High School Items

The High School is to have a physical laboratory. Some of the fixtures have come and we are glad to see them. This is a department much needed by our students and will prove a benefit to all.

Monday afternoon Prof. Kletzer was absent from school on account of illness. His work was taken up by Mrs. Reagan of Pacific College.

Arrangements have been made for a class in German with Mr.
Kletzer as teacher. The study was begun Monday and much interest shown by the students.

Mr. McIntosh, our former principal, visited us Monday afternoon and all the pupils appreciated his presence.

The Watkins Tennessee Jubilee singers have been engaged by the Student Body for Nov. 13.
The entertainment will be given in Duncan's hall and the proceeds played on Pacific College grounds between our High School team and Yamhill High School next Saturday afternoon at 2:30. A large attendance will be appreciated.

Nine members of the Senior class attended the teachers annual institute at McMinnville last Friday. A pleasant and profitable day was spent notwithstanding the unfavorable weather.

The H. S. boys are building a dressing room in the basement of the school building. This will be very useful in preparing for football and other games.

Iola Gorman, Clifford Hammett and Maybelle Jay entered the Freshman class last week.

Ethel Ross, a member of the Junior class, has been appointed librarian for the school. She has been doing the work most ac-ceptably.

The Seniors held a class meeting this week and chose for their colors Alice blue and gold. Their officers are pres., Agnes Ryder;

Misses Ruth Gilbert and Wilma Finley, who attended the Y. W.
C. A. convention at Salem, returned Tuesday with the following report: A most interesting Y. W. C. A. convention was held at Salem in the assembly hall of Kimball College of Theology last Friday, Saturday and Sunday.
The leaders were Mrs. W. J. Hon-eyman, president of the State As-
