Local Events.

L. Marvin Blair was up from Portland to spend Thanksgiving with the home folks.

Mrs. H. R. Morris and baby went to Portland last Thursday evening to visit a few days with relatives.

Clifford Terrell and family were up from Portland over Sunday visiting with his brother, W. E. Terrell, and family who recently returned home from their visit east and south.

Cephas Maris and wife, who are down from the eastern part of Washington on a visit with their daughters, Mrs. S. M. Calkins and Mrs. George Hash, are spending a few days at McMinnville and Sheridan this week. Mr. Maris looks scarcely a day older than when he was in the harness business in Newberg fifteen years ago.

Carrol Kirk and wife, who are located at North Yakima where he is engaged in Y. M. C. A. work, are spending a vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Kirk, on the farm in the Chehalem Center neighborhood north of town. Prof. R. W. Kirk and family were also down from Independence last week for a short visit.

Mrs. Mary Scott's home was entered one day last week and a small iron bank full of change was taken from the top of a bookcase. The bank was to have been opened at Christmas time and the money counted, and of course there is much disappointment in the home. A lady living in the same part of town lost a larger sum in a similar way. Don't leave money about the house when you go away from home.

Prof. R. G. Boone, of Los Angeles, an educator of many years experience in Normal School work, visited in town last week with Prof. Edwin Hadley and family, his wife being an aunt of Mrs. Hadley. Prof. Boone was born and grew up in Indiana where he was educated and where he spent several years in teaching. Of late years he has been devoting his time to institute work up and down the coast and has a wide reputation as a lecturer.

Will Clemenson and family, who came from Clarkston, Washington, last week to visit with relatives in town remained until Monday morning when they took their departure for home. Will took the postoffice when Clarkston was in the embryo stage and the mail could be carried in his hat, but the town has shown great development and as they lay claim to 3000 or more inhabitants, the office of postmaster, which he still holds, is a good paying one.

A large audience greeted "The Artist Trio" at Duncans hall on last Saturday night, this being the first number of the Star Lyceum course, and many words of praise for the evening's entertainment have been heard from those who heard the ladies. With a musical number it is nearly always the case that there will be one or two people who show up strong with their parts, while others will only rank as medium, but it was not so with the young ladies Saturday night. Miss Doyle captivated the audience with her Irish stories given in the native tongue and with her faultless gestures, for she was born in Ireland, while Miss McGill as soloist and Miss Deering as violinist were equally strong with their numbers. We have heard of no one who is dissatisfied with the purchase of their season ticket for the course. It is expected that the other numbers will be even stronger than the first.

Miss Lina Langton was down from McMinnville last Thursday visiting relatives.

Mrs. Nancy Crawford drove down from Dayton last Thursday to visit the Butt family.

D. D. Coulson, of Portland, spent Thanksgiving day with his sister at the college dormitory.

Miss Elsie Smith, of Salem, came down Thursday morning to visit her friend Laura Hammer.

Miss Ethel Waterhouse is up from Gearhart on her annual visit with Mr. and Mrs. R. Richards.

Mrs. A. B. Wilmot, of Oregon City, is visiting her mother, Mrs. G. W. Cutts, at her home near town.

Miss Margaret Inglis spent a few days last week with friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Newby and little son ate Thanksgiving dinner with Clarence Elliott's on the Dundee hills.

Rev. Lindley A. Wells came up from Portland Monday evening to be in attendance at a meeting of the college board.

The sale of the fifty acre fruit farm of A. C. Churchill, two miles north of Newberg, to Theodore H. Pierre, from Kansas, is reported.

Mrs. Elizabeth B. Miles came up from Portland the first of the week, this being her first visit to Newberg since her return from Indiana.

Mrs. Corby, wife of Attorney C. W. Corby was down from Salem last week arranging for housekeeping rooms and will join her husband here soon.

Roy Wood has bought the property on North Meridian street opposite L. H. Shirley's home of W. R. Oliver, who came here from Portland a few months ago and who now owns the City Bakery.

Sam Anthes has bought the north half of block 37 in Edwards addition on Sixth street and will improve it. It will be noted that Sam is of marriageable age, being neither too young nor too old, and handsome.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Newhouse went to Brooks Tuesday to attend the funeral of A. M. Aspinwall who died in a Portland hospital where he was taken for treatment. The Aspinwall family lived in Newberg for a few months on their arrival in Oregon from Minnesota.

President Isaac Sharpless of Haverford College, Pennsylvania, who will visit a number of the colleges of the country in the capacity of lecturer during the winter, has been engaged for a course of lectures to be delivered at Newberg on the second and third of January. He is a man who stands high in educational circles among the big institutions of the country, and while he don't pose as an orator he will be worth hearing. The lectures will be free.

The college basketball team will play the East Side Athletic Association team of Portland on the home floor Saturday night. The teams were pretty evenly matched last season and a good game may be expected. The home team was defeated in the games played in Portland on last Friday and Saturday nights with the Y. M. C. A. and Multnomah teams, but the boys think that toward the close of the season, when the return games are to be played, they will be in shape to hold the score down much closer.

At noon on Thanksgiving Day at the home of the bride's parents in Newberg, Miss Maggie Heviland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Heviland, was married to C. F. Moore, of Portland, Rev. Hiram Gould, of Forest Grove, officiating. The newly wedded couple will make their home in Portland where the groom has a position in the Meier & Frank store. The bride is a highly respected young lady who has the best wishes of a large number of friends in Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Maris, of Portland, spent Sunday in town visiting with relatives.

The cleaning of the mud from the surface of First street has added much to the appearance of the street.

J. C. Duncan says we will have a fall of snow before the tenth of the month and again between the first and the fourteenth of January, and J. C. Clemenson stands sponsor for Jim to see that he makes good.

Elder Geo. Lawver, teacher at Bethany Bible School of Chicago, will preach at the Brethren church Sunday, Dec. 6, at 11 a. m., also at 2:30 p. m. All are cordially invited to attend. No services at the church in the evening. *

George A. Best and Thomas Patterson, friends of J. D. Gordon, of Dundee, who arrived here recently from North Dakota, are located out northwest of town on small places which they had purchased through Mr. Gordon before they came. A clipping from their former home paper, which appears in another column, speaks a good word for them.

The sawmill has been shut down for a week on account of an accident which occurred while an unusually heavy log was being hauled up from the river on the long incline. The strain on the machinery was too heavy and considerable damage was done. Fortunately the men were given warning and all escaped to a safe distance before the break came, which sent broken pieces of machinery in all directions.

On Wednesday Jesse Edwards and Rev. A. J. Weaver went to McMinnville where they joined others in presenting a petition to the county court, asking the court to make an offer of a reward of $50 to anyone who will furnish evidence that will lead to the arrest and conviction of persons for violating the local option law. After due consideration the request was granted and the reward now stands.

The county commissioners have called a good roads meeting to be held at the court house on Saturday at ten o'clock and the attendance of every citizen in the county who is interested in a movement for better roads is desired. One object of the meeting is to get the views of the taxpayers regarding the proper levy to be made for road improvement. No more important meeting has been called during the year, for this is a matter that interests everybody, and Newberg ought to send a big delegation.

Open Letter to Holiday Shoppers.

For a number of years the W. C. T. U., the Consumer's League, and other philanthropic societies sent out this annual appeal to the women to refrain from shopping the last ten days prior to Christmas week, that they may do their part in observing the "Golden Rule" in practice. Many humanity-loving women strongly feel that the true meaning of Christmas time has been cruelly perverted, and pledge themselves not to be partners in this cruelty and will not shop, except for the necessities. Will you join those who thus testify by actions that they will try to bring true Christmas into the lives of the working people.—From "Labor Dept" W. C. T. U.

Fence-rail philosophy may be good enough in its way, but we pin our faith to the man who climbs down and goes to work.

That said Council will at a regular meeting thereof to be held at the Council room at Newberg, Oregon, Monday evening, December 7th, 1908, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. assess said proportionate part of said costs of said improvements upon the abutting property.
