Ganderbone's Forecast for January.

The calendar will change with the usual wakes for the old year and greetings for the new. Most of us will immediately date our correspondence 1909, but forgetful people like Mr. Archibold and Mr. Rocketteller will continue dating checks 1908.

The old year will be little mourned by Democrats and coldly greeted by lions. It will find the peace tribunal at The Hague closed and the house staff attending the wars in Venezuela, Hayti, Washington and Mrs. Nation's address in Scotland.

The end of Leap Year will provoke few bachelor regrets, and the stork will step up like a man and pay his baby bets. The Roosevelt regime will make its plans to go a-gunning, and lions, hippos, and giraffes will practice up at running.

The Romans tried to make March the first month of the year, but after half of the Irish had frozen to death trying to march on the 17th, Numa re-arranged the calendar as a merciful concession to that valuable colony.

January was one of the months devised for that occasion. It was named for Janus, whom the Romans called "the porter of Heaven." He opened and closed Heaven, kept it nicely dusted, made up the berths, and whenever he caught a man in there who was not keeping his newspaper subscription paid up, he chased him into the smoker.

No other month is so appropriately named as this, for Janus was regarded by the ancients as the beginning and the end of all things. He is famous for having had a second face on the back of his head, and resembled Mr. Harriman coming and Mr. Lawson going. His temple at Rome was historic. When the empire was at war its gates were thrown open, and in peace they were closed. This continued until the time of Augustus, who is said by Prof. Ferrero to have been the prototype of Mr. Roosevelt. At any rate, Augustus cast the gates of the temple into the Tiber and made it a prison for liars, molly-coddles, couples without children, editors, congressmen, nature fakery, rich malefactors, religious bigots, reactionaries and undesirable citizens.

The row between the President and Congress will become the hottest thing since David smashed Goliath's cerebrum. The outraged House will paw the earth, the Senate will get flip, the President will rub his fist against its upper lip, the air will be a mass of fur, and ripping expletives, and the timid Congressman will run from there to where he lives.

The air will pulsate with the roar of bitter verbal shot, the sports will bet on whether Ted will take it back or not, the old men will get on the roof and utter their defies, the President will show his teeth and bulletin the lies, a special message now and then will heighten the hub-bub, and a dozen men a day will join the Ananias Club.

The Congressmen will blister Ted, and he will soak them back, the Senate will put in a punch and get a counter smack. They'll say some ugly things to him. And he will bowl them out, the dignity of government will dance, ki-yi and shout, the old Potomac will become

A raging sea of foam, The public servant's family Will beg him to come home, The shindee will divert the world By reason of its heat, And Loeb will let it run a while, And then send for the fleet.

After that we shall have Taft weather, with cooler relations at Washington. Cabinet selections will be announced on Tuesdays and Fridays. The rich will go to the winter resorts, and eggs will go to forty cents. The new sign of the zodiac will be Aquarius, the water carrier, whose influence will begin on the 20th. This will enable any one who has kept on the water wagon from the 1st to remain permanently seated. Persons born under Aquarius vote dry. They have bad memories, and rise to confidential positions with trusts. They are also very knowing, but they don't know when prosperity will return.

The moon will be full on the 6th and Mercury will become evening star on the 26th. Mr. Rockefeller will reach his Southernmost declination on the 20th, when he will turn up at Atlanta, Ga., for the midwinter golf solstice. Golf takes his mind off the danger of the oil giving out.

The Wrights will temporarily give way to the price of butter, which will stay up until spring. The favorite sport of the month will be pie-hunting. Mrs. Nation will carry the war into London and will show the suffragettes how to get locked up in the Tower.

Our absent fleet will make Suez, Continuing its bum, And things in Africa will think That Roosevelt has come. There'll be a stampede to the South, And many trembling lips Will pass the word that he's arrived With sixteen battleships. And then brief February of the groundhog will be due, and we'll discover pretty quick if he's a liar, too.

Out of the Ginger Jar.

If a fool is out of his place anywhere on earth it is on a farm.

Will some one please step forward and tell us what the seesaw?

Are your harrow teeth aching out in some snow-drifted fence corner? If so, why so?

The men who try to hide their light are few, while those who seek to shine in the light of others are many.

The kitchen range is not very large or imposing, but it is a most important complement to the cattle and sheep range.

The reason so many men are lounging about waiting for political plums, is because they are too lazy to raise plums of any other sort.

Too many men who before their marriage were always particular to get out of the buggy and help the young woman in, may be observed a few years after marriage sitting in the wagon while the good wife clambers in over the wheel as best she may. There is something wrong when the man is less thoughtful of his wife than he was of his sweetheart.
