Orchestra is disappointed in not being able to organize in time for the contest, but other musical numbers have been arranged for, that will fill the vacancy.

Our football team engaged a four-horse team on Thanksgiving Day and started for North Yamhill to meet the huskies of that town. Although compelled to walk most of the way and on several occasions lend a shoulder to the wheel, they arrived at their destination in time to get in on the "last call for dinner." The Yamhill team again greatly outweighed our boys and scored a touchdown after a few minutes of play. The "kids" came back strong, however, and also secured a touchdown. Both sides failed to kick goal but Newberg gained an advantage by scoring a drop kick a few minutes before the last half. The second half was stubbornly contested, the final score being N. H. S. 9, North Yamhill, 5.
