Local Events.

Bert Eberhard, of Grants Pass, was in town Wednesday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Brown on last Saturday, a son.

Born on Sunday, August 9, to Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Wiberg, a son.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James E. Merit on Monday, August 10, a son.

Rev. John F. Lyons and wife went to Newport for a vacation the first of the week.

Master Ross Miles was down from Salem Wednesday in company with his father, B. C. Miles.

Prof. R. W. Kirk and family are down from Independence visiting at the home farm north of town.

J. F. Taylor and wife went to Seattle Wednesday for a visit with his brother and to attend the A. Y. P.

Mrs. Lon S. Hill and daughter, Esther, from Eugene, have been in town during the week visiting with relatives.

Miss Lorena Sloan, of Thermopolis, Wyoming, is in town visiting with her cousin, Mrs. George C. Ritchey.

Principal W. W. Wiley and wife arrived home from Seattle Monday evening, where they spent a week seeing the fair.

Miss Pearl Cummings, Mrs. Cy Hammett and Miss Lena Bashaw were passengers for Newport last Monday morning.

Rev. G. J. Rieker, pastor of the German Methodist church will preach at the union meeting in the grove next Sunday evening.

Mrs. R. L. Booth came down from Willamina Monday for a visit with her sisters, Miss Lizzie Hibbs and Mrs. M. H. Bowerman.

Herbert Coffin, the Portland druggist, is up spending a short vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Coffin.

President Kelsey went to Seattle to attend the quarterly meeting of the Friends church held in that city on last Saturday and Sunday.

J. C. Hodson and family, James Townsend and wife and Mrs. Nelson Morrison and children are off for an overland trip to the Nestucca beach.

Allen S. Craven has begun the erection of a new cottage on his lots near the railroad track, north of the Sims greenhouse.

W. P. Pleasant has the contract. Miss Cora Comer, who spent several days in town visiting with her father, Silas Comer and her brother, M. C. Comer, left for her home in Seattle Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Ernest Bales, of Bakersfield, California, who has been visiting with her parents at Dayton, came down Wednesday evening for a visit with Newberg relatives.

Mrs. A. C. Chapman and daughter, Miss Vera and Miss Any Hinshaw are here from Goldendale, Washington, visiting with the Wright, White and Hinshaw families.

W. W. Hollingsworth, Will Ormand, Leslie Pike, Will Vestal and Walter Reynolds made a fishing trip to the Spaulding camp on the Luckiamute last Friday, returning on Monday.

Walter and Miss Beula Spaulding came out from Newport Tuesday to make preparation for his return to Ann Arbor, Michigan, next week to resume his studies in the university.

Francis Wright and wife from Kansas City, who were on their way to Seattle to attend the A. Y. P., stopped off here a day the first of the week for a visit with their former neighbors, Nathan and Lizzie White.

The regular quarterly meeting of Friends Church will be held on next Saturday and Sunday. On Friday evening a meeting will be held at Friends church in the interests of Pacific College.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Mattoon, of Portland, on August 4, a thirteen pound son. The mother was formerly Miss Eva Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith, of Newberg.

Mrs. John Thompson and daughter, Miss Vera, of Huntington, are in town visiting with the family of Dr. John S. Rankin. Miss Thompson is a successful teacher in the Huntington public schools.

B. H. Miller is at home from Portland where he spent four weeks in a hospital. He has sold his place west of town to a California man named Sloan and will take a needed rest and try to regain his strength.

Rev. A. J. Weaver and family left for the upper Columbia the first of the week where they expected to find a quiet retreat for camping. If the change proves to be beneficial to Mrs. Weaver they will remain for some time.

Walter R. Miles and wife are at home from Penn College where he taught last year, and will spend some time visiting before returning to Iowa. He intends to do some graduate work in the University of Iowa next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Toben, of Muscatine, Iowa, Miss Helen Stelle, of Tenark, Illinois, and Miss Mabel Goddard, of Freeport, Illinois, have been visiting at "Fruitburst," the home of Mrs. Sarah Ewing north of town during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Douglas, who shook the dust of Newberg from their feet last spring to return to their former home east of the Rockies, with the avowed determination never to return to Oregon, came in on the train Saturday evening.

W. H. Galland is at home from his visit with relatives in Colorado and Iowa and will settle down in Newberg again. He says he had a very satisfactory visit though he saw some awfully hot weather while he was away from Oregon.

Mrs. W. E. Terrell and children, Matthew Terrell and Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Steddom, the latter from Iowa, returned from an overland trip to the Nestucca beach the first of the week, reporting a pleasant outing with plenty of fish and oyster diet.

Mrs. J. H. Ingle came in Wednesday, renewed her subscription for another year and on receiving a receipt for the amount said, "I can't bear to read a paper that is not paid for." There are others who feel the same way about it—and then again there are others.

Some five hundred regulars from Vancouver Barracks, who are off on their annual twenty day hike and who were on their way to Grand Round, went into camp in Oliver's field in the lower part of town Monday noon and remained until the following morning. During the afternoon and evening the camp was visited by a large number of people who found the men to be courteous and gentlemanly, and ready to answer questions and give information regarding army life. They will probably stop over here again the latter part of the month on their return trip.

Mrs. Capitola Cumunings was married to J. H. McKowen on Wednesday evening of last week at 5 o'clock, at the residence of Rev. C. L. Hamilton in Portland, the latter officiating. The bride is well and favorably known in Newberg where she has resided for the past eighteen years and the groom is a Portland business man. Their home will be in Newberg for the present at least, while Mr. McKowen will continue to maintain his insurance office in the city. Mr. and Mrs. McKowen were friends in Indiana during their school days thirty-five years ago.

Thomas Prince, who has been at his Massachusetts home for several months, came in on the train Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Whitten and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Pike have gone to Salt Lake City to attend the G. A. R. National Encampment. Mr. Whitten took along a fine lot of agates of his own dressing which he will no doubt find ready sale for, as many of them were beauties.

W. E. White has rented his property near the Baptist church to Prof. Weist, the new high school teacher, and has removed to the La Pean property which he recently traded for. Mr. La Pean has taken the Mrs. Hamilton property on Fifth street formerly owned by O. K. Edwards.

J. H. Douglas and family and Mrs. F. A. Elliott and son John have gone to the Big Luckiamute camp of the Spaulding Logging Co. above Falls City for a camping and fishing trip. Miss Mary Cook also went for a short visit with her parents who have charge of the housekeeping in the camp.

Prof. Wallace A. Newlin left for Berkeley on Wednesday where he will register for work in the university as graduate student and teacher for the coming year. He and W. C. Woodward will have rooms with Mrs. A. B. Lamb and daughter, Miss May, who are building a new cottage in Berkeley.

James P. Hughes and wife, of Clarinda, Iowa, cousins of J. A. Hughes, spent a couple of days visiting at the home of the latter, leaving Monday morning to renew their journey. They will see the fair at Seattle and go south by way of San Francisco. Mr. Hughes remarked that "It's forty years last July since I saw Jake, so I thought I would hunt him up."

Ireland and Gordon have sold the furnishings of the Commercial Livery to E. F. Grisez, of Oregon City, who has leased the barn and taken possession. The latter comes well recommended and will no doubt do a good business. Mr. Ireland, who has had the management of the barn, has not announced his intentions for the future, further than to say he is going to take a needed rest.

Prof. W. J. Reagan and wife arrived home from Berkeley Tuesday morning where they took advantage of the summer course at the university, and they report a very pleasant and profitable time. They returned on the steamer "Rose City" and came through without experiencing the sensation of sea sickness so common to the lot of man who "goes down to the sea in ships." They tell of a very devout lady passenger who spent her time pouring over her Bible and entreating those about her to do the same, saying that those who maintained such a frame of mind would be free from sea sickness, but they noticed that she failed to appear in the dining room the second day out.

A very pleasant surprise was given E. A. Ellis and family at their new home on Chehakm mountain on Wednesday evening of last week, there being about thirty young people present. The evening was spent in playing games and before the departure of the guests ice cream and cake were served. A very pleasant time is reported. Those in attendance were Mrs. Ego, Elva Ego, the Misses Gladys Labadie, Gertrude Kunkel, Louella Willis, Rosa Davis, Elsie Davis, Kate Hoffman, Julia Hoffman, Maude Gustin, Laura Gustin, Laura Brickell, Florence Courtney, Mildred Courtney, Nellie Hopkins, Cora Schmeltzer, Margaret Hammond, Messrs. J. W. Ego, Arthur Reetz, Frank Schmeltzer, Belwin Vincent, J. A. Stichler, Edward Willis, Henry Hoffman, Fred Beno, M. Brickell, Teck Carstenbrook, John Robinson, Lewis Schoonover, Walter Davis, Teak Morrison, Ray Ego, Arthur Davis, Willie Davis.
