A number of Newberg people have been in Portland during the week attending the annual camp meeting of the Seventh Day Adventist church.

Miss Jennie D. Miller returned from Seattle the first of the week where she spent a couple of weeks visiting with friends, and in the meantime seeing the fair.

The large barn of R. W. Lancefield on his farm near Briedwells station in this county was destroyed by fire at an early hour last Saturday morning. Besides the barn the loss includes 22 head of farm horses, a new binder, several wagons and buggies and 80 tons of hay. The fire was plainly of incendiary origin.

Mrs. Clarence Butt and sons, Ralph and Dale are at home from an overland trip to the Nestucca beach, where they went in company with Mrs. Nancy Crawford of Dayton. They brought home some fine salmon.

Mrs. C. H. Fry, of El Centro, California and Mrs. Lula Ferrell, of Troutdale, are in town visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes Gardner.

A Newberg citizen who has some timber land out east of town would be glad to know the price the party received for the chittim bark he peeled from trees on the place.

Christopher Atkinson who had been suffering from tubercular trouble for several months died last Tuesday. Deceased leaves a wife and several children. He was forty years of age.

Clarence Crow has resigned his position as assistant agent at the S. P. station, but does not know at present where he will be located. His place has been taken by Harry Klock.

Mrs. Harvey D. Crumly and children are at home from their visit with relatives at Carthage, Missouri. They found the weather intolerably hot and cut their visit short on account of it.

W. G. Allen was down from Eugene Tuesday and Wednesday looking after the prune crop. F. A. Morris and George Allen will have charge of the Newberg evaporator during the season's run.

Jones, who resigned his position as a member of the faculty of Pacific College at the close of the year, after many years of faithful service, left here on last Monday for San Jacinto, California, with his family, where he has a position as teacher at a remunerative salary. He leaves a large circle of friends at Newberg who will wish him the greatest measure of success in his new position.

Globe Sayings.

We have never yet seen a leg that looked well in a white stocking.

Every boy believes that some day he will be able to lift a half ton.

Most women can whistle just enough to hear themselves do it.

Have you that tired feeling? Seven complete cures for it are advertised in this issue.

People who say they are not jealous, are trying a bluff they cannot successfully work.

Another girl, who lately married for money, returned to work down town to-day.

A man's ideal place to spend an evening is one where he can go home as early as he wants to.

Every man thinks he is a good judge of beauty, but a lot of different kinds of women get married.

A girl may be backward about announcing her engagement, but she expects you to notice her engagement ring, just the same.

Not one man in a thousand can tell a "story" well; yet every man tries it. And how the poor story tellers drag out the details.

A woman calls it tact to get two enemies together, and keep them from fighting. A man calls it amusement, and lets them fight it out.

Look yourself over carefully. It is the ambition of your life to see how many people you can make miserable? There are plenty of such people; you are not above suspicion.

"Man could get along very well without a stomach," says a scientist, and, while man may not believe it, there is precedent for believing that some woman will try it.

A man may do his share of the work, but you can't convince his wife of it when he sits around the house with nothing to do on Sunday.

Whenever things don't run to suit us we find consolation in hunting up the onery kin of others. We have found no one in ten years' search, who does not possess a raft of such kin.

If you have quit smoking don't bury the fact in silence. Get up meetings, become a reformer and hold conventions about it. In this way you can win money and fame, and your wife can get to board the delegates, the same as they do in Topeka.

There is some complaint from the women because the soda fountain keepers do not set up a free lunch. A glass of soda costs as much as a glass of beer, and the beer drinker gets an appetizing free lunch thrown in. This discrimination in favor of the men is very annoying to the women, and they talk of boycotting every fountain in town unless they are treated differently.—Atchison (Kan.) Globe.
