W. E. White has bought a ten acre tract off the Sears farm two miles west of town, of Thomas E. Miles, and will do the granger act for a while.

The subject next Sabbath morning at the M. E. church will be "Shall We Know Each other in Heaven." At night "Better Than Klondyke." All are invited.

Rev. A. J. Weaver will attend the quarterly meeting of the Friends church in Portland Saturday but will return to fill the pulpit in the home church on Sunday.

Lee Rowell, the Sheridan postmaster, who is figuring on improving his office outfit, was in town Wednesday looking at the new fixtures in the Newberg office.

The use of cigarettes by minors has become quite common in our city. The club women are doing a little investigating and are going to find out, if a statelaw can be enforced.

Noah Parrish came down from Umatilla county the first of the week, where he has been living for the past few years, to secure a location with a view of returning here with his family.

Mrs. Jane Voss, the mother of Noah and James Heater, died at Sherwood on last Friday night at the age of seventy-eight. The remains were laid to rest in Pleasant Hill cemetery on Sunday.

The ministerial association has arranged for union Thanksgiving services to be held at the Baptist church. The sermon will be preached by Rev. John F. Lyons, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

Board walks on First and Main streets are now almost a thing of the past. With the completion of walks now under way all will be cement, with the exception of a little more than 100 feet on the North side of First street.

Mrs. Mary Hertig, a widow whose home was at Caldwell, Idaho, died at the home of her son, Adolph Hertig, in the upper part of Chehalis valley and will be buried in the Pitman cemetery Friday. She was sixty-four years old.

Mrs. M. C. George arrived home from Walla Walla the first of the week, where she had been for several weeks with her husband who has been practicing magnetic healing. Their daughter, Miss Hattie, is also at Walla Walla practicing her profession as trained nurse.

The Sherwood correspondent to the Hillsboro Independent who wrote the squib below must be aware, ere this, that the shop that keeps an exposed molasses barrel must expect flies to congregate from a long distance: "A citizen of Portland and one likewise hailing from Newberg settled a controversy over a gambling game in an up town saloon in a fist fight, Saturday. Sherwood receives the credit of being a lively town just the same whether local or foreign talent engage in such combats."

The MILLER MERCANTILE CO.

AGENTS FOR SINCERITY CLOTHES FOR MEN

This is the time to Get Together on the Suit Question

There are so many ways in which a suit of clothes can be reduced in quality that it is absolutely folly to force a reduction in price.

SINCERITY CLOTHES

are sold at a just price, a price that quality will live up to. We are building up such confidence in this store that we can better afford to miss the trade of any one man than turn a suit over to a customer which misses the SINCERITY quality.

We are running this business on straight lines, because a straight line is the shortest distance between two points—YOU and US. If you are ready, we are, with a magnificent assortment of new styles and fabrics.

SINCERITY CLOTHES.. 13.50 to $25

Walter O. Robertson has gone to Lebanon where he has a position as sawyer in a sawmill. His family is still in Newberg but they will remove to Lebanon if the position proves to be a permanent one.

A very pleasant surprise was given Mrs. Leetha Ames one day last week by her many friends, the gathering being in honor of her birthday anniversary. Delicious refreshments were served by the ladies of the W. R. C. and Mrs. Ames received a number of nice presents. Good music was furnished by Mrs. Hunt.

The college students desire to have access to certain special articles in back numbers of magazines and they will be grateful to anyone who can furnish any of the following: Forum, April 1908; Bookman, July and December, 1908; Living Age, May, '08; Atlantic Monthly, June, '09. They may be left at the college or handed to any of the students or members of the faculty.

Axum Newby brought to town some freak pumpkins Tuesday, two growing from the same stem and well developed, and two others not only growing from the same stem but grown together. If the man who makes two blades of grass grow where only one grew before is a public benefactor, what must be said of one who shows such development with common every day pumpkin seeds.
