Local Events.

Willis Townsend came up from Arleta Sunday to attend the funeral of C. C. Jensen.

A new baby boy made his appearance in the family of Mr. and Mrs. George Morris some ten days ago.

Attorney Ore L. Price and family were up from Portland last Saturday and Sunday visiting with relatives.

L. W. Charles made a trip to Astoria last week to get one of his little sons who had been with his grandmother in that city for several months.

Nelson P. Jensen who is working at the carpenters trade in Portland was up last Sunday in attendance at the funeral of his brother, C. C. Jensen.

Aunt Elizabeth Miles, who is visiting in town with Mrs. M. Bowerman, has had recent word from San Jose, California, giving information of the death of Mrs. Hannah Bean, wife of her brother, Joel Bean, at a ripe old age.

N. L. Wiley went to McMinnville Tuesday to attend the funeral of a sister of his named Elliott who had been in poor health for some time and who had taken a trip to California with the hope of getting relief, only to meet disappointment.

Miss Lenora Parker entertained a few of her friends on Saturday evening at a chafing dish party. Those enjoying her hospitality were, Mrs. W. S. Parker, the misses Mabelle Gardner, Leora Thorne and Bernice Woodward, Messrs. C. W. Parker, W. A. King and Maynard Redmond and Clay Gould of Portland.

R. B. Jacks who recently purchased the Duncan confectionery store is now in town and has taken personal charge of the business. He is an experienced confectioner, having had some twenty years experience in Portland where he has made it his business to cater to the tastes of the best trade, and he expects to do the same in Newberg. He says he is in love with our town, which has the right ring. It is the cheerful optimist who succeeds in business.

On Friday evening of last week a very pleasant birthday surprise party was given in honor of Miss Blanche Davis at the home of Enos Ellis. A very pleasant evening was spent in games and music after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present were the Misses Bertha Bunford, Mabel Rush, Alice Hayes, Nancy Atkinson, Alma and Hazel Paulsen, Myrtle Walton, Edna Everest, and Josie Ellis. Messrs Sam Atkinson, Huber Haworth, Frank Hill, Irvin and Alvin Barnhart, Donald and Kenneth Chase, and Maurice Walton.

On Thursday of last week C. C. Jensen, who was working at bridgecarpentering for the Southern Pacific, lost his life by falling from the trestle at Elk Rock. No one saw him fall but the other workmen say he was tightening bolts on the under side of the bridge timbers and it is supposed that his wrench slipped, causing him to lose his balance and fall a distance of forty feet or more. He was picked up by his fellow workmen, badly mangled and taken to a Portland hospital where he died without regaining consciousness. The deceased was thirty-six years of age, unmarried and a son of J. C. Jensen of Newberg. The remains were brought home for burial, the funeral being held at the M. E. church on Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. Services were conducted by Rev. Young, the pastor. Mr. Jensen was a man of steady habits, a good, industrious workman and one who will be missed in the community.

Born, Thursday, February 4 to Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Shaw a daughter.

A meeting of the public library committee will be held at the library rooms on next Monday evening at 7:30.

The young ladies of the college will hold a pillow and pennant sale in the front office at the Graphic printery on Saturday of next week.

Francis McHenry, who spoke on temperance at the M. E. church on Monday night, will speak again at the same place on Saturday night.

Charley Chemenson has sold his interest in the plumbing business to his partner, Eli Evans and has bought the Swetman farm on the Dayton road beyond Dundee, which he formerly owned, and will retire to farm life again.

We are glad to note improvement in the condition of B. C. Miles, who was reported last week as being dangerously sick at his home in Portland. He has difficulty with his speech, not being able to express himself fully, but his mind is clear and he has been able to sign some legal papers, in closing contracts that were made previous to his sickness.

The W. C. T. U.'s report a jovial time with the L. T. L.'s of Newberg last Saturday at the College Dormitory. They acquitted themselves well in their speeches, songs, and dialogues against this great evil, winning the applause of all who heard, and besides the "dainty refreshments" served them, were each surprised by the present, of an L. T. pin. They gained one new member, hoping er'e long to gain many more, to help them ring the "Bells of Prohibition" throughout our country.

Press Supt. Sophia D. Mills, wife of Frank C. Mills died on Tuesday at the home on South Meridian street. She had been an invalid for several years, and through it all was cared for by a tender, loving and devoted husband. She was born July 4, 1839 in the state of Ohio and at New Sharon, Iowa, December 24, 1867, she was married to Frank C. Mills, who survives her. Later they lived in Kansas, but for several years they have been residents of Newberg. The funeral was held at the home on Thursday morning, and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. A. J. Weaver of the Friends church.

Next Saturday morning the 13th at 10:30 the State Officers of the Oregon Threshers Association will meet with the threshers of Yamhill County at the Court House at McMinnville for the purpose of organizing a County Threshers Association. These associations are being formed all through Oregon for the purpose of bettering threshing conditions as may seem to be for the best interest of the membership. One of the principal lines of work is the obtaining of better roads and improved bridge construction, which will meet with the approval of every tax payer in this county. Farmers having threshing outfits are invited to attend.

The Wednesday club gave a reception to the teachers of the public school last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Elliott. The company enjoyed several vocal numbers by Mrs. J. A. Jones during the evening, after which refreshments were served in the dining room. Those present were the following gentlemen with their wives, C. J. Edwards, J. C. Hodson, C. A. Hodson, Pres. W. I. Kelsey, F. H. Buchanan, E. S. Greer, F. A. Morris, Dr. Harrold, W. E. Terrell, F. A. Elliott, C. B. Wilson, L. B. Ferguson, C. A. Butt, H. R. Morris Prot. Wiley, the mesdames Greer, Behnke, Sangton, Cutts, Jones, Hull, Bradley, and the misses Miller, Inglis, Beckwith, Noyes, Duncan, Richmond, Simonson, Paulsen, Bass, Ferguson, Hull, Donaca, Porter, and Mr. Kletzer.

Lester Stone, Earl Lozo and Ray Phipps were arrested on Wednesday on a charge of breaking into the cannery and stealing four sacks of sugar. The report is that the boys sold the sugar to the Farr brothers at a low figure. They will have a hearing before Justice Brouillette, but the time has not been set. Idleness begets mischief which if unrestrained leads to crime. This is the story told in a few words.

G. H. Rogers Receives Flattering Offer.

Once more has a former "Newberg boy" drawn the attention of an Eastern manufacturer, whose ability to pick men of worth, for important positions, is well established.

Our friend, Georg H. Rogers, now residing in Portland, is the recipient of a handsome offer from The C. W. Raymond Co. of Dayton, Ohio, manufacturers of Brick & Tile Machinery, to take charge of their San Francisco branch covering a large amount of territory, including California and Mexico, at an annual salary of $6,000, together with all expenses.

Out of loyalty to his friends, composing the Newberg, Brick & Tile Co. Mr. Rogers has declined the offer and will devote his entire attention to the management of the Brick Company, who are about to make extensive improvements in their plant, in order to more easily handle their rapidly increasing business.

The Graphic congratulates the members of the Brick Company upon their retention of Mr. Rogers, and feels that under his management they should meet with deserved success.

Our Public Library.

People are beginning to quite appreciate our Public Library. We are making considerably over two hundred loans per week now. We have a small circulating magazine department. Strangers especially are glad to make use of our books and magazines.

Inquiries are frequently made in regard to the maintenance of the library. We have a Library Association with a membership fee of one dollar per year. A publicity committee in the Association, the duty of which is to give entertainments etc, proceeds going to library fund.

Property owners having expressed their willingness, our city council levies a one third mill tax for the library, and has an oversight of the finances of the association. The past year our receipts from the three sources amounted to about five hundred dollars. We hope to do as well in the future.

Our new association officers for 1909 are: President Rev. Stannard; Vice Pres. F. H. Buchanan; Sec. Marguerite P. Elliott.

People out of town wishing to make use of the library may do so by joining the association. State Library Commission books free to everybody, out of town as well as residents of town.

Gentleman Entertain.

The gentleman of the Presbyterian church, entertained the ladies and younger members of the church with a splendid banquet, Tuesday evening, February 2, which was prepared and served by the gentleman. All who failed to be present missed a genuine treat. Please invite us again.—One who was present.

Card of Thanks.

We take this method of expressing our appreciation of the kind sympathy extended to us on account of the untimely death by accident, of our son and brother, C. C. Jensen.

J. C. JENSEN and family

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. Hiram Johnson and family wish to thank their friends and neighbors for their kindness shown during the sickness, and following the death of their father and husband, Mr. Hiram Johnson.
