Additional Locals.

Charley Morris is at home again visiting with his mother, Mrs. Mary Morris, after an absence of four years from Newberg. The time has been spent at Peoria, Illinois, learning the watchmakers and jewelers trade. Charley was a member of the class of 1905 in Pacific College and he has a host of friends about Newberg who are glad to see him back and who are hoping he may remain here. An absence of four years has marked many changes for him in and around Newberg.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary C. Osborn, wife of J. T. Osborn, was held at Friends church this, Thursday morning at 9:30. The deceased formerly lived in Newberg and for several years was matron of the college boarding hall. For the past few years Mr. and Mrs. Osborn have been living in Everett, Washington. She had been suffering with cancer for several months and some time ago went to Salt Lake where a surgical operation was performed that prolonged her life for a time. Besides her husband she leaves one daughter, Miss Bertha Cox, and two sons, O. L. Cox, of Salt Lake, and Fletcher Cox whose home is in Montana. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Charles Replogle, who, in company, with his wife came with the relatives from Everett.

Deceased was a life-long member of Friends church.

Charles D. Hunnicutt, of Economy, Indiana, and his brother, Wm. Hunnicutt from Nebraska, who are making a tour of the Northwest, were here the first of the week visiting with Thomas Miles, John Gilbert and others. Charles D. Hunnicutt and the editor of the Graphic were schoolmates in 1875 and in '76 we made the trip to the Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia as members of the Indiana Editorial Association, along with a membership of more than a hundred. We put up at the Colonnade hotel in Philadelphia, the Fifth Avenue in New York and the Arlington in Washington, D. C., passing as members of the "four hundred," and at the White house were given a reception by President Grant. Charley and the writer were "innocents abroad," and as youngsters just out of school we saw many things new and strange, but it was a good experience and we got the worth of our money. Since the close of that trip we had not met until last week on the A. Y. P. grounds at Seattle.

The town is full of preachers, their coming being accounted for by the gathering of the nineteenth session of the Synod of Oregon of the Presbyterian church, now in action at the Presbyterian church in Newberg. The number in attendance is about 150 and among them are some prominent figures in the church on the Pacific Coast, such as Rev. Robert McKenzie, D. D. L. L. D., President of San Francisco Theological Seminary; Rev. Ernest F. Hall, formerly missionary to Korea; Rev. T. Moore, D. D., San Anselmo, California; President Crooks, Albany College; Dr. J. R. N. Bell, former newspaper man and all round war horse, now pastor of a church in Corvallis. Public meetings are held at night to which the public is invited. No further account of the doings of the Synod can be given this week, as the Graphic goes to press too early to get any detailed account.

John H. Gabriel, a prominent attorney of Denver, Colorado, where he has been practicing law for the last twenty years, is in town with his wife visiting with his brother-in-law, F. L. Ames.

A gentleman named Brown with his family, from Gladstone, Michigan, were in town the first of the week visiting at the home of C. K. Spaulding.

Peter Olds and wife were down from LaFayette Wednesday visiting the family of C. C. Ferguson. Mr. Olds and Mrs. Ferguson are brother and sister.

As will be seen by a notice elsewhere over his own signature, Rev. George C. Ritchey started on a trip to Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Atkinson are here from Goldendale, Washington, visiting with relatives.

Rev. C. L. Hamilton and wife came up from Portland Thursday morning.
