Mr. and Mrs. Cummings Surprised.

A most enjoyable surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cummings on Tuesday night, when a large number of their relatives remembered their wooden wedding anniversary, in a most pleasing and substantial manner. The beautiful piece of furniture which was presented, was greatly admired and appreciated by Mr. and Mrs. Cummings who proved themselves to be a most delightful host and hostess. Delicious refreshments were served and all who were there, report having had a splendid time.

Popular Young Woman is Lawyer.

"Manche Irene Langley, Attorney-at-Law." This is the new "shingle" that may appear on Pacific avenue in the near future and just because Miss Manche Langley, the well known and popular daughter of Judge and Mrs. Wm. Langley, of this city, was successful in the state bar examination held in Salem recently.

Miss Langley has read law in her father's office for a number of years and has had practical experience in many procedures in law. Her friends say she takes to the study of law as a duck to water and they rejoice in her success. Whether Attorney Langley will specialize in corporation law or in divorce and breach of promise actions, is a matter that has not as yet been decided. But that is neither here nor there. Good luck, Manche!—Washington Co. News.
