SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Suggestive Quotations on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Linscott for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

Aug. 22nd, 1909.

Paul's Third Missionary Journey—The Riot in Ephesus. Acts 19:23 to 20:1.

Golden Text—He said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee, for my strength is made perfect in weakness. 2 Cor. 12:9.

Verses 23-27—Does the successful presentation of truth always mean a war with evil?

When the general welfare of the people is injured by the business of the few, is it or not the duty of the State to make such business illegal?

Can you give examples where the spread of Christianity as in this case, has closed up injurious business enterprises?

What is the general influence of Christianity upon business enterprise?

Should a worker for God cease his efforts if he sees he is hurting some person's business?

If the spread of Christianity hurts a class of business men, should we compensate the losers?

If Demetrius himself had become a Christian, would it have been in his business interest in the long run?

Can a man be true and honorable who protests, for business reasons, against the application of Christian principles to the community?

Verses 28-29—How much sense or reason is there in an excited and angry individual or crowd?

Which is generally the more unreasonable, if not insane, an angry individual or an angry crowd?

Was it the danger to their business, or their religion, which most stirred the anger of these people?

Which interest most influences the average man, his business or his religion?

Who were Gaius and Aristarchus, and what influenced their illegal arrest?

Verses 30-31—Should a man risk his life for ever so good a cause, when he knows it will do no good?

Should a man ever refuse to risk his life for a good cause if, by so doing, he can conserve its interests?

What principles should guide us in running risks for the cause of God, which is always the cause of humanity?

Was Paul's first impulse right to rush in among this angry crowd?

When should we, and when should we not be governed by the first impulse?

Verse 32.—In the usual riot or mob, what proportion of the crowd know what they are contending for?

Verses 33-34.—What did Alexander want to say to this mob?

Why did the people cry down Alexander?

Can any man reason correctly who is blinded by religious prejudice?

Verses 35-41.—How do you estimate the character of this town clerk?

Are we under as much obligation to take good advice from a heathen or an infidel as we are from a Christian?

Who was the goddess Diana supposed to be, and what did her worship stand for?

Was it superstition pure and simple, or is there any ground for belief that the image of the goddess Diana did fall down from heaven?

Is it ever wise to act when under the influence of anger or passion?

Does it often happen that one cool level headed man can disperse a mob?

Chapter 20:1.—Do Christians in these days show the love they have one for another as they ought?

Lesson for Sunday, August 29th, 1909. —Paul on Christian Love. I Cor. 13: 1-13.

Neskowin at Slab Creek Beach Platted.

The multitude of beach going people throughout the valley will all be interested in knowing that Slab Creek beach, which has, for years, been such a favorite camping ground, is now platted and the owners will offer for sale a limited number of lots.

The natural advantages, of Slab Creek beach, are known to most everyone in the Willamette Valley. Campers were going there twenty years ago and it has steadily maintained its position as being the most popular summer resort place on the Tillamook Coast.

Conditions for the convenience of summer visitors at Slab Creek have improved greatly and the new owners are offering a sale contract which assures many additional improvements and advantages. The present hotel will be greatly enlarged at once, means taken to assure summer visitors with complete provisions, supplies, lumber, etc., in fact all the comforts of home at Willamette Valley prices.

The natural beauty of the place, the fairly good roads, which will be further improved so as to make the resort especially attractive for automobilists, the fact that Slab Creek is not an experiment, but an established resort, and the comparatively low price at which lots will be offered, giving purchasers a reasonable certainty of enhancements in values, combine to assure that Slab Creek beach will greatly increase in popularity and that its present summer population of from 200 to 500 persons will multiply in numbers. The owners are the Neskowin Company of Portland and Tillamook.
