Local Events.

Harvey D. Crumly went to Salem last Saturday.

Will Wights are moving into their new home on Blaine street this week.

Nathan and Lizzie White are arranging to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on the third of November.

The Misses Ione Hill and Sibyl and Bernice Woodward went to Eugene last Friday where they spent a few days visiting with relatives.

The J. A. Jones cottage located in the "Smithville" section of town north of the Baptist church is nearing completion and will soon be ready for occupancy.

A. L. Bergren, who has been in poor health for some time, will go to Spokane with a brother who is here visiting him, where he will remain during the winter.

Adrian Bowman was up from Middleton Tuesday evening making arrangements to build a house to rent on his lot on First street below the creamery building.

Dr. J. B. Moore was up from Lents last Sunday visiting with his brothers, A. E. and C. F. Moore. He expects to return to Merced, California, where his family is located.

A. E. Bowman left samples of his King and Spitzenberg apples at this office Tuesday which are beauties. He has followed a thorough course of spraying and his apple crop shows the beneficial effects of it.

O. K. Edwards reports the accidental death of one of their men at the brick plant at Willamina which occurred one day last week. The man was standing on a bank at the clay pit when he leaned back against a board which broke, letting him fall headlong backwards several feet, landing on his head and breaking his neck. He was a blacksmith by trade and unmarried.

H. L. Halterman, one of the Main street barbers, was taken to McMinnville last Monday by Constable Woods, charged with running a shop without a license. In the Justice Court he first plead guilty but changed his plea to not guilty, claiming that he only accepted for his work such amounts as his customers were willing to pay. Trial was set for Tuesday of next week.

Herbert Willard who was mentioned last week as having arrived here from Idaho with a car of stock and other effects for farming, announces in our want columns an offer to sell some of his Poland China hogs. He has been breeding for the best for several years and has taken premiums at the Iowa State Fair as well as at many other big fairs in the Mississippi valley, and it will pay anyone who has a fancy for good stock to see his hogs whether they desire to purchase or not. He is located on the Hans Christenson farm up the valley.

The Newberg Gravel Co. composed of Estle, Whitaker and Wright, made a sale of the outfit, consisting of steamboat, barges and complete plant for handling gravel on the river, to Linton, Chase & Forsyth last week. The company has had many troubles, including contentions among the operating members during the season, and while a large amount of gravel has been handled at good prices the balance sheet does not show up as it should in closing out. Such a plant is a splendid thing for Newberg for without it a gravel famine would have prevailed here this season and concrete work would have been tied up. It is to be hoped that the new company will find it a paying proposition.

Don't forget the free library benefit Friday night.

Mrs. J. T. Rorabaugh is spending a few weeks with her daughter in Portland.

A family named Klock who came from Dayton have bought property in Hobsons Addition.

Mrs. C. A. Dixon left Friday morning for Vancouver, Washington, for a visit with her daughter.

Rev. Isom P. Wooton and wife left here for Kent, Washington, this, Thursday, morning where they will spend the winter.

L. A. Comer, who has been located at Topeka, Kansas, for the past four years, arrived here on Monday evening and is visiting with his father, Silas Comer, and his brother, M. J. Comer.

W. P. Pleasant has not been around to report as he should have done and consequently we can only say that he is said to have recently arrived home from a trip to East Tennessee where he married a wife. A pleasant time anyway.

Mrs. Helen D. Harford, who spent the spring and summer touring Canada in the lecture field for the W. C. T. U., is at home again and says she is delighted to again be back under the dominion of the stars and stripes, although she enjoyed her work over the border.

Oliver Hanson who came here last spring from Minnesota and bought a farm on Chehalem mountain and then returned to Minnesota for the season is back again. He arrived last week with a car of household goods, farming implements, cows and horses and is prepared for business. His family arrived about the same time.

F. A. Morris was given a surprise party on Friday evening of last week by Mrs. Morris in honor of his birthday anniversary which occurred on that date. In addition to the usual social features of such an evening's entertainment, recitations were given by Mrs. Kelsey, Mrs. Reagan and Mrs. Morris and light refreshments were served. Those in attendance were Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Weaver, Dr. Romig, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hodson, Pres. and Mrs. W. I. Kelsey, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edwards, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Harrold and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Colcord, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Butt, Prof. and Mrs. W. J. Reagan, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, the Misses Margaret Inglis and Esther Andrews, Prof. Wallace A. Newlin, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Woodward.

New Pastor Given Welcome.

A very pleasant social hour was spent at the M. E. church on Friday evening of last week, when the membership along with representatives from a number of the other churches in town gathered, by invitation of the Ladies Aid Society of the church, to extend greeting to the new pastor and his family.

Music for the occasion was furnished by the Misses Blanche McNay and Katherine Romig and Charles E. Fuller, all of whom gave vocal solos.

Rev. J. C. Gregory gave the opening address of the evening, when he extended a welcome to the new pastor on behalf of the Sunday School, others following. I. E. Holt spoke for the Epworth League, Clarence Butt for the trustees, Everett White for the stewards, Mrs. A. T. McNay for the Ladies Aid, while F. C. Stannard, pastor of the Baptist Church, extended greetings on behalf of the Ministerial Association. Rev. F. L. Young, the new pastor, responded in a short talk in which he thanked all for the part they had taken in the effort to make the coming of himself and his family into a new field and among strangers pleasant.

At the close of the formal exercises the large audience retired to the basement of the church where light refreshments were served.

Chehalem Center.

Rev. Mills, the pastor, announces that there will be protracted meetings at the church. Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Harford and Mr. and Mrs. Alden Chamberlain and daughter made a visit to their old home, Glen Hazel, Sunday.

The W. C. T. U. ladies will meet at the home of Mrs. Cyrene Palmer Wednesday of this week.

Last Saturday evening a number of the young folks gathered at the home of Enos Ellis upon invitation to a social in honor of his nieces, the Misses Ellis and Davis. Everyone had a good time. Chocolate and banana cake were served with oranges and lemonade.

Don Chase, who is canvassing for a Chicago picture company, visiting all the principal cities in Washington, reports a fine time, likes the country of Washington, and has now crossed the Rocky mountains.

Sam Atkinson has purchased another fine new buggy to which he drives a single horse.

W. R. C. Shower.

On last Monday afternoon, Shiloh W. R. C. No. 28 gave a shower for our sister, Mrs. Hicks. It covered her table and overflowed. It consisted of groceries, canned fruit and vegetables. Let us remember that the raindrops form the shower, and the sunshine through these raindrops forms the rainbow on the cloud, so acts of kindness form the showers of blessings and the sunshine of love through these acts forms the rainbow of "The Brotherhood of Man" on the dark cloud of sorrow.
