Merritt Wells came up from Portland Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Estle.

L. E. Brown made a business trip to Dallas and Falls City last week.

Mrs. E. C. Lugar, of Portland, was in town last Monday visiting with Miss Vinnie Williams.

Wm. Schaad and T. J. Werth have moved to the farm they recently purchased at Grand Ronde in the upper part of the county.

There will be others in line at the drug stores Saturday morning wanting to secure seats for the Central Grand Concert Co. Don't delay and get left.

F. L. Ames returned home last week from a trip to North Dakota where he went to look after his farm. He also went down into Iowa to see his brother who is in poor health.

The many friends of Miss Jennie D. Miller will be sorry to hear that she is breaking up housekeeping in Newberg with the intention of going to Portland to live.

Rev. F. C. Stannard went to Corvallis Wednesday to attend the installation exercises held at the Baptist church in that city, when Rev. Bassford, the pastor, assumed charge of the church.

Gus Guddat has sold his farm of 157 acres in the Rex neighborhood formerly known as the Andy Winters place. The purchaser is Cap. Paul Reimers, of Portland and the price paid was $125 per acre.

A men's meeting will be held at the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening of next week, when Dr. J. R. N. Bell, of Corvallis, will deliver an address on the subject of "Man's Place in the Universe." A banquet will be served. All free.

A union meeting of the different churches of Newberg will be held next Sunday evening in the Friends church, beginning at 7:30. Rev. C. C. Phipps, state secretary of the International Sunday School Association will deliver the address.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church invited the men of the congregation to a free supper Monday evening, but they report that they got the wool pulled over their eyes and were made to work it out.

Jo Bowman, who is interested in a shingle mill at Castle Rock, Washington, was here Saturday and Sunday. He said the shingle men lost pretty heavily a short time ago by the high water in that district occasioned by the heavy rains.

The mercury fell to six degrees below the freezing point Monday morning, which is pretty cold weather for this season of the year in the Willamette valley. It was almost as cold the following morning but has since been moderating.

Guy Bennett left here this Thursday morning for San Diego, California, for a visit with his step-mother who lives in that city. He took along a couple of boxes of apples in order to be able to show the people. He will be gone two or three weeks.

Wm. Garnet who had made his home in the Gearin family across the river for a number of years died the first of the week at the age of eighty-four years. Burial was made in the Catholic cemetery at St. Paul, he being a devout Catholic. He had never been married.

Miss Pearl Durst, a former teacher in the Newberg public school, has been elected librarian for the Sellwood division of the Portland library. Miss Durst is thoroughly competent to fill the position and her many Newberg friends will be glad to know that her ability has been recognized by the library committee.

The MILLER MERCANTILE CO.

AGENTS FOR SINCERITY CLOTHES FOR MEN

This is the time to Get Together on the Suit Question

There are so many ways in which a suit of clothes can be reduced in quality that it is absolutely folly to force a reduction in price.

SINCERITY CLOTHES

are sold at a just price, a price that quality will live up to. We are building up such confidence in this store that we can better afford to miss the trade of any one man than turn a suit over to a customer which misses the SINCERITY quality.

We are running this business on straight lines, because a straight line is the shortest distance between two points—YOU and US. If you are ready, we are, with a magnificent assortment of new styles and fabrics.

SINCERITY CLOTHES. 13.50 to $25

OTHER MAKES 5.00 to $12

Miller Mercantile Co.

Walter Wilson has bought a half interest in the Vincent Feed Implement Co. business.

Everett Heacock and wife came down from Salem Sunday to spend the day with relatives.

Roy Bates was down from Rosedale again last Sunday—to see his brother of course.

In order to give all an equal show for seats for the Lyceum Course, one person will not be allowed to make more than six reservations at one time.

Fall in line Saturday morning at nine o'clock and secure your tickets for the first number of the lyceum course.

"The Greatest Thing in the World" will be the subject at the M. E. church next Sunday morning. At night the theme will be "Playing the fool." The pastor will give a "Chalk-Talk" at Sabbath school. Sabbath School, 10 a. m. Epworth League 6:30 p. m.

The Star Lyceum gives five numbers during the winter and season tickets for yourself and wife, or prospective wife, will only cost you at the rate of thirty-five cents each a number, and this includes reserved seats. Every number will be first class and will be worth double the price charged.

For the month of October the Newberg postoffice made a gain in receipts of 37 per cent over the same month last year and Postmaster Wilson says the outlook is that the present month will make a better showing than that. This is pretty good evidence that Newberg is on the move.

The Springbrook school, with Miss Lola Kaufman as principal and Miss Eula Hodson as assistant, will give a short program and basket social, Friday evening, November 26, beginning at 7 o'clock. The proceeds are to go toward the purchase of books for the school library and to make some improvements.

W. E. Crozer, assistant cashier of the United States National Bank, left here on Monday morning with his wife and three children for a visit with relatives in Kansas and Iowa. In Iowa the Crozer family will hold a reunion, the brothers having been scattered from Iowa to Oregon and Canada for several years.
