attractive manner and it will do you good to drop in and see how nicely he is fixed. His stock has been carefully selected and he ought to receive a liberal patronage.

A very unusual occurrence for Newberg was the appearance of a drunken woman in the Justice court Tuesday evening. The woman who had a little girl of about four years with her came into town in a spring wagon with a team of scrub horses driven by what appeared to be a scrub man. Both had been drinking heavily and the woman told to Justice Brouillette a rambling story about going to sleep in the wagon and when she awakened found her money gone. She accused the driver in very forcible language of taking the money and wanted redress. The fellow was searched and also the wagon but the money was not found. They were a hard lot and the court decided that the best course to pursue was to pass them on which he did.
