Ernest E. Jackson was up from Portland last Sunday. The enrollment at the public school has reached 660. Born to Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Justice of Springbrook, October 13, a son. County School Superintendent H. H. Belt was in town visiting the public school Wednesday. Father McDewitt of Portland will hold services at Duncan Hall Sunday Nov. 1st at 10:30 a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Evans, former residents of Newberg, are down from McMinnville attending the Baptist convention. C. C. Ferguson has sold his barn located on College street north of First to Vin Vincent and Elbert Sheldon who are fixing it up with a view of opening a feed barn. Mr. Sheldon removed to Newberg from Amity a few months ago and built a handsome cottage in Edwards addition on Fifth street for a home. A straw vote is said to have been taken on the street a few days ago, resulting in a three fourths vote for Billy Bryan. Present and voting John Larkin, Lee Smith, Hugh Nelsou and C. B. Wilson. Just how long it took the Bryan "straws" to round up republican committeeman Wilson and get the vote has not been recorded.

The wife of John Younger, the jeweler who had a shop in Newberg several years ago but has since been in business in Oregon City, died in a Portland sanitarium the first of the week. She was the mother of the Misses Mary and Nellie Younger who were well known among the young people at the time they lived in Newberg, both being good singers.

On Saturday evening, October 17, at their beautiful home on East Taylor street, Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Emmer W. Hall celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. Among those present on this happy occasion were Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hadley, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Scott, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Miles, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Hanson, all recent residents of Newberg.

A. R. Kendall, whose home is at Haviland, Kansas, but who is making an extended visit with a brother-in-law near McMinnville, was here Monday and Tuesday visiting with Enos Ellis, Prof. Harvey D. Crumly, the editor of the Graphic and others who have relatives in his neighborhood in Kansas. Mr. Kendall has prospered on his Kansas farm, his principal business being raising and handling good horses and mules and he thinks he is well located for making money, but he is delighted with Oregon. Before returning home he expects to see something of California.

E. J. and C. W. Kienle, two young men who are brothers, and who are friends of Rev. G. Rieker, pastor of the German Methodist church, arrived here a few days ago from Dennison, Iowa, and are arranging to go into business. They have rented the storeroom on First street which will be vacated shortly by Hodson Brothers, who will remove to one of the rooms in the new brick being built by Jesse Edwards, and they will open a novelty store. They will carry a line of musical instruments, sheet music, tinware, grinitware and many other lines, such as are usually carried in a novelty stock. The young men come well recommended and they will no doubt meet with success in this new field. The firm name will be Kienle & Sons, their father who has not yet arrived being an interested party.

Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Hamilton were up from Portland Tuesday. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Justice, of Springbrook, October 18, a son. Miss Edna Andrews, of Whittier, California, who spent last winter here with her sister has started in to take a nurse's course in Los Angeles.

Arthur Conklin, editor and publisher of the Pacific Outlook, of Grants Pass, has been in town during the week attending the Baptist Convention. B. F. Pike returned home from Sherman county the first of the week where he spent some time looking after business interests he has there.

W. D. Scott who has been in town visiting with relatives for several days left for Grass Valley Wednesday morning where he follows blacksmithing. Dr. A. Mills and family have removed to Corvallis where they have bought property, after having spent five years on their government claim near Fisher in the Coast mountains in Benton County.

The laying of the corner stone of the new Catholic church of Newberg will take place Sunday, Nov. 1, at 2:30 p.m. Archbishop Christie of Portland will perform the ceremony. A cordial invitation is extended to all. David Essett preached in the Christian Tabernacle Monday night on "The Marks of the Genuine Church." Evangelists Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Stephens, of Portland, continue the meetings each evening. All are invited.

GEO. C. RITCHEY, Pastor.
A. Gross, who was in business here a few years ago but who has been running a store at Independence for the past five years, has rented the J. C. Lucas building on the north side of First street and is here arranging to open out with a stock of goods in a few days.

R. Kely of the health department of the city of Portland was in town Wednesday. Twenty-eight and thirty years ago Mr. Kely was a prominent figure in Yamhill county, he holding the office of sheriff at that time. He went to McMinnville the first of the week for the first time in ten years, where he saw many changes, and then came on to Newberg where he found many more changes had been made since he had been in this part of the valley.

Bailey Wickersham, of Western Springs, Illinois, who spent a month or more in Newberg, leaving here for Los Angeles the first of the present month, in company with his wife, suffered a stroke of paralysis while on the way south and died two hours after reaching the home of his son in Los Angeles. Mr. Wickersham was a good friend of President W. I. Kelsey who speaks of him as being one of the best as well as one of the most useful men he ever knew. For a long term of years he held the responsible position of secretary of the Chicago library, and he was away on a leave of absence on account of his health at the time of his death.

The benefit given by the free library committee on Friday night was a great success from a musical standpoint and from the standpoint of a high class entertainment, but the attendance was away below what the program merited and consequently the receipts were not such as to give encouragement to the committee to make another such an attempt to raise money for the library. Mrs. Walter Reed, the Portland soloist, sustained her reputation as a singer and received the hearty applause of the audience, while the instrumental music furnished by Mrs. Hull and Mr. Hull with Mrs. C. B. Wilson as accompanist, was also well received and heartily applauded. A first class program was given and the work of the committee was not in vain, though the proceeds were unsatisfactory.

Dave Coyle was up from Portland Sunday visiting at J. B. Mounts. L. E. Brown went to Black Rock last Saturday on a business trip among the men in the logging camps.

Lee Dadisman drove into town Wednesday morning with his wagon loaded with all the dressed porkers his team could haul. Last Sunday was rally day at the Friends church when all day services were held, with a big basket dinner served in the basement at noon.

C. F. Moore left for Black Rock Wednesday evening where he expected to hunt for big game with F. H. Green who is running a confectionery store there. Senator Caldwell came home Monday morning from a trip to a hunting preserve on the Columbia in which he has an interest, well loaded with ducks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. VanBlaricom have been in Salem during the week attending court as witnesses. C. B. Wilson has been helping in the store in their absence. A. S. Carter has sold his property on the Dayton road to O. Durham, of Portland, who will be here this week with his family to occupy it. Mr. Carter says he is expecting to return to Virginia. A mistake was made last week in mention made of the death of a man at Willamina by accident. The unfortunate man was not in the employ of the Edwards brick company and the accident occurred at the Western Clay Co's. dump.

Hon. W. P. Elmore, of Brownsville, presidential elector on the prohibition ticket, will address the citizens of Newberg on Friday evening of this week. Mr. Elmore is a good speaker and he commands the highest respect of all who know him. L. B. Charles writes to his brother L. W. Charles that their party arrived at their destination in Lake county in due season and that they are busily engaged in making preparations to go into winter quarters on their claims. Grain is three cents per pound and wild hay eight dollars per ton, which makes pretty expensive feeding.

Rev. J. E. Blair returned from the Presbyterian synod held at Ashland last week feeling pretty good over the result of his work. He went with the intention of asking for the meeting to be held in Newberg next year and his appeal was successful. Prudent housewives will take time by the forelock and set an extra hen in the spring. An old Barton County, Kansas, friend named Brewer was here the first of the week visiting with Frank Cummins. Mr. Brewer was born in Morgan County, Indiana, but when a boy he went with his parents to Kansas in the Border Ruffian days and has stuck to Kansas through good and evil report ever since.

S. C. Gockley, who owns a farm on the side of the mountain directly north of town, is shipping strawberries to the Portland market where they meet with ready sale at fancy prices. Six dollars per crate ought to make them taste pretty fine. Mr. Gockley says that with the proper attention paid to irrigation during the dry season in August, he can realize as much from his fall crop as he does from the spring crop.
