Richards-Dugan.

At one o'clock Sunday Dec. 27, Miss Sarah May Richards became the bride of Mr. Edward Dugan.
 The wedding took place at the home of Mr. F. T. Keyes near Dundee and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Alfred of Dundee. The young couple were attended by Miss Carmen Walland Mr. Fred Janssen. The bride who is a pronounced blonde looked charming in her wedding gown of Alice blue trimmed with white lace. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Richards of Boyd, Oregon and for the past three months has been visiting her sister Mrs. Frank Keyes.

 Immediately after the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. After the dinner pictures of the wedding party were taken by Mr. W. F.
 Meyers. In the evening the happy couple were serenaded by a number of their friends who gathered to express their heartiest congratulations. The bride and groom were the recipients of many handsome wedding presents. Mr. and Mrs. Dugan will make their future home in Dundee where they will be at home to their friends after the holidays. The guests were: Mr. F. T. Keyes, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keyes, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts and baby daughter Ruth, Mr. and Mrs.
 Wheeler of Newberg, Mrs. Yoe of Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson

Pacific College Notes.

It was an enthusiastic occasion at chapel Wednesday morning when about $300 was subscribed by the students and faculty to meet the debts on the gymnasium and college paper. There is something like one hundred dollars to be raised yet, but judging by the spirit in which the students are going after it they will be successful in getting it.

The first music recital of the term will be given in the studio, corner of College and Second streets Monday evening at 7:30.

A number of new students have entered the college this term.
 The enrollment is already larger than that of last year. This in face of the fact that several colleges in the valley report a falling off.

The students of the commercial department are taking hold of their work with a vim, which indicates that they mean business.

Minnesota Reunion.

The third annual meeting of the Minnesota Social Society was held Jan. 1st, 1909 in Crater's Hall.

The attendance was between 180 and 190. Though all present did not register, an estimate of Minnesota arrivals during the past year makes the number about 30.

The day was spent in becoming acquainted and talking over old times.

A bountiful repast was served and a good time was enjoyed by all.

Officers elected for next year:
 President, Rev. J. Hall; Sec'y., Flossie Bass; Treas., Mrs. L. S.
 Otis.

What's Time to a Haw?

A Nortolk farmer, riding through the Welsh mountains, came up with a mountaineer leisurely driving a herd of pigs.

"Where are you driving the pigs to?" asked the inquiring farmer.

"Out to pasture 'em a bit."

"What for?"

"To fatten 'em."

"Isn't it pretty slow work to fatten 'em on grass? Up where I come from we pen them up and and fatten them on corn. It saves a lot of time."

"Ya-as I s'pose so," drawled the mountaineer; "but, bless your heart, what's time to a haw?"
 —Tid-Bits.
