Jack St Germain made a business trip to Portland, Tuesday.

A. J. Palmer has been on the sick list the past two weeks.

Miss Allen, a friend of Mrs. N.
C. Johnson's made them a visit last week.

Miss Maude Wills made a few days visit with Miss Minchin, of Dundee recently.

Andrew Christenson was unfortunate lately, in having one of his fingers badly hurt on a corn cutter.

Miss Mable Paulsen returned home from Portland Monday on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. H. C. Paulsen.

Mr. House, a brother of Mrs.
Loveland's, who with his family visited here six weeks, decided to move to Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

The W. C. T. U. met as appointed at the home of Mrs. J. C.
Wills, fourteen ladies being present. Reading, prayer, singing and the usual business was the order, after which the meeting gave way to the county president, Miss Edith Minchin, who was with us. She gave a very interesting account of the State Convention, held at Hood River telling of the work the different county unions had done, of the miniature fair held at the convention, showing us some of the badges worn by the different counties, Yamhill badge being of ribbon with a walnut suspended by a white ribbon. She also presented some of the work planned for the coming year and gave in all a very encouraging talk.
One new member came into the union, Mrs. Hendrickson. Mrs.
M. J. Johnson contributed seventy-eight birthday pennies as a free-will offering. One dollar and a half was contributed for the "mile of pennies." After adjournment a social hour was spent over refreshments and as the ladies departed each one was presented with a beautiful bouquet of chrysanthemums. Next meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. W. R. Everest, second Wednesday in December. This will be the time for reports.

A Spread for the Boys.

The young men between the ages of fifteen and twenty who belong to the Friends church, with a few of their friends, will not soon forget the social given them Tuesday evening at the church. The Endeavor room was converted into a reception room where a social hour, with games, was enjoyed. A special feature of the entertainment was the music rendered by an orchestra conducted by Miss Doris Gregory who deserves great credit for her efforts. At six-thirty, when Rev. Weaver announced supper, forty hungry boys readily responded and did full justice to chicken pie bountifully accompanied with all the good things of the season. The supper was prepared by the ladies of the church and served by the Misses Hazel Comer, Gertrude Hollingsworth, Hazel Elliott, Lorene Otis, Lorena Kelsey, Esther Miles and Myrtle Mills.

The young men present were Messrs. Cook, Benson, Hadley, Pickett, J. Elliott, M. Elliott,
