The New York Sun is mean enough to say that if Theodore Roosevelt doesn't look out, he is liable to kill the missing link.

The Pacific Monthly is without doubt the best magazine published on the Pacific Coast. Oregon has good reason to be proud of it.

Forest Grove will celebrate, both on Saturday the third and on Monday the fifth, resting on Sunday, between spells. They will need it, too.

The old gag to the effect that "it rains thirteen months in the year in Oregon" has long been badly shelf-worn, and this season it is entirely out of joint. When has it rained in Oregon anyway?

A dispatch from Washington published a few days ago stated that there were no applicants for the position of Supervisor of the Census for Oregon. Can it be possible that the Galloway family, of Yamhill, has overlooked this little matter?

After a siege of five months in the San Francisco courts, the famous Calhoun bribery case came to an end by the jury failing to agree. The same case, if taken to some far removed point, where local prejudices are absent, could easily be tried out in much less than half the time, and with a much better prospect of justice being rendered.

Complaint is made that boats that are tied up along the river front are being molested, and loose articles carried away. It is possible that the guilty parties are not aware that they are laying themselves liable to severe penalties for interfering with private property, but it may be well for them to beware.

The author of "David Harum" died before the book was off the press, this being his only book, and although it has only been on sale since 1898, more than a million copies have been sold. "David Harum" is not a classic, but a story told in a plain, realistic way that reaches the hearts of the people. Everybody reads it and reads it again, for every town has its David Harum.

Wm. P. Pickett has written a book entitled, "The Negro: Abraham Lincoln's Solution," in which he says America is no place for the black man and that for his own good and for the good of the country he should be sent away. All of which is very easily said but putting the suggestion to the test—there is the rub. The black man came to our shores, not of his own volition, but in a slave ship, the Caucasian is reaping as he has sown and the race question will long remain an unsolved problem.

W. H. Parker has sold the Forest Grove Times to Gerald Volk from Wichita, Kansas. The new purchaser announces that he has also bought a controlling interest in the News and that the two papers will be consolidated and run under the head of the Washington County News. We regret to see the "Times" name dropped, since it has been nailed to the mast for twenty-two years, and has become a favorite at this office, and since it takes time to build up a reputation, Mr. Volk will pardon the suggestion that he is possibly making a mistake in taking on the name of a much younger publication. However the new proprietor is vouched for in a very strong letter by our friend Albert Tozier, who says he is the real thing, and that settles it.

H. G. Guild recently sold his interest in the Hillsboro Argus to Mrs. E. C. McKinney, who has leased the plant to L. A. Long the former owner. The ownership of every paper published in Washington county has changed within the past year.

A man on the street was heard to remark that Seattle was getting all the money and everything was dull. Too bad! But we have not known of the growler spending a nickel or turning a hand at anything in six months. A good physic ought to give some relief in this case.

List of Teachers Employed.

Nineteen teachers have been contracted with by the school board for next year, with one vacancy yet to be filled. Below will be found the list.

W. W. Wiley, Principal; W. A. Petteys, Ass't Principal; A. C. Stanbrough, Science; W. A. Wiest, Mathematics; Miss Madge A. Of this number, ten taught in the school last year, while nine will be new in the school. Of the new teachers mention may be made as follows:

Prof. W. A. Petteys, of Bay City, a graduate of the State Normal School, former Critic teacher in the Training Department of the Monmouth Normal and for three years head of the Manual Training Department in the Normal School.

Prof. A. C. Stanbrough, of Newberg, a graduate of Pacific College, former Principal of the Dundee Public School.

Prof. W. A. Wiest, of Yamhill, a graduate of the State Normal School, former Principal of the Yamhill High School.

Miss Madge A. Ytrehus, of Minneapolis, Minn., a graduate of the University of Minn., four years Principal of the Akeley, Minn. High School.

Miss Laura Wilson, a teacher of eight years' experience in N. D., now teaching at Heppner; Miss Doris Duncan, of LaFayette; Miss Mabel Rush, of Springbrook.

Miss Lena Spangle, of Dayton, a graduate of Pacific College.

Miss Florence Peirce, of Yale, Michigan.

In order to provide for the increased attendance in the school next year, the creamery building located on the corner at First and Meridian streets has been leased, and it is being fitted up to provide three rooms for school purposes.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON
 Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Lincoln for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

JUNE 27th, 1909.
 Temperance Lesson. Rom. xiii:13-14.
 Golden Text.—Put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ.—Rom. xiii:14.
 Verse 8.—Is it always sinful to go into debt, when you have no visible means of paying it? Is it right, or wrong, to go into debt when you have nothing to pay with, if your creditor knows your circumstances?
 Is a business man who has honestly failed in business and given up all he has to his creditors, under moral obligation to pay the balance of the debt, if he makes enough money to do so out of future business?
 Under modern business conditions, and the law of love and righteousness, when wholesale sellers sell on time, or give an adequate discount for cash to retailers, why are not the debts of an honest bankrupt retailer, the legitimate loss of his creditors in common with himself?
 Wherein consists the folly and sin of a wage-earner in constant work, getting into debt?
 Is it the duty of everybody to love everybody, the bad and the good, enemies and friends?
 What is the advantage of loving everybody, to ourselves, and to those whom we love?
 Verses 9-10.—Give reasons, outside of the Bible, that will cover all circumstances, why it is always wrong to disobey these five moral prohibitions. (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)
 Must all such acts, as are here forbidden, contravene the law of love to make them sinful; for example, if you had to kill a man who was about to kill one of your loved ones, would that be sinful?

 Can an act be wrong that works out for the good of all parties?
 Verse 11-12.—If you know you had to die inside of a month, what effort would that have upon your intentions and actions, as far as God is concerned; and if it would change these in the least, does that not prove that you are now living wrong and are in danger?

Most people are morally and spiritually asleep, and many are far into the night; what are the conditions which should suddenly startle such into full consciousness, as to their danger, and their duty?

Verses 13-14.—How is it that the night is the time selected for so many bad deeds?
 Should a man ever do a thing which he is ashamed for his best friends and neighbors to know?

Does the popular conscience generally, or always represent God's attitude to a thing; or are there some things God may be pleased with which the community would condemn as wrong, or vice versa?

How is it that bar rooms are generally screened off from the public gaze?
 Why is it a crime for a man to get drunk?

Why do most drunkards get drunk in the night, or away from public gaze?
 Does the drink habit generally lead to the other four grave evils mentioned in verse thirteen?

Verse 15.—What is the sure remedy for the drink habit, and all kindred evils of the flesh?
 Does putting on Jesus, always mean putting on strength so we can control all the passions of the body, and the ambitions of the soul?
