NOTHING BETTER

Have the Graphic mailed to a friend in the East as a holiday present. It will make his heart glad every week in the year.

DO IT NOW

Chehalem Center

C. L. Johnson spent a few days last week with his nephew, C. X. Larrabee, in Portland.

Mrs. Geo. Perry was taken sick last week with typhoid fever.

Quite a number in this community wish to give editor Graphic a hearty cheer and word of commendation for the stand he has taken on the near beer question. May the citizens unite in preserving a good moral atmosphere in the Quaker City of Newberg.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. met by appointment at the home of Mrs. K. L. Tangen. A good meeting ensued after which the hostess served refreshments. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Johnson's who lives on what was known as the Moore place.

Next Tuesday evening Miss Hannon of Newberg will give a gospel temperance recital at the church, 7:30 promptly.

Hon. B. F. Whiteaker of Independence, has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. R. Carter, the past few days. Mr. Whiteaker is a pioneer of '48, but is still hale and hearty and superintends his large grain and dairy farm, known throughout Polk County as the Hillside Farm.

Last Friday morning the neighborhood was shocked at the sad news of the death of Newton Kirk. He had been a resident here since in '90 and will be sadly missed in the little church and Sunday School work. The family have the sympathy of all in their sad bereavement.

The following resolutions were passed by the Sunday School:

Resolved that in the death of Newton G. Kirk, we the Chehalem Center Sunday School tender its heartfelt sympathy to the family and relatives of our deceased brother in this their affliction.

We wish to express our appreciation of his faithful service among us, and his merits as a man.

Resolved that these resolutions be entered upon the minutes and that a copy of them be sent to each member of his family as well as to our local paper.

In behalf of Chehalem Center Sunday School.

BY ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

Council Meeting.

At a meeting of the city council held Tuesday night L. S. Otis was elected as councilman for the first ward to fill the place of Wm. Stratton, removed, and G. W. James was likewise elected councilman for third ward to fill the vacancy caused by the death of J. W. Forsyth. C. B. Wilson was elected as acting mayor and J. J. Woods was elected marshal.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas God in his wisdom has called in death councilman J. W. Forsyth, our friend, neighbor and co-laborer;

Therefore be it resolved by the council that in the death of Mr. Forsyth the council has lost a faithful and efficient member, the city and community a good and upright citizen, one who has taken an active and earnest part in a quiet way in all matters of public interest in which he had a part to perform;

Be it further resolved that the council has and does hereby express to the bereaved wife and family its sympathy in this their hour of sorrow;

That this resolution become a part of the minutes of this meeting and a copy thereof presented to Mrs. Forsyth.

High School Items

A large crowd turned out to the High School basket ball games Saturday night. Owing to the amount of practice the Dayton girls have had in comparison to that of our girls, the score of 16-2 in favor of Dayton, wasn't so bad after all. The Newberg boys won 45 to 8.

Miss Hopkins, traveling secretary of the Y. W. C. A. is going to give our association a week-end visit next week from Saturday till Tuesday. She's going to help us organize our bible study class and we will appreciate her visit very much.

High School Athletic Associations have hired the gymnasium for fifteen weeks for $35. We get it three nights a week, the girls for the first hour in the evening and the boys afterward.

The pupils of the ninth grade went in a body to attend Mr. Forsyth's funeral in respect to Lulu and Walter Forsyth who were in that grade.

Free Course of Lectures.

The winter short courses of study will begin at the Agricultural College, Corvallis, Oregon on January 5. Men and women, young and old, interested in the farm, the shop, or the home, are cordially invited to attend. By writing at once to the Agricultural College a circular will be sent telling in detail what is proposed to be accomplished by these courses.

A week of lectures on general agricultural topics begins Jan. 5. A special course for creamery operators and managers runs from Jan. 5 to 15; a course in dairying from Jan. 18 to Mar. 27. A course in horticulture Jan. 11 to Feb. 20; a course in mechanic arts from Jan. 11 to Feb. 20; a course in road construction from Jan. 11 to Feb. 6; a course in household science and art from Jan. 11 to Feb. 20. Special lectures on business methods on the farm will be given.

I want to sell the properties owned by myself and father in Newberg, being the southeast and southwest corners of Seventh and Chehalem streets. Will sell cheap and give good terms. Also all kinds of Portland real estate. LEWIS L SAUNDERS, 714 Couch Building, 109 Fourth St., near Washington.

Newberg's Popular Hotel.

The hotel accommodations of a town, good or bad, whichever they may be, are a standing advertisement that make for weal or woe and there is no getting around this fact. Newberg is specially favored in this particular for the Imperial, the picture of which is given above, meets all the demands of the public.

It is a brick building, steam heated, electric lighted, has hot and cold water, baths, and all modern equipment. Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Skinner who have a three year lease on the building are making a good record as caterers to the wants of the traveling public, and the house is well patronized.
