House Warming.

On Monday evening J. L. Harworths gave a real house warming in their nice new home near Springbrook, where the married people of the community, with a few others of eligible age, enjoyed a strong phono-program.

Messrs. C. E. Newhouse, Will Shires, H. E. Newlin, and mine host with their instruments on holiday behavior, and a selection of records from the violin quick-step to Old Hundred, with Uncle Josh and the coon on the side furnished music and entertainment galore.

Nuts, candy and big red apples, conversation and the pleasures of the evening were shared by all.

Before the people dispersed a short prayer service led by the host was engaged in by the merry guests, and on adjournment the many expressions of good cheer attested the sentiment of all that the evening had been greatly enjoyed.

With more such gatherings the tedium and hum-drum of country life, of which we hear so much, would be reduced to the minimum and many an opportunity made for a kind word or a good deed to hearts that are longing for more fellowship.

Some of these you can not reach in the church for you can neither coax nor drive them thither, but with them you can and ought to come in closer touch and sympathy in the social evening at the country home. A GUEST.

preciation and thanks to the many
