If you have not had an opportunity to sign a petition of a candidate for the postoffice just pass it by as an oversight and don't charge it up as an intentional slight. Three candidates, J. C. Hodson, the present incumbent, C. B. Wilson and Dr. R. W. Harrold are each circulating petitions.

A. T. Hill, formerly a Newberg druggist but who has been in the same business in LaGrande for several years, came to town on Tuesday evening for a short visit with relatives. A surgical operation was attempted the first of the week by the physicians attending Will Miles, who has been confined in a Portland sanitarium for some time. A cordial invitation is extended to any who may desire to hear this series of sermons to attend.

The dedication of the new Presbyterian church took place last Sunday according to the program published last week, and something like $1000 was raised to apply on the expense of building. The remainder, we understand, has been provided; for. This congregation now has a splendid church edifice in which to worship and the zeal of the pastor, Rev. J. E. Blair, in undertaking the task of raising the money and building the new church, and also the hearty support given by his congregation is worthy of commendation.
