

Discuss the Boys' Clothes Question with Us

We can tell you most about the clothes your boys should wear, and can show you most in the way of clever workmanship, durable fabrics and reliable, honest merchandise.

At one time and another all the clothing makers in America have given us the opportunity to look at their goods and handle their line. We have had our choice of all the lines made, and have selected as the one brand representing the high standard of quality and reliability that made by Ederheimer, Stein & Co. under their famous label XTRAGOOD.

The XTRAGOOD brand has given satisfaction to more people than any other brand of boys' clothes. More XTRAGOOD clothes are worn than any other kind. People who know about the different grades of boys clothing prefer to buy XTRAGOOD. It is guaranteed absolutely; maker and furnisher both pledge you full satisfaction.

For these reasons it will pay you to talk over with us the style your boy could wear, the pattern that will best suit him and the price you should pay. Discuss these matters at once and in our store.

Dollon Kenworthy came up from Portland Tuesday morning to make arrangements to attend Pacific College the coming year.

At a meeting of the school board Monday evening it was definitely decided that the Newberg public school shall open on Monday, October the first.

W. L. Graham and family, of Kelso, Washington, have been visiting with Mrs. Graham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Christenson, at their home up the valley.

John Cox, of Winterset, Iowa, who has been making a tour of the Northwest including British Columbia, is making a visit here with his cousin, David Martin. Mr. Cox visited here six years ago.

Mrs. C. J. Larsen returned home last week from a visit with her married daughters in Eastern Oregon. While gone she took up a timber claim along with several others in Wheeler county, setting a good example of thrift and foresight to those younger in years.

Miss Betsey Jensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jensen, of West Chehalis, died Friday at the Adventist sanitarium in Portland whither she had been taken for treatment. The funeral services were held here Sunday in the Adventist church, interment being made in the G. A. R. cemetery.

The opening day for Pacific College is September 25.

Clem Niswonger has rented the larger Forsyth cottage on College street with the expectation of living here and attending college the coming year.

J. W. Forsyth is at home from the Falls City lumbering district this week, where he is interested with the Polk County Lumbering Company. The company is putting in a new mill which will be ready to start up in a few days.

The business men on First street from College to Center have signed a paper agreeing to take turns as an additional night watch in the limits indicated until the "long dry spell" is terminated. A wise precaution which others on the street would do well to take.

F. E. Whitney, superintendent of the railway mail service informed a representative of the Graphic Tuesday that beginning this week, probably Thursday or Friday, a mail clerk will be placed on the morning train out of Portland and from this date a Sunday mail service will be established. E. S. Piper will be given this run when he returns to work at the close of his vacation.

No sooner had J. T. Rhoton set a dozen eucalyptus trees last spring than they were dug up and spirited away by some one, and recently some of his remaining shade trees have suffered injury at the hands of some vandal. Suspicion is directed to certain parties who will do well to go slow in the future, else the assistance of a competent surgeon may be needed to extract a load of bird shot from the posterior extremities.

Evangelist C. F. Weigle and wife visited in town Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Vestal.

J. M. Atkinson went to Salem Tuesday with seventeen head of Jerseys and it goes without saying that he will return with his share of State Fair premiums.

Hon. W. T. West, who recently traded for the Dunstan place east of town, arrived here this week with his family. For the present they are quartered in tents as they could not get immediate possession. Mr. West said they preferred camping rather than to make the move later when the roads get muddy.

A number of ladies were pleasantly entertained by Mrs. J. C. Colcord and Mrs. L. H. Shirley at the latter's home Wednesday August 29 from four to five in honor of their sister Mrs. Milt Nicholson, who left Friday for her new home at Caldwell, Idaho. The home was tastefully decorated with ferns and flowers. Light refreshments were served.

The three months old infant son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Elliott died Sunday, the funeral services, conducted by Pres. McGrew and Amos Kenworthy, being held at the Elliott home above Dundee Monday afternoon. Interment was made in Roselawn cemetery. The parents wish the Graphic to express their gratitude to friends and neighbors for kindness extended in their bereavement.

A highly successful meeting of the Yamhill County Rural Mail Carriers' Association was held in Newberg Monday at which ten of the seventeen carriers from the various parts of the county were in attendance. The visitors arrived in the forenoon and were hospitably entertained at dinner by S. A. Mills. The business meeting of the association was held in the afternoon at the college when the following new officers were elected: S. A. Mills, Newberg, president; C. H. Kelly, Carlton, vice president; N. E. Willetts, North Yamhill, secretary and treasurer. After an interesting consideration of questions of interest to themselves and the service, the carriers adjourned to meet at North Yamhill on the twenty-second of next February. Following the business meeting the Newberg carriers, Mr. Mills, A. C. Martin and C. W. Skelton, escorted the visitors about town showing them the various places of interest. The latter were more than pleased with what they saw and on leaving in the evening expressed themselves as never having been so royally entertained.

General Robert E. Lee.

Was the greatest general the world has ever known. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the greatest liniment. Quickly cures all pains. It is within the reach of all. T. H. Pointer, Hempstead, Texas, writes: This is to certify that Ballard's Snow Liniment has been used in my household for years and has been found to be an excellent liniment for rheumatic pains. I am never without it. Sold by Chas. F. Moore.

Silent goodness speaks loudest.

An Ounce of Prevention

Is worth a pound of cure. There are many poor sufferers, consumptives who are hopeless of getting well—who, if they had taken care of themselves, would now be well. A cough is the foundation of consumption. Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure that cough. Mrs. S., Great Falls, Montana, writes: "I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my family for years—my children never suffer with coughs. Sold by Chas. F. Moore."
